Oil Painting The Workshop Experience:

Oil Painting Ted Goerschner, Lewis Barrett Lehrman, 1996 One of the best things about attending a workshop with a knowledgeable instructor to focus and guide your efforts is that you're a better artist by the end of the week Don't expect anything less from this workshop in print During the week Ted performs a dozen of his famous paint on demos actual student paintings in which he corrects the kinds of problems virtually every student struggles with By the end of the workshop you'll be loosened up and creating paintings filled with light color and great juicy brush strokes So what are you waiting for You don't want to be late for your first day BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Rembrandt: The Painter Thinking Ernst van de Wetering, 2016-04-18 Throughout his life Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669 was considered an exceptional artist by contemporary art lovers In this highly original book Ernst van de Wetering investigates why Rembrandt from a very early age was praised by high placed connoisseurs like Constantijn Huygens It turns out that Rembrandt from his first endeavours in painting on had embarked on a journey past all the foundations of the art of painting which were considered essential in the seventeenth century In his systematic exploration of these foundations Rembrandt achieved mastery in all of them thus becoming the pittore famoso that Count Cosimo the Medici visited at the end of his life Rembrandt never stopped searching for ever better solutions to the pictorial problems he saw himself confronted with this sometimes led to radical decisions and alterations in his way of working which cannot simply be explained by attributing them to a change in style or a natural development In a quest as rigorous and novel as Rembrandt's Van de Wetering shows us how Rembrandt dealt with the foundations of his art and used them to try and become the best painter the world had ever seen His book sheds new light both on Rembrandt's exceptional accomplishments and on the practice of painting in the Dutch Golden Age at large University of Michigan Official Publication, 1955 African Art and Agency in the Workshop Sidney Littlefield Kasfir, Till Förster, 2013-04-01 Compelling case studies demonstrate how African workshops have long mediated collective expression and individual imagination Allen F Roberts University of California Los Angeles The role of the workshop in the creation of African art is the subject of this revelatory book In the group setting of the workshop innovation and imitation collide artists share ideas and techniques and creative expression flourishes African Art and Agency in the Workshop examines the variety of workshops from those which are politically driven or tourist oriented to those based on historical patronage or allied to current artistic trends Fifteen lively essays explore the impact of the workshop on the production of artists such as Zimbabwean stone sculptors master potters from Cameroon wood carvers from Nigeria and others from across the continent Contributions by Nicolas Argenti Jessica Gershultz Norma Wolff Christine Scherer Silvia Forni Elizabeth Morton Alexander Bortolot Brenda Schmahmann Chika Okeke Agulu Karen E Milbourne and Namubiru Rose Kirumira A closer examination of the workshop provides important insights into art histories and cultural politics We may think we know what we mean when we use the term workshop but in fact the organization of groups of artists takes on vastly different forms and encourages the production of diverse styles of art within larger social structures and power dynamics Victoria Rovine University of Florida Taken as a whole the case studies provide a wide window into the very diverse structural and functional characteristics of workshops They also clearly describe how African workshops have served both contemporary political and cultural needs and have responded to patronage whether it be traditional or stimulated by tourism African Studies Review Hal Holoun on Oil Painting: Living an Artist's Life Linda K.
