Operation Market Garden Tim Lynch, 2016-08-04 On 20 September 1944 a force of US paratroopers launched a desperate near suicidal river crossing in an effort to reach their airborne brethren trapped at Arnhem only to see their efforts squandered by British tank crews who instead of racing ahead sat down to drink tea The story of the Waal crossing as told by American veterans of the operation has become a part of the Arnhem legend a legend of airborne heroism set against the timidity of the armoured forces sent to relieve them of American professionalism wasted by British incompetence But what really happened Why was the operation even necessary Using first hand accounts and official records Operation Market Garden examines the legend of the Waal Crossing and the truth behind it revealing how a culture of elitism mixed with national and personal rivalries led to arguably the greatest western Allied defeat of the war

Het Koninkrijk

joy and hope swept through the nation finding its most powerful expression in the stirring liberation songs that resonated across the land. These songs, an evocative transatlantic soundtrack of freedom, captured the spirit of the time through music, lyrics, and dance, celebrating the euphoria of a nation reborn. Songs of Liberation in the Netherlands: The Transatlantic Soundtrack of Freedom invites readers on an extraordinary journey into this transformative period. Frank Mehring, along with an international team of writers, musicians, and curators, brings to life the vibrant music that accompanied liberation by drawing from the remarkable Hugo Keesing collection at the Freedom Museum in Groesbeek, featuring over 300 rare sheet songs. Now rediscovered, these songs offer a profound connection to the past, inviting us to reimagine the emotional power of music in shaping cultural memory.

The Island Tim Saunders, 2008-03-05 Having fought their way up fifty miles of Hell's Highway and through Nijmegen, XXX Corps was just ten miles from Arnhem and the 1st British Airborne Division. Here it found itself on an island of flat land between the Waal at Nijmegen and the Rhine at Arnhem. The situation was increasingly bad with the remainder of II SS Panzer Corps in the area and German counter attacks on Hell's Highway preventing the Allies applying their material superiority. The Guards Armoured and then 43rd Wessex Infantry Division took turns to lead before reaching the Rhine opposite the paratroopers in the Oosterbeek Perimeter. Attempts to cross the Rhine by the Polish Paras and the Dorset Regiment had little success but meanwhile the guns of XXX Corps ensured the survival of the Perimeter. After some desperate fighting on the island, 43rd Wessex Division evacuated just two thousand members of the elite Airborne Division who had landed eight days earlier.

Three is a Crowd? Madalena Cruz-Ferreira, 2006 The book describes three siblings apportioning of linguistic and cultural space among three languages: Portuguese, Swedish, and English. Parallel strategies accounting for monolingual and multilingual language management shape a truly illuminating picture of child linguistic competence. Written by a multilingual parent educator and linguist, this book is for parents, educators, and linguists in our predominantly increasingly multilingual world.
