Clayton McReynolds, 2024-07-19 Reading Words into Worlds asks how it is that reading a novel can feel in some ways like being in a world The book explores how novels give themselves to readers in ways that mimetically resemble our phenomenological reception of given beings in reality McReynolds refers to this process as phenomenological mimesis of givenness and he draws on the phenomenological philosophy of Husserl Heidegger and Jean Luc Marion to explore how masterful novels can make reading ink marks on a page feel like seeing things feeling things and meeting even loving others McReynolds blends rigorous phenomenological study with a personable style first laying out his theory in detail and then applying that theory through close studies of his reading experiences of four British realist masterpieces Defoe s Robinson Crusoe Austen s Northanger Abbey Eliot s Middlemarch and Hardy s Jude the Obscure Ultimately this book offers a grounded phenomenology of novel reading illuminating what gives novels such power to not only thrill readers but to change them Best Books for Children, Preschool Through Grade 6, 2006 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 Best Books for Children Catherine Barr, 2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6 Book Review Index, 2000 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation A Jar of Dreams by Yoshiko Uchida Gloria Levine, 2000 Treasure Book of Fun Bob Jones University Press, 1999-01-01 Treasure Book of Fun Bob Jones University Press, 1999 A Grain of Rice by Helena Clare Pittman Jean Jamieson, 1995 Novel units provide teachers with new ways to teach reading thinking writing and the love of literature The Winter Room by Gary Paulsen Gary Paulsen, 2001 A young boy growing up on a northern Minnesota farm describes the scenes around him and recounts his old Norwegian uncle s tales of an almost mythological logging past Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Congressional Record United States. This is the remarkable story of a group of individuals determined to heal those enduring wounds Elliot Ackerman author of The Fifth Act and 2034 The American war in Vietnam has left many long lasting scars that have not yet been sufficiently examined The worst of them were inflicted in a tiny area bounded by the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam and the Ho Chi Minh Trail in neighboring Laos That small region saw the most intense aerial bombing campaign in history the massive use of toxic chemicals and the heaviest casualties on both sides In The Long Reckoning George Black recounts the inspirational story of the small cast of characters veterans scientists and Quaker inspired pacifists and their Vietnamese partners who used their moral authority scientific and political ingenuity and sheer persistence to attempt to heal the horrors that were left in the wake of the military engagement in Southeast Asia Their intersecting story is one of reconciliation and personal redemption embedded in a vivid portrait of Vietnam today with all its startling collisions between past and present in which one time mortal enemies in the endless shape shifting of geopolitics have been transformed into close allies and partners The Long Reckoning is being published on the fiftieth anniversary of the day the last American combat soldier left Vietnam
