Nowlan, 1991-01-01 The 1980s had more than its share of both emerging stars and final tributes paid to luminaries as well as smash hits and bombs memorable and boring performances and new trends and tried and true formula offerings The Film of the Eighties includes numerous examples of all of these Each entry has the year of release production company country of origin U S U K Australian Canadian leading performers and the characters they portrayed and comprehensive credits A brief description review and evaluation of the film's cinematic values if any are also provided

U.S. Latinos and Criminal Injustice Lupe S. Salinas, 2015-07-01 Latinos in the United States encompass a broad range of racial socioeconomic and sociopolitical identities Originating from the Caribbean Spain Central and South America and Mexico they have unique justice concerns The ethnic group includes U S citizens authorized resident aliens and undocumented aliens a group that has been a constant partner in the Latino legal landscape for over a century This book addresses the development and rapid growth of the Latino population in the United States and how race based discrimination hate crimes and other prejudicial attitudes some of which have been codified via public policy have grown in response Salinas explores the degrading practice of racial profiling an approach used by both federal and state law enforcement agents the abuse in immigration enforcement and the use of deadly force against immigrants The author also discusses the barriers Latinos encounter as they wend their way through the court system While all minorities face the barrier of racially based jury strikes bilingual Latinos deal with additional concerns since limited English proficient defendants depend on interpreters to understand the trial process As a nation rich in ethnic and racial backgrounds the United States Salinas argues should better strive to serve its principles of justice
