Nice Book Unpolished Gem Alice Pung:

Unpolished Gem Alice Pung, 2009-01-27 Poignant provocative sometimes laugh out loud funny Pung's rollicking tale of two worlds is not to be missed Kirkus Reviews starred review After Alice Pung's family fled to Australia from the killing fields of Cambodia her father chose Alice as her name because he thought their new country was a Wonderland In this lyrical bittersweet debut memoir already an award winning bestseller when it was published in Australia Alice grows up straddling two worlds East and West her insular family and the Australia outside With wisdom beyond her years and a keen eye for comedy in everyday life she writes of the trials of assimilation and cultural misunderstanding and of the tender but fraught relationships between three generations of women trying to live the Australian dream without losing themselves Unpolished Gem is a moving vivid journey about identity and the ultimate search for acceptance and healing delivered by a writer possessed of rare empathy penetrating insight and undeniable narrative gifts Alice Pung's Unpolished Gem Ruth

Thomas, 2014 Reading Across Worlds J. Procter, B. Benwell, 2014-12-17 Combining sustained empirical analysis of reading group conversations with four case studies of classic and contemporary novels Things Fall Apart White Teeth Brick Lane and Small Island this book pursues what can be gained through a comparative approach to reading and readerships

I'm Not Racist But ... 40 Years of the Racial Discrimination Act Tim Soutphommasane, 2015-06-01 Is Australia a racist country Why do issues of race and culture seem to ignite public debate so readily Tim Soutphommasane Australia's Race Discrimination Commissioner reflects on the national experience of racism and the progress that has been made since the introduction of the Racial Discrimination Act in 1975 As the first federal human rights and discrimination legislation the Act was a landmark demonstration of Australia's commitment to eliminating racism Published to coincide with the Act's fortieth anniversary this book gives a timely and incisive account of the history of racism the limits of free speech the dimensions of bigotry and the role of legislation in our society's response to discrimination With contributions by Maxine Beneba Clarke Bindi Cole Chocka Benjamin Law Alice Pung and Christos Tsiolkas Unpolished Gem by Alice Pung Anna Hedigan, 2007

The Unsociable Sociability of Women's Lifewriting A. Collett, L. D'Arcens, 2010-10-27 By investigating women lifewriters' complex quest to distinguish themselves both within and from institutions and communities this volume uses Kant's concept of unsociable sociability to formulate a divided sense of self at the heart of women's lifewriting offering a provocative response to the notion of the relational female subject Language Arts in Asia Christina

DeCoursey, 2012-01-17 This volume is the first of a series contributing to the academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm Language Arts has been widely used in native English speaking countries including Australia and New Zealand Its recent adoption into the second language teaching curriculum in Hong Kong as well as similar initiatives within secondary and tertiary education in mainland China enhances its interest to scholars studying second language teaching and learning in Asian contexts This book offers many papers and discussions of interest to teachers language professionals scholars and administrators Its chapters explore current topics in Language Arts research including trends in the rapprochement of stylistics and linguistics teaching approaches and learning outcomes At the same time they offer diverse theoretical and methodological approaches of interest to the practitioner and policy maker as well as the researcher The value of this volume lies particularly in strengthening the theoretical and methodological foundations of Language Arts The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe being traditionally appreciated for its ability to transform leaders instill finer sensibilities and question social ills In its postcolonial incarnations as the traditional subject areas were informed by critical and linguistic theories language arts subject areas were less often used as they were understood to offer opportunities to analyse their functions as apology for leaders coopting the young and pacifying dissent but less often used to teach second language skills Language Arts curricula arising since the 1980s have increasingly embraced authentic voices styles and genres Contemporary Language Arts curricula use literature to teach reading based and communication skills in conjunction with critical and creative thinking The movement of English language education beyond native English shores has placed Language Arts into a World Englishes frame and therefore its curricula have included the teaching ethics civics and intercultural sensitivity The explosion of media and digital communications of the 1990s led to the adoption of media literacy as a crucial Language Arts skill As digital innovations continue to impact the teaching of English Language Arts has adopted multiliteracies These developments are represented in the papers included in this volume
