The Age of Asian Migration Yuk Wah Chan, David Haines, Jonathan Lee, 2014-08-11 The second half of the 20th century witnessed a series of mass migration in Asia due to war politics and economic turbulence Combined with recent global economic changes the result is that Asia is now the world region producing the most international migrants and receiving the second most migrants Asian migration has thus been of central concern to both academic researchers and policy communities This book together with its forthcoming second volume provides a full span discussion of Asian migration from historical perspectives to updated analyses of current migration flows and diasporas The book covers six sub regional areas through focused themes Northeast Asia Coping with Diversity in Japan and Korea East Asian Chinese Migration Taiwan Hong Kong and China Vietnamese Migration and Diaspora Cambodian Lao and Hmong Diaspora and Settlement Singapore New Immigrants and Return Migration South Asian Migration and Diaspora Academics as well as general readers will find this book useful for understanding the specific features of Asian migration and how these features have evolved since the latter part of the 20th century In providing an overall reassessment of Asian migration the book enhances academic discussion of Asian migration with crucial implications for migration related policy making in the region Vision ,1968 Regionalism and the Humanities Timothy R. Mahoney, Wendy J.

Katz,2008-12-01 Although the framework of regionalist studies may seem to be crumbling under the weight of increasing globalization this collection of seventeen essays makes clear that cultivating regionalism lies at the center of the humanist endeavor With interdisciplinary contributions from poets and fiction writers literary historians musicologists and historians of architecture agriculture and women this volume implements some of the most innovative and intriguing approaches to the history and value of regionalism as a category for investigation in the humanities In the volume s inaugural essay Annie Proulx discusses landscapes in American fiction comments on how she constructs characters and interprets current literary trends Edward Watts offers a theory of region that argues for comparisons of the United States to other former colonies of Great Britain including New Zealand Australia and Canada Whether considering a writer s connection to region or the idea of place in exploring what is meant by regionalism these essays uncover an enduring and evolving concept Although the approaches and disciplines vary all are framed within the fundamental premise of the humanities the search to understand what it means to be human Riding ,1959 Transnational Migration, Media and Identity of Asian Women Youna

Kim,2013-07-03 This book explores the unstudied nature of diaspora among young Korean Japanese and Chinese women living and studying in the West Why do women move What are the actual conditions of their transnational lives How do they make sense of their transnational lives through the experience of the media Are they becoming cosmopolitan subjects Exploring the key questions within their particular socio economic and cultural contexts this book analyzes the contradictions of cosmopolitan identity formation and challenges the general assumptions of cosmopolitanism It considers the highly visible fastest growing yet little studied phenomenon of women s transnational migration and the role of the media in everyday life offering detailed empirical data on the nature of the women s diaspora Drawing on a wide range of perspectives from media and communications sociology cultural studies and anthropology the book provides an empirically grounded and theoretically insightful investigation into this evolving phenomenon Moon Living Abroad in Beijing Shannon Aitken,2014-04-22 Shannon Aitken has all the insight on what it s like to live in Beijing she s made the move there herself In Moon Living
