About The Book: Writing in 1848, Charles Dickens declared that when Nicholas Nickleby was begun in 1838, there were then a good many cheap Yorkshire schools in existence. There are very few now. In the preface to the completed book, the author mentioned that more than one Yorkshire schoolmaster laid claim to be the original of Squeers, and he had reason to believe one worthy has actually consulted authorities learned in the law as to his having good grounds on which to rest an action for libel. But Squeers, as Dickens insisted, was the representative of a class and not an individual. The Brothers Cheeryble were no creations of the author's brain. Dickens also wrote and in consequence of this statement, hundreds upon hundreds of letters from all sorts of people poured in upon him to be forwarded to the originals of the Brothers Cheeryble. They were the Brothers Grant, cotton spinners near Manchester.

Nicholas Nickleby was completed in October 1839. For more eBooks, visit www.kartindo.com.
