measures to enhance economic growth by boosting investment incentives in human and physical capital The Routledge International Handbook of Financialization Philip Mader, Daniel Mertens, Natascha van der Zwan, 2020-02-05 Financialization has become the go to term for scholars grappling with the growth of finance This Handbook offers the first comprehensive survey of the scholarship on financialization connecting finance with changes in politics technology culture society and the economy It takes stock of the diverse avenues of research that comprise financialization studies and the contributions they have made to understanding the changes in contemporary societies driven by the rise of finance The chapters chart the field's evolution from research describing and critiquing the manifestations of financialization towards scholarship that pinpoints the driving forces mechanisms and boundaries of financialization Written for researchers and students not only in economics but from across the social sciences and the humanities this book offers a decidedly global and pluri disciplinary view on financialization for those who are looking to understand the changing face of finance and its consequences The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo, Lynne Chester, Carlo D'Ippoliti, 2017-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Heterodox Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the latest work on economic theory and policy from a pluralistic heterodox perspective Contributions throughout the Handbook explore different theoretical perspectives including Marxian radical political economics Post Keynesian Sraffian economics institutionalist evolutionary economics feminist economics social economics Regulation theory the Social Structure of Accumulation approach and ecological economics They explain the structural properties and dynamics of capitalism as well as propose economic and social policies for the benefit of the majority of the population This book aims firstly to provide realistic and coherent theoretical frameworks to understand the capitalist economy in a constructive and forward looking manner Secondly it delineates the future directions as well as the current state of heterodox economics and then provides both heat and light on controversial issues drawing out the commonalities and differences among different heterodox economic approaches The volume also envisions transformative economic and social policies for the majority of the population and explains why economics is and should be treated as a social science This Handbook will be of compelling interest to those including students who wish to learn about alternative economic theories and policies that are rarely found in conventional economics textbooks or discussed in the mainstream media and to critical economists and other social scientists who are concerned with analyzing pressing socio economic issues

Yearbook on International Investment Law & Policy 2014-2015 Andrea K. Bjorklund, 2016-09-30 Several themes emerge in this 2014 2015 edition of the Yearbook The first is a notable focus on country and region specific developments Different articles focus on key developments in such countries as Australia Brazil China Ghana India Indonesia Russia and South Africa Others focus on regional innovations in particular in Latin America A second area of attention is reform and proposals for reform in investor state dispute settlement and in investment law generally The third theme is the continued concern about states regulatory autonomy and the importance of their retaining ability to protect the interests of their nationals A fourth theme concerns the continued contribution that investment arbitration makes to the development of international law and the influence that it is starting to have on other areas of law whether that is as a source of inspiration in the interpretation of other norms or as a source of potentially powerful persuasive authority given the teeth that investment law has with respect to enforcement Included are the winning memorials of the FDI Moot for both 2014 and 2015 In 2014 a team from the University of Ottawa submitted the winning claimant's memorial while students from Harvard Law School submitted the winning respondent's memorial In 2015 Harvard repeated its stellar performance again winning best respondent's memorial The winning claimant's memorial in 2015 was submitted by students from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens These excellent memorials reveal once again the growing interest of students in international investment law and demonstrate a striving for excellence and an enthusiasm for grappling with intellectually challenging issues
