Kieran We learn of Kieran's troubled childhood and of the tragedy that caused him as a boy to be separated from his family and taken in by a widowed countrywoman who lives in the mountains. There he comes to know the local people among them a tailor a fisherman teacher and a sheep farmer who is an astonishing philosopher. There is also the jeweler's daughter a young woman who will come to change the course of several lives. Running parallel is the story of the painter Kenneth Lochhead and his creation of the mural at Gander that is Tam's only companion through three long days and nights. An elegiac novel of unusual emotional depth The Night Stages explores the meaning of separation the sorrows of fractured families and the profound effect of Ireland's wild and elemental landscape on lives shaped by its beauty. It is Jane Urquhart's richest most rewarding novel to date. 99 Jumpstarts for Kids Peggy Whitley, Susan Williams Goodwin, 2003-09-30

Similar to the previous 99 Jumpstarts to Research but designed for younger students this book helps teachers and librarians to teach basic research and information literacy skills to children. To help them master the research process and narrow the limitless array of sources available on commonly researched topics in elementary and middle schools students are taught a basic note taking process and given specific source ideas and subject headings for each topic discussed. This book will be an invaluable tool to help school librarians and teachers broach the difficult task of beginning to teach the research process.
