More Than Chains And Toil A Christian Work Ethic Of Enslaved Women:

More Than Chains and Toil Joan Martin,2000-01-01 In More than Chains and Toil Joan Martin explores the experiences of enslaved women and the realities of their social world to uncover the interrelationships among moral agency work and human meaning She then reflects ethically on the implications such a distinct perspective on labor might have for women in contemporary African American communities and for broader discussions about the meaning of work in American society

Enslaved Women and the Art of Resistance in Antebellum America R. Harrison,2009-09-28 Draws on mid seventeenth to nineteenth century slave narratives to describe oppression in the lives of enslaved African women Investigates pre colonial West and West Central African women s lives prior to European arrival to recover the cultural traditions and religious practices that helped enslaved women combat violence and oppression Womanist Ethics and the Cultural Production of

Evil Emilie M. Townes,2006-11-13 This groundbreaking book provides an analytical tool to understand how and why evil works in the world as it does Deconstructing memory history and myth as received wisdom the volume critically examines racism sexism poverty and stereotypes Bourdieu on Religion Terry Rey,2014-12-05 Pierre Bourdieu was one of the most influential social theorists of our time He developed a series of concepts to uncover the way society works and to challenge assumptions about what society is His ideas illuminate how individuals and groups find value and meaning and so have rapidly come to be seen as hugely productive in analysing how religion works in society Bourdieu on Religion introduces students to Bourdieu s key concepts cultural social and symbolic capital habitus and field and his challenge to the structures of social inequality This study will be invaluable to any student interested in the relationships between religion class and social power A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further

African-American Slave Medicine , African American Slave Medicine Herbert C. Covey,2008-09-09 African American Slave Medicine offers a critical examination of how African American slaves medical needs were addressed during the years before and surrounding the Civil War Drawing upon ex slave interviews conducted during the 1930s and 1940s by the Works Project Administration WPA Dr Herbert C Covey inventories many of the herbal plant and non plant remedies used by African American folk practitioners during slavery He demonstrates how active the slaves were in their own medical care and the important role faith played in the healing process This book links each referenced plant or herb to modern scientific evidence to determine its actual worth and effects on the patients Through his study Dr Covey unravels many of the complex social relationships found between the African American slaves Whites folk practitioners and patients African American Slave Medicine is a compelling and captivating read that will appeal to scholars of African American history and those interested in folk medicine

The Church and Work Joshua Sweeden, 2014-01-31 Work is one of the most dominant and unavoidable realities of life Though experiences of work vary tremendously many Christians share a common struggle of having to live in seemingly bifurcated spheres of work and faith Beginning with the conviction that Christian faith permeates all aspects of life Joshua Sweeden explores Christian understandings of good work in relationship to ethics community practice and ecclesial witness In The Church and Work Sweeden provides a substantial contribution to the theological conversation about work by proposing an ecclesiological grounding for good work He argues that many of the prominent theological proposals for good work are too abstract from context and demonstrates how the church can be understood as generative for both the theology and practice of good work This needed ecclesiological development takes seriously the role of context in the ongoing discernment of good work and specifically explores how ecclesial life and practice shape and inform good work Christian understandings of good work are inconceivable without the church Accordingly the church is not simply the recipient and a dispenser of a theology of work but the locus of its development

Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B Pinn, 2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Black Theology Anthony B Pinn Womanist Theology Stacey M Floyd Thomas Latina Theology Nancy Pineda Madrid Hispanic Latino a Theology Benjam n Valent n Asian American Theology Andrew Sung Park Asian American Feminist Theology Grace Ji Sun Kim Native Feminist Theology Andrea Smith Native American Theology George Tink Tinker Gay and Lesbian Theology Robert E Shore Goss Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U S context Written in an accessible and engaged way this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike I highly recommend it Kwok Pui lan author of Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology A delight to read and an exemplary account of the genre of liberation theologies Religious Studies Review

Beyond Slavery B. Brooten,2010-10-25 This book looks at a United States that continues to be driven by racial and cultural divisions from the disproportionately high number of incarcerated African Americans to heartfelt disagreements over the true nature of marriage and the proper role of faith in public policy

A New Protestant Labor Ethic at Work Ken Estey,2011-01-01 Estey proposes a labor ethic that emphasizes the protest in Protestantism The purpose of this ethic is to interrupt the drudgery of the Protestant work ethic which Estey asserts is the dominant cultural ideal in the U S Protestantism must not be about capitulation to capitalism and a Protestant ethic that works must be one that questions and confronts authority in order to undo the newest and oldest forms of dehumanization as they pertain to workers labor issues and conditions in the workplace

Mining Morality William P. George,2019-10-11 Employing self sharpening tools found in the work of theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan Pope Francis encyclical Laudato si and international law William P George brings mining to personal and collective moral awareness by prospecting for ethics at selected sites 1 Butte Montana the Richest Hill on Earth once bound to Chuquicamata Chile by a company that spanned two continents and nearly owned a state 2 the tiny island nation of Nauru called Pleasant Island until it was devastated by phosphate mining and the breaking of a sacred trust by foreign powers 3 the deep seabed governed by the United Nations Law of the Sea a constitution for the oceans that regards much of the resource rich seabed as humankind s common heritage 4 Africa with its uranium mines but also its conflicts over what being nuclear means in the wake of colonialism apartheid and Hiroshima and 5 mineral rich asteroids speeding through space where mining rights are contested even as space entrepreneurs look to become the world s first trillionaires George introduces readers to remarkable moral miners the women of Butte and Chuquicamata a World Court judge from Sri Lanka and the

Rocket Boys of Coalwood West Virginia to name a few and leads them to consider not only the morality of mining what's good and not so good about resource extraction but also the mining of morality a venture that Socrates called the examined life

Solidarity Ethics Rebecca Todd Peters, 2014-01-01 Rebecca Todd Peters argues for an ethic of solidarity as a new model for how people of faith in the first world can live with integrity in the midst of global injustice and shape a more just future Solidarity Ethics seeks to address the economic and social structures of our globalized context Peters argues for a concrete ethics rooted in the Christian tradition of justice and transformation deeply informed by solidarity and relationality Utilizing these theologically rich resources an ethics of relational reflection action and construction is provided as an avenue for building viable strategies for social transformation

We Shall Not Be Moved Jane Ellen Nickell, 2014-10-15 As Protestant denominations are fracturing over whether to ordain gays and lesbians this work looks at The United Methodist Church's conversations about the issue in light of Methodism's historic contests over the leadership of African Americans and women to see what can be learned from these earlier periods of change Using the uniform context of the Methodist General Conference where denominational policy is set the book analyzes transcripts of floor debates in key years of these struggles letting those who argued for and against the changes speak for themselves Those arguments are read through the lens of French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu whose theory offers a sophisticated model that goes deeper than simple resistance to change in articulating a dialectic between social structures and agents that predisposes both to reproduce existing power relationships This interdisciplinary historical study seeks to move beyond conscious motivations for the exclusion of these three groups and uncover deeply embedded misrecognized social dynamics In exploring these groups stories this book examines who holds power in Methodist churches how changes in authority structures occur and why it is such a long and painful process
