attention and yet only a handful of countries account for 75% of the world's visitor arrivals. The other 200 or so are left to fight for a share of the remaining 25%. Therefore destination marketers at city, state and national levels have arguably a far more challenging role than other services or consumer goods marketers. Destination Marketing: an integrated marketing communication approach focuses on the five core tenets of integrated marketing communications. These embody both the opportunities and challenges facing Destination Marketing Organisations (DMOs) and are:

1. Profitable customer relationships
2. Enhancing stakeholder relationships
3. Cross functional processes
4. Stimulating purposeful dialogue with customers
5. Generating message synergy

The author seeks to provide a rationale for DMOs to develop a structure, roles and goals of DMOs, to examine the key challenges and constraints facing DMOs, to impart a destination branding process, to develop a philosophy of integrated marketing communications, to lead the emergence of visitor and stakeholder relationship management and to set forth options for performance measurement.
