International Books in Print ,1990 Irish University Review ,1994 Beckett and Contemporary Irish Writing Stephen Watt, 2009-06-18 This book searches for the Beckettian impulse in Irish literature by tracing Beckett's legacy through a selection of contemporary writers Mirrors and Holographic Labyrinths Laura Izarra (PhD.),1999 Comprising a translation of Izarra's doctoral thesis submitted at the University of Sao Paulo Brazil in 1995 this volume examines Irish novelist John Banville's nine novels published through 1995 Using the metaphor of the hologram as the basis of Banville's writing and using the same metaphor as the basis of her own reading of his work she defines the new synthesis proposed by Banville who foresees the end of postmodernism and a movement towards a new synthesis in art Discussed are postmodern postcolonial and contemporary post Newtonian scientific theories as well as analysis of theories of discourse art psychology and history Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Ethics and Poetics Margrét Gunnarsdóttir Champion, Irina Rasmussen Goloubeva, 2014-04-11 Bringing together international scholars interested in the ethics of fiction this book extends the rich field of ethical literary criticism that has emerged in the last twenty years New ground is broached in that the authors explore literariness itself as constitutive of ethical intimations about the pluralistic community and about egalitarian modes of communication The epistemological point of departure is the ethical thought of modernity as filtered through Hegelian recognition as infinite social responsibility. The structure of the anthology reflects this anchoring as the authors investigate modalities of recognition and social regeneration via literary language which effects the transvaluation of values of the collective imaginary and of intermediality This collection is generally concerned with the immanence of intersubjectivity in literature and with how from this immanence new modes of ethical communication are generated The authors of Ethics and Poetics clarify how modern narratives in ways akin to yet different from political interrogations such as deconstruction psychoanalysis Marxism and gender studies refine the understanding of the recursive process of recognition thereby disclosing ethico political dimensions of the reading experience. The chapters in this anthology share an interest in ethico literary responses to shifts within modernity from communal to transnational imagination All the articles explore how modalities of recognition in modern and contemporary literature deeply affect and potentially regenerate real social spaces

The Supreme Fictions of John Banville Joseph McMinn,1999 This work offers a critical commentary on the range of John Banville's fiction including the plays and views that fiction in the contexts of contemporary critical theory particularly those of postmodernism and feminism It argues that Banville's work is deeply influenced by romantic and modernist mythologies of the creative imagination especially those expressed by Coleridge and Wallace Stevens Banville's interest in systems of knowledge and forms of representation is a major issue in the study and McMinn investigates his use of paintings as metaphors
