Nights in the Big City Joachim Schlör, 2016-04-15 This elegantly written book describes the evolving perception and experience of the night in three great European cities Paris Berlin and London As Joachim Schlör shows the lighting up of the European city by gas and electricity in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries brought about a new relationship with the night for both those who toiled at work and those who caroused in restaurants pubs and cafes Nights in the Big City explores this change and offers a stirring portrait of the secrets and mysteries a city can hold when the sun goes down Sifting through countless police and church archives alongside first hand accounts Schlör sets out on his own explorations with a head full of histories exploring the boulevards and side streets of these three great capitals Illustrated with haunting and evocative photographs by among others Bill Brandt and Andr Kert sz and filled with contemporary literary references Nights in the Big City is a milestone in the cultural history of the city

Invisible Migrant Nightworkers in 24/7 London

Julius-Cezar MacQuarie, 2023-08-30 This book captures the hidden labour of migrant nightworkers in 24/7 London It argues that late capitalism normalises nightwork yet refuses to recognise the associated problems from lack of decent working conditions to the seizure of the workers private time for self development family and social life The book shows how the articulation of nightworkers subjectivities and socialities happens at the intersection between migration precarity and nightwork and traces how each of these dimensions magnifies the lived experience of the others It further reveals that any possibilities for cooperation or solidarity in the workplace between migrant nightworkers become fragile and secondary to their survival of the nightshift It also elucidates the mechanisms that hinder cohesion between vulnerable groups placed temporally and socially on a different par to the mainstream societies As such this book is an excellent resource for labour regulators experts and student researchers in migration work and gender The book offers a deeply empathic and engaging portrayal of the production of disciplined and exploitable manual labor in permanent nightshift cities It cogently unpacks the experiences of embodied precarity through the largely unseen micro practices of workplaces that entrap migrant laborers The nightnographic component adds an original dimension to the inquiry Violetta Zentai Central European University

The Idea of North Peter Davidson, 2005-04-15 While a compass might tell us which direction we are going there is really only one direction to which it ever points north North is the ultimate point of orientation but it is also a celebrated destination for the adventurous the curious the solitary and the foolhardy In this fascinating book updated in this accessible pocket edition Peter Davidson explores the concept of north through its many manifestations in painting legend and literature Arctic bound Davidson takes the reader on a journey from the heart of society to the most far flung outposts of human geography packing in our rucksacks a treasure trove of stories and artworks from the Icelandic Sagas to Nabokov s snowy kingdom of Zembla from Hans Christian Andersen s forbidding Snow Queen to the works of artists such as Eric Ravilious Ian Hamilton Finlay and Andy Goldsworthy He celebrates the different ways our artists and writers have illuminated our relationship with the earth's most dangerous and austere terrain Through Davidson's astonishing but inviting erudition we ultimately come to see north as a permanent goal frozen forever on a horizon we never seem to quite reach

Romania Lucian Boia, 2001 Romania occupies a unique position on the map of Eastern Europe It is a country that presents many paradoxes In this book the preeminent Romanian historian Lucian Boia examines his native land's development from the Middle Ages to modern times delineating its culture history language politics and ethnic identity Boia introduces us to the heroes and myths of Romanian history and provides an enlightening account of the history of Romanian Communism He shows how modernization and the influence of the West have divided the nation town versus country nationalists versus pro European factions the elite versus the masses and argues that Romania today is in chronic difficulty as it tries to fix its identity and envision a future for itself The book concludes with a tour of Bucharest whose houses streets and public monuments embody Romania's traditional values and contemporary contradictions Warsaw David Crowley, 2003 Part of the Topographics series David Crowley's study presents a cultural and architectural history of post war Warsaw Cambodia Michael Freeman, 2004-01-04 Cambodia has a long and rich history first becoming an artistic and religious power in Southeast Asia in the Angkor period 802-1432 when its kings ruled from vast temple complexes at Angkor Wat and Angkor Thom The cultural influence of Cambodia on other countries in the region has been enormous quite out of keeping with its reduced territory and limited political and economic power today In Cambodia writer and photographer Michael Freeman examines the country's present troubled situation in the light of its political and cultural history looking at many aspects of modern Cambodia including the psychological effect of the outrages of Pol Pot and how Angkor Wat has become an icon and symbol for its tourist and heritage industry In the process he relates personal stories and anecdotes from Cambodia's recent and more ancient history such as royal white elephants and buffalo sacrifices in villages how spiders are cooked and eaten and the incidence of cannibalism in Cambodian warfare Cambodia is sometimes shocking often humorous and always entertaining and will give the reader a new insight into the history of this maltreated yet fascinating country Bangkok William Warren, 2004-09-02 William Warren's Bangkok is an informal portrait of this most vibrant and perplexing of modern cities Divided into two parts the first is a selective history showing how Bangkok has developed over the last 200 years while the second explores the contemporary face of the city through a series of personal impressions The author explains how the charms of Bangkok and its people outweigh the disadvantages of pollution traffic and stifling heat He also introduces celebrities such as the early kings of Thailand's present dynasty and Anna Leonowens heroine of The King and I as well as Jim Thompson the US born silk entrepreneur and art collector who mysteriously vanished in the jungles of Malaysia Bangkok provides a much needed history of the city but is also imbued with the warmth of Warren's love affair with its frenetic way of life Macao Philippe Pons, 2002 A former Portuguese administered enclave on the Chinese coast Macao became a meeting point of cultures drawn from many parts of the world In this evocative text Pons describes both Macao's colorful past and the dramatic changes the 20th century has seen revealing its charms yet lamenting the passing of an era

Airspaces David Pascoe, 2004-08-01 This book argues that airspace the transitional area between check in desk and baggage carousel must be regarded as a discrete destination on any map of our age Zeropolis Bruce Bégout, 2003 Part of the Topographics series Bruce Bégout's study presents a detailed and philosophical portrait of Las Vegas Sexuality and Consumption Mario Keller, Johann Karl Kirchknopf, Oliver Kühschelm, Karin Moser, Stefan Ossmann, 2022-08-01 In western societies today it goes almost without saying that sex and consumption are closely related On the one hand there is a plethora of commercial goods and services that shape sexual desires and practices On the other there are scarcely any products or services that do not lend themselves to sexually charged advertising and mass media communication This volume focuses on forms of hybridization of these equally suggestive notions Heritopia Jes Wienberg, 2021-03-09 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Heritopia investigates the meanings of the past in the present focusing on Abu Simbel in Egypt and other World Heritage sites It explores and resolves a number of paradoxes the past is impossible to preserve for eternity all preservation implies change preservation of one site normally means destruction of others threats are important in the creation of heritage but at the same time heritage may become a threat and threats can become heritage themselves heritage stands in contrast to modernity and is at the same time part of it both the increase and the decrease of modernity create heritage and finally heritage may be global and local at the same time Heritopia will appeal to students and professionals in heritage studies and related subjects such as archaeology history ethnology and museology Family and Business During the Industrial Revolution Hannah Barker, 2017 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Small businesses were at the heart of the economic growth and social transformation that characterized the industrial revolution in Britain In towns across north west England shops and workshops dominated the streetscape and helped to satisfy an increasing desire for consumer goods Yet despite their significance we know surprisingly little about these firms and the people who ran them for whilst those engaged in craft based manufacturing retailing and allied trades constituted a significant proportion of the urban population they have been generally overlooked by historians Instead our view of the world of business is more usually taken up by narratives of particularly successful firms and especially those involved in new modes of production By examining some of the forgotten businesses of the industrial revolution and the men and women who worked in them Family and Business During the Industrial Revolution presents a largely unfamiliar commercial world Its approach which spans economic social and cultural history as well as encompassing business history and the histories of the emotions space and material culture alongside studies of personal testimony testatory practice and property ownership tests current understandings of gender work family class and power in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries It provides us with new insights into the lives of ordinary men and women in trade whose relatively mundane lives are easily overlooked but who were central to the story of a pivotal period in British history Tel Aviv Joachim Schlör, 1999 Joachim Schlör brings the reader closer to this most talked about city Having interviewed numerous inhabitants and gathered information from memoirs travel accounts and newspapers the present day as a centre of immigration containing reminders of every immigrants mother country and as a catalyst between East and West Urban Lighting, Light Pollution and Society Josiane Meier, Ute Hasenöhr, Katharina Krause, Merle Pottharst, 2014-10-24 After decades in the shadows urban lighting is re emerging as a matter of public debate Long standing truths are increasingly questioned as a confluence of developments affects lighting itself and the way it is viewed Light has become an integral element of place making and energy saving initiatives alike Rapidly evolving lighting technologies are opening up new possibilities but also posing new challenges to planners and awareness is growing that artificial illumination is not purely benign but can actually constitute a form of pollution As a result public policy frameworks incentives and initiatives are undergoing a phase of innovation and change that will affect how cities are lit for years to come The first comprehensive compilation of current scientific discussions on urban lighting and light pollution from a social science and humanities perspective Urban Lighting Light Pollution and Society contributes to an evolving international debate on an increasingly controversial topic The contributions draw a rich panorama of the manifold discourses connected with artificial illumination in the past and present from early attempts to promote new lighting technologies in the late 19th and early 20th centuries to current debates on restricting its excessive usage in public space and the protection of darkness By bringing together a cross section of current findings and debates on urban lighting and light pollution from a wide variety of disciplines it reflects that artificial lighting is multifaceted in its qualities utilisation and interpretation Including case studies from the United States Europe and the UK Urban Lighting Light Pollution and Society is one of the first to take a serious assessment of light pollution and places and is a valuable resource for planners policy makers and students in related subjects Extreme Europe Stephen Barber, 2001 This book takes the form of a series of journeys around the peripheries of Europe and its cities via a number of the areas from which the defining moments and images of contemporary Europe have been generated introd Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1991 The Architects' Journal , 1998 At the Edge of the World Jean Mohr, John Berger, 1999 This book is a record in words and more than 90 black and white photographs of Mohr's journeys to such places as Romania Karachi Manila Algeria Lapland and Nicaragua It illuminates his ongoing concern with humanitarian issues as well as his bemused observations regarding clashes between international policy and local politics and personalities between media hype and traditional magic Jacket
