for discussion and interaction with peers at conferences and seminars      Open and Distance Learning in the Developing World Hilary Perraton, 2012-11-12 This revised and updated edition of Open and Distance Learning in the Developing World sets the expansion of distance education in the context of general educational change and explores its use for basic and non formal education schooling teacher training and higher education Engaging with a range of topics this comprehensive overview includes new material on non formal education mass communication approaches to education about HIV AIDS and recent literacy work in India South Africa and Zambia schooling new research projects in open schooling in Asia and subsaharan Africa and interactive radio instruction in South Africa the impact of new technology and globalisation learning delivered through the internet and mobile learning the political economy international agencies the role of private sector and funding With its critical appraisal of the facts and examination of data about effectiveness this book provides answers to problems and poses key questions for the consideration of policy makers educational practitioners and all professionals involved in implementing and delivering sustainable open and distance learning      Growth, Poverty and Developmental Aspects of Agriculture Ramesh Chandra Das, 2024-11-20 This collected edition delves into diverse aspects of agricultural economics and food security across various regions      Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun, 2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country's low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school's performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria's educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park Illinois USA      The Emevor People Richard Akpoyomare Ogbe, 2018-11-06 This book is an exposition of the sociocultural past present and futuristic preview of the Emevor speaking people of the Niger Delta Nigeria The work is the product of the author's reminiscences and introspection into the historiography geography economy language education and the multifarious rich sociocultural milieu of the people It deals with the traditional customs beliefs totems astronomy time and event reckoning marriages traditional religions ancestral worship and Christology oracle divination obituary and obsequies initiation into Ehwa womanhood rites and sabbatical fattening of brides festivals identity of people governance heroes heroines and modern pacesetters and the changes provoked by modernity By using simple language graphic descriptions and vivid and clear explanations of the phenomena and events the author has taken the reader through the maze as it were with the needed compass to navigate through these labyrinths Resource Conflict and Environmental Relations in Africa Kelechi Johnmary Ani,2023-03-15 The book discusses the failure of many African governments in providing the social needs of the masses thereby placing the citizenry on the desperate quest for economic resources Unfortunately in many African States mineral resources are owned explored and marketed by the machinery of the state The problem arises when the masses begin to challenge state access and ownership of resources that are domiciled within their ancestral land communities and constituencies Often the challenge and resistance to state ownership of resources is generated by communal or group sense of exploitation negligence and widespread poverty in the face of high resource endowment and waste by the government officials Paradoxically in Niger Delta of Nigeria as discussed in the book the state has unleashed unlimited might upon all social groups and agitators thereby leading to the increased act of taking arms by such groups When the informal resource agitators succeed in arming themselves they begin to demand social and environmental justice thereby leading to mass armed conflict between them and the government security agencies Sometimes the confrontation could be between them and other rival local resource actors in the informal sector of their country s economy bearing in mind that the resources within their jurisdiction have become the central determinant of national commonwealth It is at that state of desperado to control access extraction and sale of natural resources in a State by different armed groups that the process of natural resources extraction qualifies as the most visible cause of conflicts and crises around the African continent that is the centrepiece of the book This is quite understandable given that mineral resource is a gift of nature and nature is that phenomenon that every human group and nation claim to represent or believe to represent them Research Methods in Private International Law Xandra Kramer,Laura Carballo Piñeiro,2024-05-02 This incisive Research Handbook provides valuable insights into the various methodological approaches to Private International Law from regulatory and educational perspectives It comprehensively unpacks central themes in the field including international jurisdiction recognition and enforcement and scrupulously analyses core debates whilst addressing legislative and policy issues Postgraduate UK study and funding guide ,2008 Features information on studying at Postgraduate level in the UK what is involved what opportunities there are lists details 75 million of funding available to Postgraduate students The African Book Industry UNESCO,2025-06-18 Sustainable Transformation in African Higher Education Felix Maringe,Emmanuel Ojo,2017-04-18 The book is a must read for policy makers academics university administrators and post graduate research students in the broad field of education and in higher education studies in particular The book brings together a wealth of information regarding the imperatives of transformation in Africa s higher education systems Not only do some of the chapters provide critical discussion about the conceptualisation of transformation the majority of the chapters reflect on empirical evidence for transformation in diverse fields of mathematics science gender the training of doctoral students and the governance and management of universities This central theme of sustainable change and reform runs across the chapters of the book For students the book provides exemplars of practical research in higher education For scholars in higher education and policy makers specific issues for reform are identified and discussed

Democratic Practice and Governance in Nigeria Ebenezer Oluwale Oni, Omololu Michael Fagbadebo, Dhikru Adewale Yagboyaju, 2020-06-08 This book examines the challenges confronting the practice of democracy and governance in Nigeria The book examines the theoretical underpinnings and the procedural and institutional components of democratic practice in Nigeria including the challenges associated with elections the legislature the media and gender issues Approaching the pluralistic characteristics of the Nigerian state and how they impede democratisation through contributions by experts and scholars in the field the book analyses the issues and nuances inherent to governance and democracy in Nigeria as well as domestic policy process global governance and human security Democratic Practice and Governance in Nigeria will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics and democratisation Police-Citizen Relations Across the World Dietrich Oberwittler, Sebastian Roché, 2017-10-02 Police citizen relations are in the public spotlight following outbursts of anger and violence Such clashes often happen as a response to fatal police shootings racial or ethnic discrimination or the mishandling of mass protests But even in such cases citizens assessment of the police differs considerably across social groups This raises the question of the sources and impediments of citizens trust and support for police Why are police citizen relations much better in some countries than in others Are police minority relations doomed to be strained And which police practices and policing policies generate trust and legitimacy Research on police legitimacy has been centred on US experiences and relied on procedural justice as the main theoretical approach This book questions whether this approach is suitable and sufficient to understand public attitudes towards the police across different countries and regions of the world This volume shows that the impact of macro level conditions of societal cleavages and of state and political institutions on police citizen relations has too often been neglected in contemporary research Building on empirical studies from around the world as well as cross national comparisons this volume considerably expands current perspectives on the sources of police legitimacy and citizens trust in the police Combining the analysis of micro level interactions with a perspective on the contextual framework and varying national conditions the contributions to this book illustrate the strength of a broadened perspective and lead us to ask how specific national frameworks shape the experiences of policing Global Studies Directory, 2017-10-02 Publication of the Global Studies Directory represents an unprecedented project in world practice Based on the professional assessment by a large international team of experts the Directory offers information on the most well known scholars political and public figures who have made outstanding contributions to the establishment and development of global studies or made a fundamental impact on the formation of global world The Directory also contains comprehensive information about organizations periodicals and special literature of direct relevance to the theory and practice of globalization and fully demonstrates the state of affairs in the field of study on a global level This project is a continuation of many years of research which first resulted in the publication of the Global Studies Encyclopedic Dictionary the companion publication to the Directory
