Atmospheres of Projection Giuliana Bruno, 2022-10-13 Following on the success of Surface Bruno s previous book with us in this new one she explores the act and art of projection in its manifold guises and what those can tell us about how we think and feel and create the world we inhabit This is not just an exploration of the psychological operation of projection the idea that we cast onto others the qualities we refuse to acknowledge in ourselves It is a major work of cultural history and media archaeology As a way to transform space and atmosphere projection has a long history in the arts dating back to shadow plays camera obscuras magic lantern shows and phantasmagoria But the atmosphere of projection is not a thing of the past alone It is alive and well today It continues to fascinate us as screens filled with moving figures pervade the spaces of the art gallery and the museum as well as the environments of our daily lives What is the root of our fascination How does it manifest in contemporary art How do we define atmosphere How is projection an atmosphere Are these two modalities conceptually and historically related and how so Why are artists today so interested in environments and in elements of projection To explain this continual fascination with projection and atmosphere Bruno traverses psychoanalysis architecture the history of science visual art and moving image culture to see how projective mechanisms and their environments have developed over time

Histories of Performance Documentation Gabriella Giannachi,Jonah Westerman,2017-08-15 Histories of Performance Documentation traces the many ways in which museums have approached performance works from the 1960s onwards considering the unique challenges of documenting live events From hybrid and interactive arts to games and virtual and mixed reality performance this collection investigates the burgeoning role of the performative in museum displays Gabriella Giannachi and Jonah Westerman bring together interviews and essays by leading curators conservators artists and scholars from institutions including MoMA Tate SFMOMA and the Whitney to examine a range of interdisciplinary practices that have influenced the field of performance documentation Chapters build on recent approaches to performance analysis which argue that it should not focus purely on the live event and that documentation should not be read solely as a process of retrospection These ideas create a radical new framework for thinking about the relationship between performance and its documentation and how this relationship might shape ideas of what constitutes performance in the first place Sonic
