

The background of the slide is a painting of a mountain landscape. In the foreground, a wide waterfall cascades down a rocky ledge. To the right, a small boat with a yellow cabin is on a calm lake. The middle ground shows a valley with a river and distant mountains. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall color palette is muted, with earthy tones and soft blues.

Foreword Enlightened Zeal Ted Binnema, 2014-01-01 Initially highly secretive about all of its activities the HBC was by 1870 an exceptionally generous patron of science Aware of the ways that a commitment to scientific research could burnish its corporate reputation the company participated in intricate symbiotic networks that linked the HBC as a corporation with individuals and scientific organizations in England Scotland and the United States The pursuit of scientific knowledge could bring wealth and influence along with tribute fame and renown but science also brought less tangible benefits adventure health happiness male companionship self improvement or a sense of meaning

Painted Journeys Peter H. Hassrick, Mindy N. Besaw, 2015-07 Artist explorer John Mix Stanley 1814 1872 one of the most celebrated chroniclers of the American West in his time was in a sense a victim of his own success So highly regarded was his work that more than two hundred of his paintings were held at the Smithsonian Institution where in 1865 a fire destroyed all but seven of them This volume featuring a comprehensive collection of Stanley's extant art reproduced in full color offers an opportunity and ample reason to rediscover the remarkable accomplishments of this outsize figure of nineteenth century American culture Originally from New York State Stanley journeyed west in 1842 to paint Indian life During the U S Mexican War he joined a frontier military expedition and traveled from Santa Fe to California producing sketches and paintings of the campaign along the way work that helped secure his fame in the following decades He was also appointed chief artist for Isaac Stevens's survey of the 48th parallel for a proposed transcontinental railroad The essays in this volume by noted scholars of American art document and reflect on Stanley's life and work from every angle The authors consider the artist's experience on government expeditions his solo tours among the Oregon settlers and western and Plains Indians and his career in Washington and search for government patronage as well as his individual works With contributions by Emily C Burns Scott Manning Stevens Lisa Strong Melissa Speidel Jacquelyn Sparks and Emily C Wilson the essays in this volume convey the full scope of John Mix Stanley's artistic accomplishment and document the unfolding of that uniquely American vision throughout the artist's colorful life Together they restore Stanley to his rightful place in the panorama of nineteenth century American life and art

A Totem Pole History Pauline R. Hillaire, 2022-07-25 Joseph Hillaire Lummi 1894 1967 is recognized as one of the great Coast Salish artists carvers and tradition bearers of the twentieth century In A Totem Pole History his daughter Pauline Hillaire Scilla Of the Killer Whale who is herself a well known cultural historian and conservator tells the story of her father's life and the traditional and contemporary Lummi narratives that influenced his work. A Totem Pole History contains seventy-six photographs including Joe's most significant totem poles, many of which Pauline watched him carve. She conveys with great insight the stories, teachings, and history expressed by her father's totem poles. Eight contributors provide essays on Coast Salish art and carving, adding to the author's portrayal of Joe's philosophy of art in Salish life, particularly in the context of twentieth-century intercultural relations. This engaging volume provides an historical record to encourage Native artists and brings the work of a respected Salish carver to the attention of a broader audience.

Paul Kane's Great Nor-West Sheila Urbanek, 2011-11-01 In this beautifully designed and richly illustrated book, Diane Eaton and Sheila Urbanek re-create Paul Kane's heroic journey across Canada and bring to life the people, places, and events he experienced. Determined to document the lives and customs of the Indians of the Northwest, Paul Kane set out in 1845 to cross the continent with no companions but only his portfolio and a box of paints, his gun, and a stock of ammunition. Travelling via the Hudson's Bay Company fur brigade routes, he made his way from the Great Lakes to the Pacific coast and back again. When he returned to Toronto in the fall of 1848, he brought back some 500 field sketches as well as a remarkable collection of Indian curiosities, which he used as raw material for one hundred oil paintings depicting scenes of Indian life. While the carefully executed oil paintings are deliberately romanticized images of the west, the original field sketches convey Kane's immediate impressions and offer tantalizing glimpses of what he describes as the wild scenes amongst which he strayed almost alone. A fascinating complement to the sketches is contained in a small diary Kane kept while on his journey; brief and plainspoken, these entries were jotted down in his own idiosyncratic spelling and punctuation. Illustrated with a wide selection of the field sketches as well as his better-known oil paintings, this book reintroduces this remarkable artist to a modern audience.

Indigenous Intermediaries Shino Konishi, Maria Nugent, Tiffany Shellam, 2015-09-29 This edited collection understands exploration as a collective effort and experience involving a variety of people in diverse kinds of relationships. It engages with the recent resurgence of interest in the history of exploration by focusing on the various indigenous intermediaries: Jacky Jacky Bungaree, Moowattin, Tupaia, Mai Cheealthluc, and lesser-known individuals who were the guides, translators, and hosts that assisted and facilitated European travellers in exploring different parts of the world. These intermediaries are rarely the authors of exploration narratives or the main focus within exploration archives. Nonetheless, the archives of exploration contain imprints of their presence, experience, and contributions. The chapters present a range of ways of reading archives to bring them to the fore. The contributors ask new questions of existing materials, suggest new interpretive approaches, and present innovative ways to enhance sources so as to generate new stories.
