No One Writes Back Eunjin Jang,2013-11-16 Communication or the lack thereof is the subject of this sly update of the picaresque novel No One Writes Back is the story of a young man who leaves home with only his blind dog an MP3 player and a book traveling aimlessly for three years from motel to motel meeting people on the road Rather than learn the names of his fellow travelers or even invent nicknames for them he assigns them numbers There s 239 who once dreamed of being a poet but who now only reads her poems to a friend in a coma there s 109 who rides trains endlessly because of a broken heart and 32 who s already decided to commit suicide The narrator writes letters to these men and women in the hope that he can console them in their various miseries as well as keep a record of his own experiences A letter is like a journal entry for me except that it gets sent to other people No one writes back of course but that doesn t mean that there isn t some hope that one of them will someday At Least We Can Apologize Lee Ki-ho,2013-09-26 This story focuses on an agency whose only purpose is to offer apologies for a fee on behalf of its clients This seemingly insignificant service leads us into an examination of sin guilt and the often irrational demands of society A kaleidoscope of minor nuisances and major grievances this novel heralds a new comic voice in Korean letters

House with a Sunken Courtyard Kim Won-il,2013-09-26 An occasionally terrifying and always vivid portrayal of what it was like to live as a refugee immediately after the end of the Korean War This novel is based on the author s own experience in his early teens in Daegu in 1954 and depicts six families that survive the hard times together in the same house weathering the tiny conflicts of interest and rivalries that spring up in such close quarters but nonetheless offering one another sympathy and encouragement as fellow sufferers of the same national misfortune brothers and sisters in privation

Stingray Kim Joo-Young,Louis Vinciguerra,2013-11-16 Hailed by critics Stingray has been described by its author as a critical biography of my loving mother With his father having abandoned his family for another woman Se young and his mother are forced to subsist on their own in the harsh environment of a small Korean farming village in the 1950s Determined to wait for her husband s return Se young s mother hangs a dried stingray on the kitchen doorjamb to her it s a reminder of the fact that she still has a husband and that she must behave as a married woman would despite all Also she claims when the family is reunited the fish will be their first celebratory meal together But when a beggar girl Sam rae sneaks into their house during a blizzard the first thing she does is eat the stingray and what follows is a struggle at once sentimental and ideological for the soul of the household
