Lines, 1991-01-01 Taming the Great South Land is the first full length landscape history of an entire continent occupied by one nation It is also in William Lines s telling a brutal and controversial story Examining the ways European society rapidly radically transformed Australia s physical and human landscapes the author writes candidly of repeated environmental devastation from the early slaughter of seals and whales to the destructive spread of sheep through gold rushes and land settlement to British nuclear tests and the modern mining and timber industries Lines shows how Enlightenment ideas of progress economic growth and development were reconstructed on Australian soil and how the promise of the conquest of nature became a mockery in fact resulting in the mass dislocation and destruction of indigenous populations This shocking narrative thoroughly researched and accessibly written combines environmental social and political history to hard hitting effect Taming the Great South Land is the first full length landscape history of an entire continent occupied by one nation It is also in William Lines s telling a brutal and controversial story Examining the ways European society rapidly radically transformed Australia s physical and human landscapes the author writes candidly of repeated environmental devastation from the early slaughter of seals and whales to the destructive spread of sheep through gold rushes and land settlement to British nuclear tests and the modern mining and timber industries Lines shows how Enlightenment ideas of progress economic growth and development were reconstructed on Australian soil and how the promise of the conquest of nature became a mockery in fact resulting in the mass dislocation and destruction of indigenous populations This shocking narrative thoroughly researched and accessibly written combines environmental social and political history to hard hitting effect The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson, 2014-09-01 This is the third and final volume of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia that gives an account of settlement by Britain

It tells of the various ways in which that experience shaped imagination and belief among the settler people from the eighteenth century to the end of World War I Volume Three Nation tells the story of Australian Federation and the war with a focus as ever on ordinary habits of thought and feeling In this period for the first time the settler people began to grasp the vastness of the continent and to think of it as their own There was a massive funding of education and the intellectual reach of men and women was suddenly expanded to an extent that seemed dazzling to many at the time Women began to shape public imagination as they had not done before At the same time the worship of mere ideas had its victims most obviously the Aboriginal people and the war itself proved what vast tragedies it could unleash The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia The Statesman's Year Book, 1907 The Statesman's

Year-book Frederick Martin, Sir John Scott Keltie, Isaac Parker Anderson Renwick, Mortimer Epstein, Sigfrid Henry Steinberg, John Paxton, Brian Hunter (Librarian), Barry Turner, 1922 Select List of Publications in the Library of the Royal Colonial Institute Illustrating the Communications of the Overseas British Empire Royal Commonwealth Society. Murray Paul Sinclair, 2013-05-24 The Murray River is in crisis and faces an uncertain future In this evocative book Paul Sinclair explores the reasons why the river has become degraded and what these changes have meant to Australians This in depth study of the Murray River examines the changing cultural meanings of the river the practical forgetfulness which has eroded the Aboriginal presence the triumphant narratives in which a supposedly empty land is made purposeful by the life giving powers of the Murray the passion to make the river's flow predictable and to replace primitive forces with a domesticated and balanced landscape The focus is on shifts and changes Sinclair describes the brief heyday of the riverboats and their transformation into a tourist attraction the decline of the mighty Murray cod and the rise of the European carp and the changing fortunes of the river towns He demonstrates that progress is often a myth and that ecological degradation always has cultural costs This is an innovative cultural and environmental history about landscape and fish memory and concepts imagination and desire Through a complex interweaving of history analysis poetry art and individuals recollections Paul Sinclair has created an original and subtly conceived work offering imaginative space to think about land and water in new ways Fishermen farmers tourists environmentalists lovers of the Australian landscape all these people will want to read this beautifully written book It will be an essential resource for those directly involved in the future of the Murray River contributing to the larger debate about Australia s threatened environment Catalogue of the Books, Pamphlets, Pictures, and Maps in the Library of Parliament to September, 1911 Commonwealth Parliamentary Library (Australia),1912 NILE OF AUSTRALIA NATURES GATE David J.
