 Playing with Print Carol Ann Bloom, 2007-05 To create a classroom where first encounters with literacy are playful and exploratory not formal and separate from the child s world this book spills out a rich cascade of ideas in four areas making the classroom a print rich learning environment including print in daily activities practicing literacy through art activities and dramatic play and recasting the teacher s role into spectator advisor resource and scribe Hundreds of ideas support these goals Grades preK 2 Suggested resources Illustrated Good Year Books 204 pages Second Edition What's the Right Thing to Do? Selma Wassermann, 2019-05-24 Making choices is one of the more pervasive acts of life Almost every action we take demands that choices be made Knowing how to choose wisely to choose after reflection to be aware of what motivates that choice to see the consequences of that choice on others enables us to live healthier more productive and more responsible lives We now live in a world in which our traditional moral exemplars have been less than honorable in their public behavior With fewer heroes and flawed role models how are children to come to an understanding of what s right what s good decent and socially responsible Do as I say not as I do is hardly a viable tenet to guide children s choices This book offers important tools for carrying out effective strategies that build caring environments in the classroom and home for teaching children to weigh decisions in the face of potential consequences examine rationales for their choices and study the effects of their choices on others i e to think more carefully about ethical problems in the presence of the moral freedom to determine for themselves what it means to lead a good and virtuous life Attention Grabbing Tools Jane Baskwill, 2012-12 It is widely accepted that when home and school work together children's learning improves Although this fact is readily acknowledged communication between school and home is still often one sided and remains a struggle for many teachers This book explores a wide range of tools take home information and materials parent conferences learning nights and digital and social media for teachers to use in establishing and maintaining the parent teacher relationship one that holds the child at the center of all education decisions Paper Bag Princess - Literature Kit Gr. 1-2 Marie-Helen Goyetche,2007-05-01 Don't judge a Prince by his clothing in this fairy tale Students become engaged in the novel by discussing the reactions of its characters Identify the vowel sounds from vocabulary words found in the story Correct a set of sentences with their missing capital letters Identify statements from the book as true or false Students put themselves in Elizabeth's shoes and decide what they would have done to outwit the dragon As a newspaper reporter think of five questions to ask Princess Elizabeth and Prince Ronald about their ordeal with the dragon Come up with things to change about the story things not to change and things to add with a Story Makeover graphic organizer Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel This is the story of Princess Elizabeth who is in love with Prince Ronald They plan to soon marry One day a terrible dragon smashes Elizabeth's castle burns her clothes and disappears with her Prince Ronald Everything is burnt so she wears a paper bag and sets off to go get him She outwits the dragon by challenging him Exhausted by all the activity the dragon falls fast asleep Elizabeth steps over the dragon goes into the cave and rescues Prince Ronald Astonished by his reaction she tells him his clothes are pretty and his hair is tidy but in fact he's a bum They don't get married after all Special Ways with
