The particular focus of this book is on the adoption of a problem solving approach showing how crime analysis can be used and developed to support a problem oriented policing approach based on the idea that the police should concentrate on identifying patterns of crime and anticipating crimes rather than just reacting to crimes once they have been committed. In his foreword to this book Nick Ross presenter of BBC Crime Watch argues passionately that crime analysts are the new face of policing and have a crucial part to play in the increasingly sophisticated police response to crime and its approach to crime prevention.
