
CHAPTER 5 POLICY MANUAL FOR NONPROFITS

Nonprofit Version

There is an OfficeReady Policy Manual nonprofit version. It not only includes language and policies relevant to the workings of a nonprofit organization, it also provides an additional section dedicated to the operation of the board of directors and board committees. There is also a supplemental template that can be used to create a board member manual that helps orient new board members and guide all board members as they carry out the stewardship of the nonprofit institution.

Board Committees

The board of directors or trustees of a nonprofit is the group of people that represents the interests of the "owners" — the community. The board, acting as governors or trustees, is charged to protect that public purpose — to ensure that funds are used responsibly and as effectively as possible. To achieve this stewardship, the board usually forms committees. The duties, powers, policies and procedures of those committees should be detailed in a policy manual.

Board Member Manual

In addition to a policy manual, it is common for nonprofit organizations to maintain a Board Member Manual. An proposed outline/template for such a manual has been included in Office Ready Policy Manual 2006. A board manual should be prepared for each member of the board of directors (trustees) and given to them at their board orientation session or upon election to the board.
