

The Morphology of Biblical Greek

A Companion to Basics of Biblical Greek and
The Analytical Lexicon to the Greek New Testament

William D. Mounce

The Morphology of Biblical Greek explains, in a way second-year Greek students can understand, how Greek words are formed. It shows that Greek word formation follows a limited set of rules. Once these rules are understood, it becomes clear that forms which once seemed to be irregular or an exception actually follow these morphological rules.

The Morphology of Biblical Greek has five parts:

1. The rules that determine how Greek words change.
2. The rules of verb formation, from augment to personal ending.
3. Paradigms for every type of noun and adjective form, with all the words that belong in each category and any peculiarities of a given word.
4. All the verbs and principal parts, with verbs that follow the same rules grouped together.
5. An index of all words in the New Testament with their morphological category.

The Morphology of Biblical Greek contains the most complete set of paradigms for nouns, verbs, adjectives, and pronouns available for New Testament Greek.

William D. Mounce (Ph.D., University of Aberdeen) for many years taught Greek and New Testament at Azusa Pacific University in Southern California. He is the author of the highly successful Basics of Biblical Greek, The Analytical Lexicon to the Greek New Testament, and the forthcoming volume on the Pastoral Epistles in the Word Biblical Commentary.

Interlinear for the Rest of Us William D. Mounce, 2006 This book makes the Greek New Testament and word studies based on it easily accessible to everyone, all in one volume. The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s, The Minister's Library, Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library. From Old and New Testament languages, lexical aids, and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies, as well as pastoral resources, Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses. Far more than just a guide to commentaries, as are so many works today, this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies. Discourse Analysis and the New Testament Jeffrey Reed, Stanley E.

Porter, 1999-06-01 The volume contains contributions by many of the major discourse analysts of the New Testament, including E. A. Nida, W. Schenk, J. P. Louw, and J. Callow. Some of these essays deal with methodology, raising necessary questions about what it means to analyse discourse. Others demonstrate an already committed approach by reading specific texts. A state-of-the-art volume for all scholars interested in this increasingly important area of New Testament research. Luke 6:40 and the Theme of Likeness Education in the New Testament Thomas W. Hudgins, 2014-01-07 What does Jesus mean when he says, "A disciple is not above his teacher, but each disciple, after being fully trained, will be like his teacher" (Luke 6:40)? This verse has been quoted, cited, and referenced in vast amounts of Christian education and discipleship literature.

Nevertheless the verse is nearly untouched in exegetical discussions with the exception of source critical analyses From this verse arises an undeveloped theme in the Gospel of Luke and the New Testament the theme of likeness education Using content analysis methodology Luke 6 40 one of the keystone passages in Christian education literature serves as the starting point for mining out the theme of likeness education in the New Testament This study consists of three concentric areas of investigation 1 Luke 6 40 and its immediate context 2 Luke Acts and 3 the New Testament corpus

The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark
Gregg S Morrison, 2015-02-26 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter's confession 8 27-38 and the Transfiguration 9 2-13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus-like manner enabling the reader to see the author's main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter's confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1-13 and functions as a mid-course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end-course conclusion 14 61-62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow
