Hand Book of the Allied Interior Decorative Trades, 1924 The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques, 2018-12-04 Napoleon is one of history's most fascinating figures But his complex relationship with Rome both with antiquity and his contemporary conflicts with the Pope and Holy See have undergone little examination In The Caesar of Paris Susan Jaques reveals how Napoleon's dueling fascination and rivalry informed his effort to turn Paris into the new Rome Europe's cultural capital through architectural and artistic commissions around the city His initiatives and his aggressive pursuit of antiquities and classical treasures from Italy gave Paris much of the classical beauty we know and adore today Napoleon had a tradition of appropriating from past military greats to legitimize his regime Alexander the Great during his invasion of Egypt Charlemagne during his coronation as emperor even Frederick the Great when he occupied Berlin But it was ancient Rome and the Caesars that held the most artistic and political influence and would remain his lodestars Whether it was the Arc de Triomphe the Venus de Medici in the Louvre or the gorgeous works of Antonio Canova

Charles Knight, 1861 American Homes and Gardens, 1906 French and Spanish Art Books; [a Comprehensive Catalog] J. M. Arola, 1968 The Athenaeum, 1912 Enlightened Animals in Eighteenth-Century Art Sarah Cohen, 2021-02-11 How do our senses help us to understand the world This question which preoccupied Enlightenment thinkers also emerged as a key theme in depictions of animals in eighteenth century art This book examines the ways in which painters such as Chardin as well as sculptors porcelain modelers and other decorative designers portrayed animals as sensing subjects who physically confirmed the value of material experience The sensual style known today as the Rococo encouraged the proliferation of animals as exemplars of empirical inquiry ranging from the popular subject of the monkey artist to the alchemical wonders of the life sized porcelain animals created for the Saxon court Examining writings on sensory knowledge by La Mettrie Condillac Diderot and other philosophers side by side with depictions of the animal in art Cohen argues that artists promoted the animal as a sensory subject while also validating the material basis of their own professional practice Conundrum Charissa Bremer-David, 2015-12-15 The whimsical imagery of four tapestries in the permanent collection of the J Paul Getty Museum and currently on display at the Getty Center is perplexing Created in France at the Beauvais manufactory between 1690 and 1730 these charming hangings unlike most French tapestries of the period appear to be purely decorative with no narrative thread no theological moral and no allegorical symbolism They belong to a series called the Grotesques inspired by ancient frescos discovered during the excavation of the Roman emperor Nero's Domus Aurea or Golden House but the origins of their mysterious subject matter have long eluded art historians Based on seven years of research Conundrum Puzzles in the Grotesques Tapestry Series reveals for the first time that the artist responsible for these designs Jean Baptiste Monnoyer 1636 1699 actually incorporated dozens of motifs and vignettes from a surprising range of sources antique statuary Renaissance prints Mannerist tapestry and Baroque art as well as contemporary seventeenth century urban festivals court spectacle and theater Conundrum illustrates the most interesting of these sources alongside full color details and overall views of the four tapestries The book's informative and engaging essay identifies and decodes the tapestries intriguing visual puzzles enlightening our understanding and appreciation of the series unexpectedly rich intellectual underpinnings Interior Textiles Karla J. Nielson, 2007-07-10 When it comes to both the technical and aesthetic considerations of using textiles in interior design this book gives working professionals what they need to know You ll receive expert guidance to the process of textile specifications selection installation and maintenance as well as an understanding of the properties of fabric types and a historical context of styles Sustainable design and code issues are also considered More than 500 illustrations and photographs elucidate key ideas This survey of textiles for interior design is divided into three main parts Fabrics The interior design textile industry and marketplace A study of fibers yarns constructions and finishes Codes and green design Applications Textile specifications and coordination of upholstery and wall coverings window treatments linens and accessories and rugs and carpeting Period Style Oriental styles Renaissance and Formal styles Medieval Colonial Country and Provence styles Regional and Ethnic styles and Modern styles Order your copy today
