Jade Lady Burning Martin Limon, 2003-07-01 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year Meet Sergeants George Sueo and Ernie Bascom in their first investigation set in 1970s South Korea Almost twenty years after the end of the Korean War the US Military is still present throughout South Korea and tensions run high Koreans look for any opportunity to hate the soldiers who drink at their bars and carouse with their women When Pak Ok suk a young Korean woman is found brutally murdered in a torched apartment in the Itaewon red light district of Seoul it looks like it might be the work of her American soldier boyfriend Sergeants George Sue o and Ernie Bascom Military Police for the US 8th Army are assigned to the case but they have nothing to go on other than a tenuous connection to an infamous prostitute As repressed resentments erupt around them the pair sets out on an increasingly dangerous quest to find evidence that will exonerate their countryman Mr. Kill Martin Limon,2011-12-06 On a crowded train to Seoul from Pusan a Korean woman is trapped in the bathroom and brutally raped in front of her children Eyewitness account indicate the culprit was a white man most likely a US serviceman By the time Sergeant George Sue o of the US 8th Army is called in to investigate the rapist has disappeared and the Korean witnesses have had a chance to get very angry about the situation and all it represents Many Koreans are resentful of the continued American presence in Korea and George has a delicate situation on his hands Of course the US Army wants to do what they can to ensure they are not connected to the crime If he wants to see justice done George is going to have to carry out his investigation against the direct orders of his own office who have assigned him and his partner Ernie Bascom a frivolous job of tagging along with an all female American country band and investigating their missing supplies But when a second Korean woman is attacked and this time ends up dead 8th Army can t ignore the serial rapist anymore With the help of the legendary Korean investigator known as Mr Kill George and Ernie embark on what may just be the most dangerous case of their careers The Line Martin Limon,2018-10-23 George Sue o and Ernie Bascom return for their thirteenth outing which takes them from Seoul to the DMZ in their most politically charged murder case yet The Korean Demilitarized Zone 1970s A battered corpse is found a few feet north of the line dividing North and South Korea When 8th Army CID Agents George Sue o and Ernie Bascom pull the body to the South Korean side on orders from their superiors they have no idea of the international conflict their action will spark Before war breaks out they must discover who killed Corporal Noh Jong bei a young Korean soldier working with the US Army The murderer could be on either side of the DMZ But without cooperation between the governments involved how can two US military agents interrogate North Korean witnesses What George and Ernie discover gets them pulled off the case but fearing they ve put the wrong man behind bars they disobey orders in an attempt to discover the truth The Ville Rat Martin Limon,2015-10-06 How much can murder buy on the black market in 1974 South Korea South Korea 1970s A young Korean woman dressed in a traditional chima jeogori is found strangled to death on the frozen banks of the Sonyu River with only a carefully calligraphed poem in her sleeve George Sue o and Ernie Bascom sergeants in the US 8th Army CID are called in by the formidable KNP detective Gil Kwon up to investigate George and Ernie s job is to liaise with Korean law enforcement on matters that may involve or implicate 8th Army American servicemen But as they learn about the case George and Ernie realize this isn t their jurisdiction the nearby village of Sonyu ri is occupied by the US Army s 2nd Infantry Division a disciplined and often brutal force that won t stand for outside officers questioning its men All that George and Ernie are able to glean before being kicked out of town is that they are close to the truth and that a mysterious smuggler known locally as the Ville Rat holds the key to the woman s murder

Luckily the pair is officially assigned another investigation in the area which allows them to continue nosing around for answers. They are to elucidate the circumstances of a shooting incident between a young African American private and his white supervising chief. Racial tensions run high and George and Ernie must tread carefully to solve both cases. But they aren't exactly known for going out of their way to avoid stepping on US Army toes and this is no exception. The Nine-Tailed Fox Martin Limon, 2017-10-03. Martin Limón's series set in 1970s South Korea, an era of heightened Korean sociopolitical tension, pits Army CID agents Sueño and Bascom against a mysterious woman who may be the leader of a gang or a thousand-year-old creature. Three American GIs have gone missing in different South Korean cities. Sergeants George Sueño and Ernie Bascom, agents for the Army CID, link the disappearances to a woman locally rumored to be a gumiho, a legendary thousand-year-old nine-tailed fox disguised as a woman. George suspects that the woman is not a mythical creature but a criminal who is good at covering her tracks. Meanwhile, George and Ernie are caught in a power struggle between two high-ranking women in the 8th Army. Scrambling to appease his boss and stay one step ahead of a psychotic mastermind, George realizes he will have to risk his life to discover the whereabouts of his fellow countrymen. Jade Lady Burning Martin Limón, 2011-10-04. A New York Times Notable Book of the Year. Meet Sergeants George Sueño and Ernie Bascom in their first investigation set in 1970s South Korea. Almost twenty years after the end of the Korean War, the US Military is still present throughout South Korea, and tensions run high. Koreans look for any opportunity to hate the soldiers who drink at their bars and carouse with their women. When Pak Ok Suk, a young Korean woman, is found brutally murdered in a torched apartment in the Itaewon red light district of Seoul, it looks like it might be the work of her American soldier boyfriend. Sergeants George Sueño and Ernie Bascom, Military Police for the US 8th Army, are assigned to the case, but they have nothing to go on other than a tenuous connection to an infamous prostitute. As repressed resentments erupt around them, the pair sets out on an increasingly dangerous quest to find evidence that will exonerate their countryman. War Women Martin Limón, 2022-10-18. Tasked with covering up a tabloid report about high-ranking officers, US Army CID Agents George Sueño and Ernie Bascom discover a dark web of systemic issues that have potentially fatal consequences. South Korea, 1970s. Sergeant First Class Cecil B. Harvey, a senior NCO in charge of 8th Army's classified documents, has long been a friend, willing or unwilling, to Sergeants George Sueño and Ernie Bascom. So when he goes missing with a top secret document that even a glance at could get an officer court-martialed, Sueño and Bascom take it upon themselves to find him. Meanwhile, Overseas Observer reporter Katie Byrd Worthington is back to make life difficult for top Army brass. When she lands in a Korean jail cell, Sueño and Bascom are sent to get her out and negotiate against the publication of an incriminating story about the mistreatment of women in the military that could land important officials in hot water. But what they learn will make it hard for them to stay silent. Ping-pong Heart Martin Limón, 2016. South Korea, 1974. CID Sergeants George Sueño and Ernie Bascom are assigned to an underwhelming petty theft case only to find both the accuser and the accused murdered. George and Ernie discover the plaintiff Major was investigating the 501st Military Intelligence Battalion the Army's counterintelligence arm dedicated solely to tracking North Korean spies As George and Ernie go head to head with the powerful intimidating Captain Lance Blood they learn that messing with the 501st can have very personal consequences

The Iron Sickle Martin Limón,2014 Early one rainy morning the head of the 8th United States Army Claims Office in Seoul South Korea is brutally murdered by a Korean man in a trench coat carrying a small iron sickle hidden in his sleeve The attack was a complete surprise carefully planned and clinically executed Against orders CID agents Sergeant George Sueno and Ernie Bascom start investigating Somehow each person they speak to has not yet been interviewed The 8th Army isn't great at solving cases but they aren't that bad either As the search continues they realise not everyone wants the case solved

GI Confidential Martin Limon,2019-10-15 US Army CID Agents George Sueno and Ernie Bascom become entangled with a pushy tabloid reporter as they investigate a series of violent bank robberies throughout South Korea South Korea 1970s A rash of armed robberies at local Korean banks doesn't concern the American military until a fatality occurs and proof surfaces that US soldiers are behind the crimes The case has been assigned to CID Agents Jake Burrows and Felix Slabem but they certainly won't do anything that might make 8th United States Army look bad So Sergeants George Sueno and Ernie Bascom have decided to step in and investigate the robberies and murder themselves George and Ernie have their own problems to worry about namely Katie Byrd Worthington a pesky reporter for the Overseas Observer an unsanctioned English language tabloid that has found strong roots in South Korea Katie has published a story that implicates Army higher ups in both sex trafficking and treason and the pressure is on for the CID to disprove her claims But what if they aren't false As George and Ernie dig deeper into the case they find themselves the targets of a very unflattering publicity campaign but perhaps also something much more dangerous

Ping-Pong Heart Martin Limón,2017-05-30 South Korea 1974 US Army CID Sergeants George Sueno and Ernie Bascom are assigned an underwhelming case of petty theft Major Frederick M Schulz has accused Miss Jo Kyongja an Itaewon bar girl of stealing twenty five thousand won from him a sum equaling less than fifty US dollars After two very divergent accounts of what happened Miss Jo is attacked and Schulz is found hacked to death only days later Did tensions simply escalate to the point of murder Looking into other motives for Schulz's death George and Ernie discover that the major was investigating the 501st Military Intelligence Battalion the Army's counterintelligence arm solely dedicated to tracking North Korean spies The division is rife with suspects but it's dangerous to speak out against them in a period of Cold War finger pointing As George and Ernie go head to head with the battalion's powerful intimidating commander Lance Blood they learn that messing with the 501st can have very personal consequences

G.I. Bones Martin Limón,2010-11-01 The sixth Sergeant George Sueno investigation A Korean fortune teller is haunted by a long dead American soldier who wants his bones found and buried A Latino soldier and the underage daughter of a white American officer are missing Several notorious Korean gangsters who own bars in Itaewon Seoul's red light district have been killed American military police officers George Sueno and Ernie

Bascom must dig deep into the bloody history of Itaewon in order to find out who killed the dead soldier who's taking revenge on the gang lords and where to find the missing girl
