Cult Film as a Guide to Life I.Q. Hunter, 2016-09-08 Cult Film as a Guide to Life investigates the world and experience of cult films from well loved classics to the worst movies ever made Including comprehensive studies of cult phenomena such as trash films exploitation versions cult adaptations and case studies of movies as different as Showgirls Room 237 and The Lord of the G Strings this lively provocative and original book shows why cult films may just be the perfect guide to making sense of the contemporary world Using his expertise in two fields I Q Hunter also explores the important overlap between cult film and adaptation studies He argues that adaptation studies could learn a great deal from cult and fan studies about the importance of audiences emotional investment not only in texts but also in the relationships between them and how such bonds of caring are structured over time The book s emergent theme is cult film as lived experience With reference mostly to American cinema Hunter explores how cultists with their powerful emotional investment in films care for them over time and across numerous intertexts in relationships of memory nostalgia and anticipation Movie Roadshows Kim R.

Holston, 2013-01-01 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating Synonymous with Hollywood s star studded premieres roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater Roadshows often epic in subject matter played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures intermissions entre acte and exit music and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows Included are plots contemporary critical reaction premiere dates production background and methods of promotion i e the ballyhoo
