

The background of the cover is a reproduction of Leonardo da Vinci's 'The Last Supper'. It depicts Jesus Christ seated at the center of a long table, surrounded by his twelve apostles. Jesus is holding a piece of bread, and the apostles are shown in various states of shock and confusion. The scene is set in a room with architectural details like columns and a distant landscape visible through an opening in the wall.

The New Evangelization ,2015-02-26 The Second Vatican Council endorsed an engagement with the modern and secularized world through a renewed proclamation of the Gospel John Paul II described this as the New Evangelization and in 2010 Benedict XVI confirmed this priority by creating the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization to re propose the perennial truth of the Gospel The New Evangelization was the subject of the Synod of Bishops in 2012 and in 2014 Pope Francis gave his reflections on the topic in Evangelii Gaudium The New Evangelization draws on material presented and discussed at the conference Vatican II 50 Years On The New Evangelization organised by Leeds Trinity University on 26 29th June 2012 Part I traces the historical and theological links between the Council and the New Evangelization Part II examines the renewed understanding of the Church as a result of the Council and the extent to which it is shaped by civilization Part III analyzes the nature of the New Evangelization and its outworking in today s multifarious context of cultures religions and societies Part IV deals with the implementation of the New Evangelization by different communities and organizations and the issues this raises In the Introduction and Conclusion the editors reflect on the New Evangelization in the light of significant developments since 2012

Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1912 The Political Dialogue of Nature and Grace Caitlin Smith

Gilson, 2017-03-23 The discourse between nature and grace finds its linguistic and existential podium in the political condition of human beings As Caitlin Smith Gilson shows it is in this arena that the perennial territorial struggle of faith and reason God and man man and state take place and it is here that the understanding of the personal as political as well as the political as personal finds its meaning And it is here too that the divine finds or is refused a home Any discussion of post secular society has its origins in this political dialogue between nature and grace the resolution of which might determine not only a future post secular society but one in which awe is re united to affection solidarity and fraternity Smith Gilson questions whether the idea of pure nature antecedently disregards the fact that grace enters existence and that this accomplishes a conversion in the metaphysical existential region of man's action and being This conversion alters how man acts as an affective moral intellectual social political and spiritual being State of nature theories transformed yet retained in the broader metaphysical and existential implications of the Hegelian Weltgeist are shown to be indebted to the ideological restrictedness of pure nature natura pura as providing the foremost adversary to any meaningful type of divine presence within the polis as well as inhibiting the phenomenological facticity of man as an open nature Unity, 1889 Church: Charism and Power Leonardo Boff, 2012-01-30 Why the furor over this book Why was Church Charism and Power the subject of a Vatican inquiry The reason ironically enough has little to do with its alleged use of Marxist thought but rather with its critical understanding of the church in the light of the gospel Church Charism and Power is a provocative devastating critique of the ways in which power sacred power is controlled and exercised in the Roman Catholic Church It is a militant book a radical book but it is by no means defective in orthodoxy In fact with all its criticism it offers a brilliant defense of the historical claims of Roman Catholicism Its central thesis argues that since the fourth century the church has fallen victim to a kind of power that has nothing to do with the gospel and everything to do with the dynamics of power with all of its inevitable abuses This historical reality enshrined in the monarchical model of the church was undermined at the Second Vatican

Council and replaced by that of the church as people of God This laical model is closely allied in Boff's exposition with the notion of the church as sacrament of the Holy Spirit the church as sign and instrument of the now living and risen Christ that is the Holy Spirit A pneumatic ecclesiology such as this would lead the church back to its primitive dynamics of community cooperation and charism It would create a church in which everyone shared equally and where flexible and appropriate ministries conformed to needs as they arose Is such a church possible Is it not simply the utopian dream of idealists and sectarians down through the ages No says Father Boff given the incredible growth throughout Latin America of comunidades eclesiales de base base communities where the people express and achieve their desire for participation and where the hierarchy divests itself of its titles and ecclesiastical baggage creating a common desire for community and equality This model of the church has acquired an unexpected historical possibility the new church is in the process of being born This church the church being born from the faith of the poor has rediscovered for itself and for the church universal the living presence of the dangerous memory of Jesus Christ

The Cambridge Review, 1883 Faith in the Living God, 2nd Edition John Polkinghorne, Michael Welker, 2019-04-12

In this book John Polkinghorne and Michael Welker explain how they understand faith in the living God Between them they offer a binocular vision from their twin perspectives to yield helpful insight in relation to the important issues Part of the fascination of this book is how two people with such different backgrounds approach central theological questions relating to the faith they both share Their concerns are truth rather than polemics reliability rather than simple certainty They seek to anchor their thought in concrete particulars rather than abstract generalizations They ask the questions that trouble the inquiring mind and meet head on the challenge as well as the reassurances of belief This second edition provides a new Preface and updated bibliographies
