Our Of Common Faith:

Phenomenological Ontology of Breathing Petri Berndtson, 2023-02-28 This book studies the phenomenological ontology of breathing. It investigates breathing and air as a question of phenomenological philosophy and looks at phenomenological questions concerning respiratory methodology, ontological experience of respiration, respiratory spirituality, and respiratory embodiment. Drawing on the ideas of Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Gaston Bachelard, Martin Heidegger, Edmund Husserl, Luce Irigaray, and David Kleinberg Levin, the book argues for the ontological primacy of breathing and develops a new principle of philosophy that the author calls Silence of Breath Abyss Yawn of Air. It asserts that breathing is not a thing or person-oriented relation but perpetual communication with the immense elemental atmosphere of open and free air. This new phenomenological method of breathing offers readers a chance to begin to wonder, rethink, re-experience, and reimagine all questions of life in an innovative and creative way as aerial and respiratory questions of life. Part of the Routledge Critical Perspectives on Breath and Breathing series, the book breaks new ground in phenomenology and phenomenological ontology by offering a decisive and insightful treatment of breath. It will be indispensable for students and researchers of philosophy, phenomenology, and ontology. It will also be of special interest to Merleau-Ponty scholars as it investigates uncharted dimensions of Merleau-Ponty's philosophy. Annual Session of the Baptist Congress for the Discussion of Current Questions, Held at ..., 1906

On Being the Church Brian Haymes, Ruth Gouldbourne, Anthony R. Cross, 2009-04-01 This book re-examines Baptist theology and practice in the light of contemporary biblical, theological, ecumenical, and missiological perspectives. It is not a study in denominationalism but rather attempts to revision historical insights from the believers' church tradition, seeking to reappropriate forgotten emphasis, bringing them together in a revised ecclesiology. Living Wisely and Well in the Evening of Life Duncan S. Ferguson, 2024-03-29 Living Wisely and Well in the Evening of Life addresses the increasing difficulty of those in our culture who are in the evening of life, who must manage a rapidly changing society and a new world being born almost daily. There are several dimensions of life which have become especially difficult for those in this position, including loneliness, the sense of being set aside in a changing culture, the cost of medical care, the deep conflicts in our political life, and the increasing sense of not being able to cope. Deep universal values articulated by the apostle Paul in his letter to the Corinthian church must be claimed and internalized. Paul artfully guides those from this church in a complex setting by suggesting a more excellent way in which to live with complexity and challenge. Then and now we need to cultivate a thoughtful and credible faith in our mature years; second, we must sustain the well-founded hope rooted in our faith in a loving God, especially necessary in the evening of life. In keeping with the teaching of Jesus, we should make unconditional love the central value in life. It is possible to flourish in the evening of life, undergirded by faith, hope, and love.

Catholic Moral Theology and Social Ethics Christina Astorga, 2013-12-01 Proposing a new method for moral theology, Christina Astorga seeks to recast our understanding of the discipline by drawing from the faith vision of the entire theological enterprise including scripture dogmatic theology social ethics and spirituality Recovering the Evangelical Sacrament Anthony R. Cross, 2012-12-06 The subject of baptism continues to be of considerable interest though it frequently appears within broader studies of sacraments liturgy worship and ecumenical studies and within confessional bounds credobaptist or paedobaptist yet it is rarely discussed by Evangelicals This book however is neither an apologetic for credobaptism nor paedobaptism rather Cross believes that as practiced today both forms are a departure from New Testament baptism which he maintains was an integral part of becoming a Christian and part of the proclaimed gospel He argues that the one baptism of Ephesians 4 5 is conversion baptism and that the baptism referred to in the various New Testament strata refers to this one baptism of Spirit and water The study sets out the case for this interpretation and contends that in key passages baptism is an example of synecdoche The case is then made for a sacramental interpretation of baptism from a thoroughgoing Evangelical perspective Cross concludes with reflections on the necessity of baptismal reform and the relevance of a return to conversion baptism for the contemporary church in a post Christian post Christendom mission setting A View from Above J. W. Murphy, 2014-10-10 Imagine what your Christian development would be like if you grasped the true character of God you were captivated by appreciation of and love for God s Word you were not frightened away by the haunted house of Revelation you appreciated how the early church s experience influenced the message of Revelation you understood how various viewpoints on Revelation developed over time you enjoyed a perspective which prevents tunnel vision you understood viewpoints about which you were previously unaware you esteemed fellow believers who have different understandings of Revelation you appreciated how the meaning of Jesus sacrifice is pictured in Revelation you practiced the message of Revelation in everyday life you were strengthened by an unshakable faith in God your faith was heartfelt and growing rather than formal or ritualistic you were strong enough to stand firm in the face of any and all spiritual opposition you were known for your moral and spiritual purity you were able to resist the seductions of our culture you demonstrated the sacrificial style of Jesus rather than the self serving style of society you enjoyed the blessings of those who keep the words of Revelation s message your anticipation of Jesus return rose above a distracting concern with earthquakes wars and developing social events you appreciated your present and future spiritual realities you were eager rather than fearful about the future you enjoyed the depths of the relationship toward which God is moving us The domestic chaplain; or, Sermons on family duties for every Sunday in the year John Edward Nassau Molesworth, 1838
