Contemporary African American Literature Lovalerie King, Shirley Moody-Turner, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring contemporary black fiction and examining important issues in current African American literary studies In this volume Lovalerie King and Shirley Moody Turner have compiled a collection of essays that offer access to some of the most innovative contemporary black fiction while addressing important issues in current African American literary studies Distinguished scholars Houston Baker Trudier Harris Darryl Dickson Carr and Maryemma Graham join writers and younger scholars to explore the work of Toni Morrison Edward P Jones Trey Ellis Paul Beatty Mat Johnson Kyle Baker Danzy Senna Nikki Turner and many others The collection is bracketed by a foreword by novelist and graphic artist Mat Johnson one of the most exciting and innovative contemporary African American writers and an afterword by Alice Randall author of the controversial parody The Wind Done Gone Together King and Moody Turner make the case that diversity innovation and canon expansion are essential to maintaining the vitality of African American literary studies A compelling collection of essays on the ongoing relevance of African American literature to our collective understanding of American history society and culture Featuring a wide array of writers from all corners of the literary academy the book will have national appeal and offer strategies for teaching African American literature in colleges and universities across the country Gene Jarrett Boston University This book describes a fruitful tension that brings scholars of major reputation together with newly emerging critics to explore the full range of literary activities that have flourished in the post Civil Rights era Notable are such popular influences as hip hop music and Oprah Winfrey s Book Club American Literary Scholarship 2013 African American Women's Literature in Spain Sandra Llopert Babot, 2023-05-31 This volume brings forward a descriptive approach to the translation and reception of African American women s literature in Spain Drawing from a multidisciplinary theoretical and methodological framework it traces the translation history of literature produced by African American women seeking to uncover changing strategies in translation policies as well as shifts in interests in the target context and it examines the topicality of this cohort of authors as frames of reference for Spanish critics and reviewers Likewise the reception of the source literature in the Spanish context is described by reconstructing the values that underlie judgements in different reception sources Finally this book addresses the specific problem of the translation of Black English into Spanish More precisely it pays attention to the ideological and the ethical implications of translation choices and the effect of the latter on the reception of literary texts Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States Donna L. Gilton, 2020-02-18 This edition of Multicultural and Ethnic Children's Literature in the United States addresses both quantitative and more qualitative changes in this field over the last decade Quantitative changes include more authors books and publishers book review sources booklists and awards organizations institutions and websites and criticism and other scholarship Qualitative changes include More support for new and emerging writers and illustrators Promotion of multicultural literature both in the U S and around the world as well as developments in global literature Developments in the literatures described throughout this book as well as in research supporting this literature The impact of technology Characteristics and activities of four adult audiences that use and promote multicultural children s literature and Changes in leaders and their organizations This is still a single reference source for busy and involved librarians teachers parents scholars publishers distributors and community leaders Most books on multicultural children s literature are written especially for teachers librarians and scholars They may be introductions to the literature selection tools teaching guides or very theoretical books on choosing evaluating and using these materials Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature in the United States focuses much more on the history of the development of this literature from the nineteenth century to the present day This book provides much more of a cultural and political context for the early development of this literature It emphasizes the self determining viewpoints and activities of diverse people as they produce materials for the young Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature describes organizations events activities and other contributions of diverse writers illustrators publishers researchers scholars librarians educators and parents It also describes trends in the research on the literature It elaborates more on ways in which diversity is still an issue in publishing companies and an extended list of related industries It describes related literature from outside of the U S and makes connections to traditional global literature Last Multicultural and Ethnic Children s Literature shows the impact of multiculturalism on education libraries and the mainstream culture in general While the other books on multiculturalism focus on how to find evaluate and use multicultural materials especially in schools and libraries this book is concerned over whether and how books are produced in the first place and how this material impact the broader society In many ways it supplements other books on multicultural children s literature

Handbook of Black Librarianship Andrew P. Jackson, Marva L. DeLoach, Michele Fenton, 2024-12-15 Winner of the BCALA 2025 Literary Award for Outstanding Contribution to Publishing As Dr Josey and Ms DeLoach wrote in their Introduction to the second edition of The Handbook of Black Librarianship In designing the second edition of The Handbook of Black Librarianship the editors felt that this work should be a reference tool related to the various aspects of African Americans in librarianship and their work in libraries That first edition covered issues faced by black library professionals in the various fields of librarianship organizations formed black library collections and books resources and other areas of progress The second edition published twenty three years later highlighted more current events in Black librarianship early and contemporary library organizations vital issues African American resources discussions on and about librarianship a focus on health librarianship and information resources and education It has now been another twenty two years since the last edition and time to reflect on various aspects of African Americans in our profession as well as the advancements over the past two and a half decades and to review those issues African Americans still face and how modern technological advancements have impacted our profession and the lives of Black librarians This third edition s

The Ethos of Black Motherhood in America Kimberly C. Harper, 2020-10-27 The Ethos of Black Motherhood in America Only White Women Get Pregnant examines the ethos of Black and white mothers in America's racialized society Kimberly C Harper argues that the current Black maternal health crisis is not a new one but an existing one rooted in the disregard for Black wombs dating back to America's history with chattel slavery Examining the reproductive laws that controlled the reproductive experiences of black women Harper provides a fresh insight into the bad black mother trope that Black feminist scholars have theorized and argues that the controlling images of black motherhood are a creation of the American nation state In addition to a discussion of black motherhood Harper also explores the image of white motherhood as the center of the landscape of motherhood Scholars of communication gender studies women's studies history and race studies will find this book particularly useful
