Outsiders Text Interaction Guide:

Retrieving the Crip Outsider Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability

Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner researchers who are involved in similar work In this sequel of sorts Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar From somewhere outside the field From somewhere outside the practice And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field And the practice Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform Dinesh use different voices in this book Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re conceptualized as drama Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes Voices that come from Dinesh s repertoire her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past present future collaborators By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re interpretations Theatre it is also a book that could be performed

Mimesis and Pacific Transcultural Encounters Jeannette Mageo, Elfriede Hermann, 2017-10-01 How do images circulating in Pacific cultures and exchanged between them and their many visitors transform meanings for all involved This fascinating collection explores how through mimesis wayfarers and locales alike borrow images from one another to expand their cultural repertoire of meanings or borrow images from their own past to validate their identities

Designing with the Mind in Mind Jeff Johnson, 2013-12-17 In this completely updated and revised edition of Designing with the Mind in Mind Jeff Johnson provides you with just enough background in perceptual and cognitive psychology that user interface UI design guidelines make intuitive sense rather than being just a list or rules to follow Early UI practitioners were trained in cognitive psychology and developed UI design rules based on it But as the field has evolved since the first edition of this book designers enter the field from many disciplines Practitioners today have enough experience in UI design that they have been exposed to design rules but it is essential that they understand the psychology behind the rules in order to effectively apply them In this new edition you ll find new chapters on human choice and decision making hand eye coordination and attention as well as new examples figures and explanations throughout Provides an essential source for user interface design rules and how when and why to apply them Arms designers with the science behind each design rule allowing them to make informed decisions in projects and to explain those decisions to others Equips readers with the knowledge to make educated tradeoffs between competing rules project deadlines and budget pressures Completely updated and revised including additional coverage on human choice and decision making hand eye coordination and attention and new mobile and touch screen examples throughout Using
