Commonwealth Bureau of Census and Statistics,1927 Socio-Economic Development Adam Szirmai,2015-06-18 Taking a comparative and multidisciplinary approach this textbook offers a non technical introduction to the dynamics of socio economic development and stagnation Monthly Bulletin of the Statistics Department Boston (Mass.) Statistics Dept,1914 Monthly Digest of Statistics ,2015 Michigan Monthly Bulletin of Vital Statistics Michigan. State Board of Health,1897 Solar Energy Gerard M Crawley,2016-04-14 Concerns about energy resources and the environmental impact of energy use will continue to be important globally World Scientific s unique series of books on Current Energy Issues is intended in part as an expansion and update of the material contained in the World Scientific Handbook of Energy Each volume will focus on related energy resources or issues and will contain a broader range of topics with more explanatory text This Solar Energy volume covers a variety of approaches to the use of solar energy These include large scale photovoltaic production of electricity as well as more local applications in the home and businesses Similarly there is an extensive discussion of large scale solar thermal electricity production and smaller scale uses such as solar water heating home heating and cooling plus crop drying There is also discussion of more forward looking technologies including the production of fuels using artificial photosynthesis and the production of biomass West African Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU) International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2016-04-04 This paper presents stylized facts on the quantitative and qualitative infrastructure gap in the West African Economic and Monetary Union WAEMU estimates the efficiency of public investment and recommends how to improve it The WAEMU countries face an important common challenge of creating sufficient fiscal space to finance ambitious growth development and poverty reduction programs in individual countries This paper also provides comparative evidence of the situation of WAEMU in several areas of financial development relative to groups of benchmark countries The state of inclusion in the WAEMU along three dimensions poverty income inequality and gender inequality is also examined in this paper Sustainable Development and Planning VII Ö. Özçevik,C.A. Brebbia,S.M. Şener,2015-05-19 This book contains the proceedings of the seventh in a series of biennial conferences on the topic of sustainable regional development that began in 2003 Organised by the Wessex Institute the conference series provides a common forum for all scientists specialising in the range of subjects included within sustainable development and planning In order to ensure that planning and development can meet our present needs without compromising future generations planners environmentalists architects engineers policy makers and economists must work together The use of modern technologies in planning gives us new potential to monitor and prevent environmental degradation In recent years in many countries an increase in spatial problems has led to planning crises Planning problems are often associated with uneven development deterioration of the quality of urban life and destruction of the environment The increasing urbanisation of the world coupled with the global issues of environmental pollution resource shortage and economic restructuring demand that we ensure a decent quality of life for our cities Other environments such as rural areas forests coastal regions and mountains face their own problems that urgently require solutions in order to avoid irreversible damage Effective strategies for management should consider planning and regional development two closely related disciplines and emphasise the demand to handle these matters in an integrated way The papers in the book cover such topics as Regional Planning City Planning Sustainability and the Built Environment Cultural Heritage Environmental Management Environmental Policies and Planning Sustainable Tourism Resources Management Social and Political Issues Rural Developments Sustainable Solutions in Emerging Countries Transportation Energy Resources Environmental Economics Sustainable Assessment Sustainable Development Indicators Sustainability Modelling Governance Resilience Community Planning Planning for Equality Quality of Life

The SIJORI Cross-Border Region Francis E

Hutchinson, Terence Chong, 2016-06-14 Twenty five years ago the governments of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia agreed to jointly promote the city state the state of Johor in Malaysia and the Riau Islands in Indonesia Facilitated by common cultural references a more distant shared history and complementary attributes interactions between the three territories developed quickly Logistics networks have proliferated and production chains link firms based in one location with affiliates or transport facilities in the other territories These cross border links have enabled all three locations to develop their economies and enjoy rising standards of living Initially economic in nature the interactions between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands have multiplied and grown deeper Today people cross the borders to work go to school or avail of an increasing range of goods and services New political social and cultural phenomena have developed Policymakers in the various territories now need to reconcile economic imperatives and issues of identity and sovereignty Enabled by their proximity and increasing opportunities families have also begun to straddle borders with resulting questions about citizenship and belonging Using the Cross Border Region framework which seeks to analyse these three territories as one entity simultaneously divided and bound together by its borders this book brings together scholars from a range of disciplines Its 18 chapters and more than 20 maps examine the interaction between Singapore Johor and the Riau Islands over the past quarter century and seek to shed light on how these territories could develop in the future

France International Monetary Fund. European Dept., 2019-07-24 This 2019 Article IV Consultation discusses that the French government revamped vocational training and professional development to foster labor market participation especially for low skilled workers following key labor tax and labor code reforms enacted in its first year in office In prioritizing the recommended reforms the report highlights that the importance of carefully assessing the trade offs and the proper sequencing of structural reforms and fiscal consolidation The government's structural reform agenda is being put in place and growth is expected to gradually return to its potential level over the medium run However risks have risen related to a disorderly

Brexit trade tensions and a softening of activity in the euro area but also to a slowdown in the domestic reform momentum Building on the ongoing government reform agenda policies should aim at addressing France's structural challenges high public debt and spending rising private sector indebtedness high unemployment inequality of opportunity and sluggish productivity Hong Kong's Global Financial Centre and China's Development Yan-leung Cheung, Yuk-shing

Cheng, Chi-keung Woo, 2016-12-08 This book provides an overview of Hong Kong's role as an international financial centre focusing especially on how Hong Kong has contributed significantly and continues to contribute significantly to China's economic development It considers the importance of Hong Kong's stock market in raising finance for Chinese companies explores the potential of Hong Kong as an offshore financial centre and discusses recent regulatory reforms It concludes by assessing the prospects for Hong Kong's continuing success as a global financial centre and puts forward recommendations for policies which would help secure continuing success International Housing Market Experience and Implications for China

Rebecca L. H. Chiu, Zhi Liu, Bertrand Renaud, 2019-03-18 Recent rapid housing market expansion in China is presenting new challenges for policy makers planners business people and citizens Now that housing in middle income China is driven by consumer choices and is no longer dominated by state policy decisions housing policy issues in Chinese cities are becoming increasingly similar to those encountered in other global housing markets With soaring prices and imbalances in housing supply favoring high income groups and housing demand driven by rising inequality in household incomes many middle and lower income households face worsening choices in terms of the quality and location of their housing as well as greater financial difficulties which together can have negative implications for standards of public health This book examines the impact of these changes on the general population as well as on aspiring homeowners and developers The contributors look at the effect on the widening of wealth gaps slower economic growth and threats to political and social stability Though focusing on China the editors also present discussions of specific policy design challenges encountered in Australia Japan Korea the Netherlands the Nordic countries Singapore Taiwan the UK and the US This book would be of interest to housing policy makers as well as academics who are studying the social and political effects of the Chinese housing market

Fueling Freedom Stephen Moore, Kathleen Hartnett White, 2016-05-23 Fossil fuel energy is the lifeblood of the modern world Before the Industrial Revolution humanity depended on burning wood and candle wax But with the ability to harness the energy in oil and other fossil fuels quality of life and capacity for progress increased exponentially Thanks to incredible innovations in the energy industry fossil fuels are as promising safe and clean an energy resource as has ever existed in history Yet highly politicized climate policies are pushing a grand scale shift to unreliable impractical incredibly expensive and far less efficient energy sources Today fossil fuel has become such a dirty word that even fossil fuel companies feel compelled to apologize for their products In Fueling Freedom energy experts Stephen Moore and Kathleen Hartnett White make an unapologetic case for fossil fuels turning around progressives protestations to prove that if fossil fuel energy is supplanted by green alternatives for political reasons humanity will take a giant step backwards and the planet will be less safe less clean and less free

Policy-Making in a Transformative State M. Evren Tok, Lolwah R. M. Alkhater, Leslie A. Pal, 2016-08-10 This book explores in a series of detailed case studies how public policy is actually made in Qatar While Qatar is a Gulf monarchy its governance is complex Other analysts have tried to come to grips with this complexity using qualified descriptions of the system such as late rentier pluralized autocracy tribal democracy or soft authoritarian The authors of the volume use the lens of a transformative state Qatar is deliberately engaged in a rapid process of radical economic and societal transformation That process has its contradictions and tensions particularly with regards to achieving a balance between Islam social traditions and modernity This book explores how it also has a specific policy dynamic of generating ideas and institutions developing policy and program designs implementation and coordination

Republic of Slovenia International Monetary Fund. European Dept., 2019-02-18 This Article IV Consultation highlights that the continued structural reforms are key to ensure long term prosperity while strengthening the economy s resilience to shocks Effective implementation of the recently enacted reforms of vocational training apprenticeship and adult education would help address skill shortages support employment of younger and older people and boost productivity growth Macro financial legacy issues remain in bank and corporate balance sheets including small and medium enterprises nonperforming loans Structural challenges persist with low productivity growth skills shortages high tax wedge heavy regulatory system and extensive presence of state owned enterprises Policies should focus on fiscal and structural reforms to rebuild fiscal buffers and increase productivity Slovenia s external position in 2018 is assessed as substantially stronger than suggested by fundamentals and desirable policies however the current account is expected to revert toward its norm in the medium term Continued structural reforms are key to ensure long term prosperity while strengthening the economy s resilience to shocks Effective implementation of the recently enacted reforms of vocational training apprenticeship and adult education would help address skill shortages support employment of younger and older people and boost productivity growth
