Federalism and Decentralization in the Contemporary Middle East and North Africa Aslı Ü. Bâli,Omar M. Dajani,2023-01-05 This volume the first of its kind in the English language examines the law and politics of federalism and decentralization in the Middle East and North Africa Comprised of eleven case studies examining the experience across the region together with essays by leading scholars providing comparative and theoretical perspectives and a synthetic conclusion by the co editors the volume offers a textured portrait of the dilemmas of decentralization during a period of sweeping transition in the region The collection addresses an important gap in the comparative decentralization literature which has largely neglected the MENA region Both retrospective and forward looking in orientation the book is a valuable resource not only for scholars of comparative politics constitutional design and Middle East studies but also for policy makers evaluating the feasibility and efficacy of decentralization as a vehicle for improving governance and responding to identity conflict in any part of the world

Rise of Islamic Political Movements and Parties Kirdis Esen Kirdis,2019-05-09 Although regarded as a single community of Islamists Islamic political movements utilise vastly different means to pursue their goals This book examines why some Islamic movements facing the same socio political structures pursue different political paths while their counterparts in diverse contexts make similar political choices Based on qualitative fieldwork involving personal interviews with Islamic politicians journalists and ideologues conducted both before and after the Arab Spring author Esen KirdiAY draws close comparisons between six Islamic movements in Jordan Morocco and Turkey She analyses how some Islamic movements decide to form a political party to run in elections while their counterparts in the same country reject doing so and instead engage in political activism as a social movement through informal channels More broadly the study demonstrates the role of internal factors ideological priorities and organisational needs in explaining differentiation within Islamic political movements and discusses its effects on democratisation

Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War Elizabeth Schmidt,2018-10-22 In Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War interdisciplinary in approach and intended for nonspecialists Elizabeth Schmidt provides a new framework for thinking about foreign political and military intervention in Africa its purposes and its consequences She focuses on the quarter century following the Cold War 1991 2017 when neighboring states and subregional regional and global organizations and networks joined extracontinental powers in support of diverse forces in the war making and peace building processes During this period two rationales were used to justify intervention a response to instability with the corollary of responsibility to protect and the war on terror Often overlooked in discussions of poverty and violence in Africa is the fact that many of the challenges facing the continent today are rooted in colonial political and economic practices in Cold War alliances and in attempts by outsiders to influence African political and economic systems during the decolonization and postindependence periods Although conflicts in Africa emerged from local issues external political and military interventions altered their dynamics and rendered them more lethal Foreign Intervention in Africa after the Cold War counters oversimplification and distortions and offers a new continentwide perspective illuminated by trenchant case studies Rap Beyond Resistance Cristina Moreno Almeida,2017-09-15 This book fills the gap in existing literature by exploring other forms of political discourses in non Western rap music Theoretically it challenges and explores resistance arguing towards the need for different epistemological frameworks in which to look at narratives of cultural resistance in the Arabic speaking world Empirically it provides an in depth look at the politics of rap culture in Morocco Rap Beyond Resistance bridges the humanities and social sciences in order to de Westernize cultural studies presenting the political narratives of the Moroccan rap scene beyond secular liberal meanings of resistance By exploring what is political this book brings light to a vibrant and varied rap scene diverse in its political discourses with an emphasis on patriotism and postcolonial national identity and uncovers different ways in which young artists are being political beyond radical lyrics

Shari'a and the Constitution in Contemporary Legal Models Federico Lorenzo Ramaioli, 2024-03-23 This comparative law book aims at formulating a new analytical approach to constitutional comparisons assuming as a starting point the different legal perspectives implied in the Sunni Islamic outlook on the juridical phenomena and the Western concept of law with particular reference to constitutionalism. The volume adopts a wider and comprehensive viewpoint comparing the different ways in which the Islamic shar'a and Western legal categories interact regardless of substantive contents of specific provisions thus avoiding conceptual biases that can sometime affect present literature on the matter. The book explores the various dynamics subtended to the interactions between shar'a and Western constitutionalism providing a new classification to the different contemporary models. The philosophical and legal comparisons are analyzed in a dynamic way based on a wide range of contemporary constitutional systems virtually encompassing all the States in which Sunni Islam plays a major cultural role and taking also into consideration non State actors and non recognized actors. Contemporary Moroccan Thought, 2024-11-04 Contemporary Moroccan Thought offers a new and broad coverage of the intellectual dynamics and scholarly output of what is presented here as the Rabat School since the 1950s. Geographically situated at the western edge of the classical Arab Islamic world Moroccan scholarship has made a belated yet vigorous comeback on the modern Arab intellectual scene attracting wider reception beyond the Arabic speaking world through influential contributions in philosophical theological social and cultural studies. This volume sets a new standard in the study of Moroccan North African and Middle Eastern societies and will undoubtedly remain an important scholarly reference for generations to come.

Political Islam Inside-Out Giulia Cimini, Beatriz Tomé-Alonso, 2022-05-25 This book analyses the evolution of key Islamist movements and parties in Egypt Tunisia and Morocco. It offers a novel and exhaustive study of the evolution of Islamists as shaped by the interplay of domestic regional and international factors. Providing an in depth theoretically grounded and empirically rich study of political Islam the volume explores how the overly under appreciated interaction of domestic regional and international factors impacts the development of contemporary Islamist actors. By tracing how they adapt and resist to challenging environments within and beyond national boundaries it charts and explains many of the critical changes and continuities in their organisational set up policy choices ideological leanings and narratives. Through an inside out perspective and actor centered approach this book aims to overcome the compartmentalisation of the domestic and international spheres as well as the obsession with moderation for Islamists Specifically the book chapters address how Islamist actors re interpret external events norms ideas and practices from abroad in the light of the constraints and opportunities of their respective domestic environments At the crossroads of comparative politics international relations and area studies it is a key resource for practitioners and scholars interested in party politics social movements political Islam and North Africa The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Contemporary Politics

Routledge Handbook on Sufism Lloyd Ridgeon,2020-08-09 This is a chronological history of the Sufi tradition divided in to three sections early middle and modern periods The book comprises 35 independent chapters with easily identifiable themes and or geographical threads all written by recognised experts in the field The volume outlines the origins and early developments of Sufism by assessing the formative thinkers and practitioners and investigating specific pietistic themes The middle period contains an examination of the emergence of the Sufi Orders and illustrates the diversity of the tradition This middle period also analyses the fate of Sufism during the time of the Gunpowder Empires Finally the end period includes representative surveys of Sufism in several countries both in the West and in traditional Islamic regions This comprehensive and up to date collection of studies provides a guide to the Sufi tradition The Handbook is a valuable resource for students and researchers with an interest in religion Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Historical Dictionary of Morocco Aomar Boum,Thomas K. Park,2016-06-02 A historical reference work on Morocco must take as its subject al maghrib al aqsa the far west as the Arabic scholars have generally referred to the approximate region of present day Morocco roughly the north west corner of Africa but at times including much of the Iberian peninsula because the modern nation state is a relatively recent creation owing much to events in the late 19th and early 20th centuries External influences on Morocco tend to come across the narrow straits of Gibraltar to the north from the east along the Mediterranean litoral or up from the Sahara In each case access is constrained by geography and continued control from outside the region has been difficult to manage over the long term Although many of the dynasties that came to power in Morocco conquered much broader regions history and topology have so conspired that there is still more coherence to an historical focus on al maghrib al aqsa than is the case for most modern nation states This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Morocco contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Morocco Barriers to Effective Civil Society Organisations Ibrahim Natil,Vanessa Malila,Youcef Sai,2020-08-31 This book provides an insight into the historical changes and present day circumstances that have influenced and continue to influence the development and future of civil society Civil society organisations CSOs play a crucial role in international development however their impact on policy and practice is limited by a range of shifts across their political social and financial landscapes Barriers to Effective Civil Society Organisations is divided into three parts addressing each of these shifts in turn and places particular emphasis on civil society actors linked not only by political constraints but also by ethnic and cultural diversities that are crucial markers of political and social identity This book draws on case studies from across Latin America Africa MENA and Ireland to highlight how CSOs in these countries are shaped by and react to shifting challenges Reflecting on solutions for the sector the authors provide an understanding of the various self accommodation policies and techniques employed by CSOs in order to continue their services and increase their credibility across global contexts Aimed at researchers policy makers and CSO NGO workers looking to better understand the current state and future of the sector from the perspective of emerging scholars working in these regions and in the Global South in particular this innovative book is a celebration of the important work of CSOs and a reaffirmation of their right to sit at the policy table
