Reconfiguration of Business Models and Ecosystems Svetla T. Marinova,Marin A. Marinov,2023-02-10 Decoupling of business models and ecosystems is the disconnection of certain characteristic activities originally planned and completed in coincidence It could bring in an immense adverse shock in the functioning of established business models and ecosystems possibly bringing them to resilience Core causes for decoupling and resilience of business models and ecosystems are jolts known as global crisis universal pandemics etc The undesirable outcomes of critical events can reveal unique circumstances for business model and ecosystem resilience Business model and ecosystem resilience represents a mandatory prerequisite for firms challenging their functioning and even very existence Research has been conducted thus far nevertheless this theme requires significantly more consideration The key objective of this book is to bring further insights in the field delivering a thorough examination of the ways in which business models and ecosystems can develop resilience under extraordinary conditions In the book the resilience of business models and ecosystems is analysed aiming to investigate further the specifics of the relevant processes securing resilience and its outcomes The resilience of business models and ecosystems is scrutinised as a credible way for enhancing the predispositions of firm s survivability Chapter 9 of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Israel Sammy Smooha, 2024-12-06 First published in 1978 Israel focuses on the pluralistic structure of Israel and its internal conflicts The author distinguishes five major plural divisions Palestinian Arabs in the occupied territories versus Israeli citizens Israeli Arabs versus Jews Druze versus Christian versus Muslim Arabs religious versus nonreligious Jews and non European versus European Jews These divisions differ in culture social structure and resources yielding together a social hierarchy which stands in contradiction to the vision of Israel s founding fathers From this troubled situation Dr Smooha suggests that Israel dominated by a minority of European predominantly nonreligious Jews is far from reaching an optimal social mix and group harmony He observes that within Israel s pre 1967 borders the policies of compromise with the religious Jews control of Israeli Arabs and co optation of non European Jews have failed to resolve the tensions The threat to national integration however will not be realized as long as the Arab Israeli conflict and the benefits of a full employment subsidized economy continue Until then Israel will remain a highly controversial and deeply divided society

Women in Israel Yael Atzmon, Dafna N. Izraeli, 1993-01-01 This series of the Israel Sociological Association whose object is to identify and clarify the major themes that occupy social research in Israel today gathers together the best of Israeli social science investigation that was previously scattered in a wide variety of international journals Volume VI presents a composite portrait of women s lives in Israel analyzing their status hi the family at work in the military and in political life The editors start from the premise that Israel is simultaneously a modern industrial society and a traditional one with regard to the structure and centrality of family life It is governed by both secular law based on the principle of equality between men and women and religious law that imposes a different legal status between the sexes Many of the contributors analyze the social contradictions of this paradox and how they shape women s options and experiences This is the first compendium offering a comprehensive account of women in Israeli society As such it should be of great interest to people hi women s studies sociology and Middle Eastern affairs Contents partial Economic Growth and Female Labour The Case of Israel Gender Ethnicity and Income Inequality The Israeli Experience The Status of Women in Academia Scientists in Organizations Discrimination Processes in an Internal Labor Market Economic and Familial Roles of Women in Israel Is Resource Theory Equally Applicable to Wives and Husbands The Social Status of War Widows Getting Powerful with Age Changes in Women over the Life Cycle Family Gender and Attitudes toward Retirement Ritual Morality and Gender The Religious Lives of Oriental Jewish Women hi Jersusalem Women hi Legislatures Israel in a Comparative Perspective Women and Politics The Case of Israel Abortion in Israel Social Demand and Political Responses Role System under Stress Sex Roles in War Relative Deprivation hi the Labor Market Women and Language in Israel Teachers Selections of Boys and Girls as Prominent Pupils

Theories of Gender Equality Lessons from the Israeli Kibbutz Ethnic Identity and the Position of Women among Arabs hi an Israeli Town     Ethnicity, Religion and Class in Israeli Society Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Stephen Sharot, 1991-02-21 This book is the first major sociological analysis of the characteristics and interrelationships of ethnicity religion and socio economic class in Israeli society Although much has been written about the various distinctions between Sephardi and Ashkenazi Jews this volume argues for a more sophisticated approach than the rather crude divisions that have formed the basis of most works on the subject The authors include categories largely overlooked in sociological studies on Israel such as middle class Israelis from Asia and Africa and working class Israelis from Europe The data acquired from this rich ethnic mix leads to the analysis of a wide range of theoretical issues that casts fresh light on social cleavages within Israel in particular and society in general     Inclusive Developments through Socio-economic Indicators Ramesh Chandra Das, 2023-07-19 Proposing issues that hinder equal development Inclusive Developments through Socio economic Indicators New Theoretical and Empirical Insights focuses upon the roles of different socio economic indicators in explaining the convergence or inclusiveness of income across groups of varying wealth as well as within larger economies     Country on the Move: Migration to and within Israel, 1948-1995 Gabriel Lipshitz, 2013-03-14 Country on the Move presents original research and a comprehensive multidisciplinary analysis of the spatial aspects of migration It considers the spatial results of two diametrically opposed policies planning from above to settle the North African and Asian newcomers in the 1950s and planning by market forces for immigrants from the former Soviet Union in the 1990s Unlike other books on immigration Country on the Move also analyzes internal migration within Israel which is an outcome of the regional disparities produced by immigration Moreover it compares the empirical findings in Israel with international trends and its analysis can serve as a foundation for setting spatial immigration policy Audience Researchers specializing in population geography migration and regional development university students on all levels who are taking courses in these subjects and top officials in government ministries that deal with immigration     Handbook of Communication Disorders Amalia Bar-On, Dorit Ravid, Elitzur Dattner, 2018-04-23 The domain of Communication Disorders has grown exponentially in the last two decades and has come to encompass much more than audiology speech impediments and early language impairment The realization that most developmental and learning disorders are language based or language related has brought insights from theoretical and empirical linguistics and its clinical applications to the forefront of Communication Disorders science The current handbook takes an integrated psycholinguistic neurolinguistic and sociolinguistic perspective on Communication Disorders by targeting the interface between language and cognition as the context for understanding disrupted abilities and behaviors and providing solutions for treatment and therapy Researchers and practitioners will be able to find in this handbook state of the art information on typical and atypical development of language and communication dis abilities across the human lifespan from infancy to the aging brain covering all major clinical disorders and conditions in various social and communicative contexts such as spoken and written language and discourse literacy issues bilingualism and socio economic status      Social Capital, Human Capital and Economic Development: Theoretical Model and Empirical Analyses Youyou Baende Bofota, 2012-12-10 This thesis follows the literature on social capital Specifically this research is an exploration of the impact of social capital on socioeconomic outcomes such as education and economic growth It is argued that social capital impacts economic growth      Femicide, Criminology and the Law Hava Dayan, Yifat Bitton, 2022-12-30 This book offers an interdisciplinary perspective on femicide using Israel as an illuminating case study given its diverse communities and common law based legal system Utilizing analytical alongside practical perspectives the book offers a novel crimino legal approach to femicide In addition to its interdisciplinary novelty the book presents originality in going beyond the more usual focus on the central victims and the common legal tools Here the authors extend the analysis to secondary victims of femicide and examine the applicability of second tiered relevant legal tools mostly tort law as a means for gaining justice for the victims This explorative journey culminates with the authors definition of femicide as a quintessential crime of distinct nature In the context of current international pledges to better understand and consequently better fight femicide this work allows readers to comprehend the phenomenon and the ways to abolish it The book will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of criminal law tort law family law criminology and gender studies as well as for legal theorists and criminologists seeking integration of both disciplines      Wealth as a Distinct Dimension of Social Inequality Nora Skopek, 2015-07-29      The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens, A. Gary Dworkin, 2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education sociology race and ethnicity studies and social policy Chapter 20 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at SpringerLink https://link.springer.com/chapter/10.1007/978-3-319-94724-2\_20
