

Here. A photograph of a young man in ecstasy. It is my father. Handsome and skinny, 23 years old, he is holding me in his arms. Now twenty-three years have passed since the camera caught our image and froze it on the black film.

Try to grow up when everything is starting to fall down. A difficult thing to try.

But some things are easy. The arithmetic of father and son: addition, subtraction, addition. I was born. My father was murdered. I grew up.
