Nigerian English David Jowitt, 2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton's Dialects of English series

Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today's age of extraordinary technological development the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in digital media sphere The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought after phenomenon throughout the industry. The prominence of online interactivity has resulted in anxiety throughout the mass media industry regarding the ways in which media organisations can engage with their audience and maintain a high level of traffic on their websites. Attaining these heights largely depends on the quality and nature of interactivity on a given site. This book provides insights into the interactivity basics of an ideal media website and highlights the nature of interactivity in the Nigerian online media sphere vis a vis the basics of interactivity.

The Victory of Muhammadu Buhari and the Nigerian Dream Michael Chima Ekenyerengoz, 2015-06-10. The Victory of Muhammadu Buhari and the Nigerian Dream: My Testimony on the 2015 Presidential Election is an important chronicle of the 2015 presidential election in Nigeria and the principal actors in the emergence of the first Nigerian presidential candidate to defeat an incumbent President in the political history of Nigeria.

A Dream of Nigeria Kevin Etta Jr., 2006. A Dream of Nigeria is a collection of published essays examining governance in Nigeria from 2002 to 2005 during Nigeria's current civil rule dispensation. It is firstly a historical and political assessment of the nature and impact of governance during this period on the social, economic and spiritual fortunes of the Nigerian peoples. Secondly, it is a whisper, a prayer and a clarion call for the peoples of Nigeria in particular and Africa in general to reach for something higher than themselves: a set of higher values forming the basis for good governance, improved service delivery and civic responsibility at all levels and creating a more stable political foundation for proper democratization.

Media and Technology in Emerging African Democracies Cosmas Uchenna Nwokeafor, Kehbama Langmia, 2010-09-02. Media and Technology in Emerging African Democracies is a standard text that will give students an opportunity to familiarize themselves with some of the best literature in media technology impact in emerging African democracies with relevant concentration on information and communication technology (ICT). This textbook is a collection of essays that may be used as primary reading for courses on mass media technology and information communication technology (ICT). It is also suitable as supplementary reading in media and politics, political science and courses that focus on political communication and business communication. The book serves as a reference guide to mass media scholars, development communication experts, government leaders and diplomats interested in media review, most importantly as it pertains to African democratic dispensations. The book includes contributions by scholars whose research interests in media and its relevant impact on African democratic systems have stirred considerable academic discourse. The chapters span several social science disciplines, giving students, professionals and government agencies an opportunity to see challenges from an interdisciplinary perspective.

Nigeria's Digital Diaspora Farooq A. Kperogi, 2020. Over a decade ago when Nigeria's migratory digital elite in the United States pioneered a newfangled form of citizen online journalism that disrupted the professional certainties of domestic legacy journalism, the country's professional journalists held out hope that the disruptive effect of this insurgent, non-professionalized non routinized but nonetheless transformative form of journalism would be transitory But diasporic citizen online journalism is not only now an integral part of Nigeria's media ecosystem it has also inspired successful homeland digital native emulators and is challenging even supplanting in some cases traditional domestic media formations as sites of consequential democratic discourse With Nigeria's frenetic and deeply engaged social media scene diasporan citizen journalism homeland news and social media activism are merging to create the most energetic moment in Nigeria's media history This book chronicles the emergence and transformation of Nigeria's diasporic citizen journalism from the margins to the mainstream of the country's journalistic landscape and draws parallels with the mainstreaming of alternative media formations in other parts of the world Farooq A Kperogi is Associate Professor of Journalism and Emerging Media at Kennesaw State University Georgia USA He is a columnist for the Nigerian Tribune and blogs at <https://www.farooqkperogi.com> Nigeria's Journalistic Militantism Frisky Larr, 2011-04-21 Putting the Facts in Perspective on how the Press failed Nigeria setting the wrong agenda and excessively attacking ex President Olusegun Obasanjo in breach of professional ethics on absolute neutrality A brief historical guide to the build up of facts and culmination in the present political dilemma of political uncertainty A conclusive personal view on the possible way forward for the Nigerian Press Political Economy of Contemporary African Popular Culture Kealeboga Aiseng, Israel A. Fadipe, Phillip Mpofu, 2024-04-01 Drawing on examples from across the continent this volume examines socially significant aspects of contemporary African popular culture including music cultures fandoms and community mass and digital media to demonstrate how neoliberal politics and market forces shape the cultural landscape and vice versa Contributors investigate the role that the media politicians and corporate interests play in shaping that landscape highlight the crucial role of the African people in the production and circulation of popular culture more broadly and furthermore demonstrate how popular culture can be used as a tool to resist oppressive regimes and challenge power structures in the African context Scholars of political communication cultural studies and African studies will find this book particularly useful Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization Unwana Samuel Akpan, 2023-01-09 In Nigerian Media Industries in the Era of Globalization editor Unwana Samuel Akpan provides a timely collection of relevant key and well informed contributions on the Nigerian media industries in a changing media landscape This collection assembles both media professionals and professors of media practice and theory to address how the Nigerian media industry has changed in a globalized world The chapters apply scholarship research and industry experience to modern media narratives as well as a blend of Nigerian cultural concepts and idioms of communication The contributors provide a historicized account of the Nigerian indigenous media systems and Nigerian mainstream media industry examine media law in Nigeria and media ownership in Nigeria express concerns over fake news in relation to elections explore changes in journalism broadcasting health communication organizational communication AI in countering terrorism sports media and draw conclusions on how the media has changed in digital spaces This book is essential for media scholars and media professionals who are interested in the growth and survival of the Nigerian media in the era of globalization      Dialectical Perspectives on Media, Health, and Culture in Modern Africa Akwala, Alfred O., Ngetich, Joel K., Theuri, Agnes Wanjiku Muchura, 2020-10-30 Communication plays a critical role in enhancing social cultural and business relations Research on media language and cultural studies is fundamental in a globalized world because it illuminates the experiences of various populations There is a need to develop effective communication strategies that will be able to address both health and cultural issues globally Dialectical Perspectives on Media Health and Culture in Modern Africa is a collection of innovative research on the impact of media and especially new media on health and culture While highlighting topics including civic engagement gender stereotypes and interpersonal communication this book is ideally designed for university students multinational organizations diplomats expatriates and academicians seeking current research on how media health and culture can be appropriated to overcome the challenges that plague the world today      Islamophobia in Non-Western Online Newspapers Isyaku Hassan, Mohd Nazri Latiff Azmi, 2021-03-03 The media attention towards Islam has increased recently but meeting the quality standards in reporting the religion is often of great concern in this regard This issue has been debated since the aftermath of violent incidents such as the 9 11 attacks in 2001 the Afghanistan War in 2002 the Iraq War in 2003 the Danish cartoon row in 2005 the London bombings in 2005 the Paris attacks in 2015 and the New Zealand shootings in 2017 In reporting violence the media tend to construct a negative image of Islam which is likely to reproduce unfounded hostility toward Islam and Muslims known as Islamophobia This book provides a systematic analysis of how non western online newspapers reproduce Islamophobia in news reporting      De-neocolonizing Africa Unwana Samuel Akpan, 2024-10-16 This book fills a critical void in African research a lack of engagement with the question of how digital capabilities can be harnessed to liberate Africa from the subtle grips of neocolonization Bringing together seasoned and emerging scholars from diverse regions of Africa the book dissects the intricate relationship between technology and the persistent echoes of colonial legacies The authors distinguish between decolonization the historical struggle for independence and the ongoing imperative of de neocolonization an evolving battle against persistent but more subtle colonial influences now manifesting in the digital terrain With a focus on the profound impact of digital tools the contributors question how these capabilities can serve as instruments of liberation in a globalized age Through a comprehensive examination of the intersection between Africa digital technology and neocolonization the book not only breaks new ground but also positions itself as an invaluable resource for students academics and professionals globally By offering fresh perspectives nuanced analyses and innovative solutions this book emerges as an essential addition to the global intellectual academe reshaping the discourse on African autonomy identity and emancipation from neocolonial chains      The Psychology and Neuroscience of Impulsivity Yuliya Richard, Ahmed Moustafa, 2023-12-06 The Psychology and Neuroscience of Impulsivity is the first book to provide a comprehensive overview of impulsivity and related psychological and neural substrates The book is divided into four sections the first section will provide the readers with a general overview of impulsivity neural and cognitive substrates of impulsive behaviors and the relationship between impulsivity and risk taking behaviors The second section discusses the links between impulsivity and erroneous behaviors such as anger and aggressive behaviors and interpersonal violence The third section reviews how impulsive behaviors are key features of several clinical disorders such as pathological gambling drug abuse and antisocial personality disorder The last section presents possible treatment options for impulsivity including a number case studies Reviews links between impulsivity to anger and aggressive behaviors     International News in the Digital Age Judith Clarke, Michael Bromley, 2012-01-25 The new research presented in this volume suggests that general perceptions cultural psychological geographical allied to the customs and values of journalism and underpinned by the uses of technology significantly shape international news This gives rise to a blend of the old and the new traditions of cultural centredness and innovative practices anchorages of place and the rootlessness of globalization Technology per se has not swept all before it On the other hand its uses have altered the means and methods of international news sourcing construction and dissemination Consequently the uptake of technology has contributed to fundamental changes in style and form and has greatly facilitated cross cultural exchanges The category international news is now more of a hybrid as recognized by the BBC and others The chapters in this book demonstrate that this hybridity is unevenly distributed across geo political domains and often across time Nevertheless as the contributors to this volume show the concept of international news relies on tightly interwoven elements of orthodox journalism social media civic expression and public assembly     The Print Media as a Tool for Evangelisation in Auchi-Diocese / Nigeria Peter Egielewa, 2018 Communication in Africa is growing at an unprecedented pace African governments are investing close to 100bn dollars annually for new infrastructure in communication There are presently over 500 million mobile phones in Africa Nigeria remains the economic hub of Africa With an approximately 50% Christian population this explosion poses opportunities and challenges for evangelisation in Nigeria Although the internet boom is still on the rise print media has remained an important media of information This work investigates how church evangelisation can maximise these media opportunities Dissertation Series Forum Religious Pedagogy Intercultural Forum Religionsp dagogik interkulturell Vol 30 Subject Religious Studies Media Studies African Studies     Gender in Media Discourse Umar Ahmed ,2019 The study investigates how language is used to construct reconstruct and deconstruct gender in opinion articles in Nigerian newspapers Drawing on tools and techniques of analysis from critical discourse analysis corpus linguistics systemic functional grammar and cognitive linguistics the author analyses the many complex and subtle ways in which gender is conceptualized and represented in the newspapers He shows how the use of some linguistic features and discursive practices contributes to the re construction of certain gender identities roles and power relations between men and women in society The book contributes to research on language and gender from a non western perspective     Multicultural America Ronald H. Bayor, 2011-07-22 This encyclopedia contains 50 thorough profiles of the most numerically significant immigrant groups now making their homes in the United States telling the story of our newest immigrants and introducing them to their fellow Americans One of the main reasons the United States has evolved so quickly and radically in the last 100 years is the large number of ethnically diverse immigrants that have become part of its population People from every area of the world have come to America in an effort to realize their dreams of more opportunity and better lives either for themselves or for their children This book provides a fascinating picture of the lives of immigrants from 50 countries who have contributed substantially to the diversity of the United States exploring all aspects of the immigrants lives in the old world as well as the new Each essay explains why these people have come to the United States how they have adjusted to and integrated into American society and what portends for their future Accounts of the experiences of the second generation and the effects of relations between the United States and the sending country round out these unusually rich and demographically detailed portraits
