A Critique of Creativity and Complexity Don Ambrose, Bharath Sriraman, Kathleen M. Pierce, 2014-11-04 In an increasingly complex world the natural human inclination is to oversimplify issues and problems to make them seem more comprehensible and less threatening This tendency usually generates forms of dogmatism that diminish our ability to think creatively and to develop worthy talents Fortunately complexity theory is giving us ways to make sense of intricate evolving phenomena This book represents a broad interdisciplinary application of complexity theory to a wide variety of phenomena in general education STEM education learner diversity and special education social emotional development organizational leadership urban planning and the history of philosophy The contributors provide nuanced analyses of the structures and dynamics of complex adaptive systems in these academic and professional fields How Dogmatic Beliefs Harm Creativity and Higher-Level Thinking Don Ambrose, Robert J. Sternberg, 2012-04-23 This volume introduces the problem of dogmatism broadly explores the nature and nuances of dogmatic thinking from various disciplinary perspectives and applies the gleaned insights to what is known about creativity and the education of creative young minds Creative Intelligence in the 21st Century Don Ambrose, Robert J. Sternberg, 2016-07-15 How can creative individuals and societies adapt to complex 21st century conditions Will civilizations thrive or collapse in the decades to come if they are not creative enough or if they are too creative Interest in these questions is growing however until now there has been inadequate understanding of the socioeconomic and cultural trends and issues that influence creativity This book provides that understanding while yielding insights from many of the world's leading creativity researchers and educational experts The book begins with a big picture interdisciplinary overview of the socioeconomic cultural and technological pressures emerging from 21st century globalization and describes some ways in which those pressures simultaneously suppress distort and invigorate creativity in general and creative education in particular After that prominent scholars of creativity and education use their impressive knowledge bases to clarify how we can adjust our thoughts and actions in order to give ourselves the best possible chances for success in this complex world The world's problems are complex messy and seemingly intractable but history tells us that human creativity finds solutions to even the most daunting problems This book collects perspectives on creative development from many of the most respected scholars and educators working in creativity and innovation today helping chart a path forward for creativity in the 21st century Jonathan Plucker Julian C Stanley Endowed Professor of Talent Development Johns Hopkins University A volume taking on macro opportunities and macroproblems by editors Ambrose and Sternberg is a treat for readers who want to think big and think forward Kick back for an imaginative journey that reaches back to early global insights but propels us solidly into the 21st century and beyond Ann Robinson Past President National Association for Gifted Children Educating the More Able Student Martin Stephen, Ian Warwick, 2015-03-05 An unprecedented collaboration between leading names from the independent and state sectors this thought provoking book addresses the current crisis in education for the most able Grounded in the classroom the authors draw on their own first hand experiences and international research to scrutinise techniques and practices from leading countries exploring the more divisive issues that have damaged teaching worldwide Demonstrating what works well in teaching the most able and also what does not work the book offers a radical solution a stimulus to thought and a way forward for teachers academics and all those with responsibility for ensuring high standards in education including governments and members of regulatory authorities The Palgrave Handbook of Transformational Giftedness for Education Robert J Sternberg, Don Ambrose, Sareh Karami, 2022-04-23 This handbook examines what education would look like if it prepared gifted students to transform the world to make it a better place for all not just for those who receive extra resources from schools in return for being labeled as gifted The editors explore how transformationally gifted people can seek to make the world a better and more just place they try to make a positive meaningful and possibly enduring contribution to changing things in the world that are not working They do not view giftedness merely as a transaction whereby in exchange for being labeled as gifted they accrue benefits to themselves such as a more prestigious education more income or residence in a more exclusive community The overarching aim of this book is to present conceptions of what identification and instruction of the gifted would look like if the focus of gifted education was transformational rather than transactional What if gifted education did not focus so much on acceleration vs enrichment or pull out versus in class integration but rather on how to be gifted in giving back in using one s gifts to create a better world Creative

Business Ethics 3.0 Erhard Meyer-Galow, 2018-05-22 The reputation of business managers is declining due to their disregard for moral decisions and ethical practices Business students are currently taught only technical knowledge without concern for being compassionately and holistic engaged However when entering the business sector these graduates encounter a world which necessitates difficult personally challenging decisions ones for which technical knowledge is insufficient Successful sustainable resolutions can only be expected to result from a holistic sustainable approach which accommodates the difficulty in balancing ethical practices with the demands for ever increasing profits This unique graduate textbook addresses the issue of business ethics from the perspective of an individual's internal growth facilitated by a consideration of the principles of depth psychology spiritual wisdom meditation and quantum physics written by a CEO with an enormous business background It not only promotes a new ethical approach but also addresses the implementation of this new approach in the most important business sectors as a replacement for previous ineffective codes of conduct which have failed It is a must read for business students with aspirations of becoming managers or entrepreneurs in the economic sector as well as for all young professionals managers and entrepreneurs to improve their ethical performance and sustainable success

Message from the author This book creates an impetus for change in a business world where unethical practices are rampant by providing a suggested New Integral Ethics for the economy an ethical approach based upon inner psychological and spiritual development arising from a serious consideration of Depth Psychology Readers will learn how adoption of specific Practices which lead to inner growth and spiritual maturity will result in ethical morally sound business practices not because they are mandated but because once the SELF is actualized you cannot do otherwise Laws appeals and directives which have never successfully resulted in ethical practices become unnecessary replaced by intrinsically ethical individuals who collectively influence corporate ethical behaviour This is a giant leap into a new dimension in our globalized digitized economy

Business Ethics 3.0 by Erhard Meyer Galow provides a much needed beacon of light to a segment of our society that seem to be sinking deeper and deeper into darkness The term business ethics once an important topic within the business community has slowly descended through the fog of profitable ends justifying unprincipled means to become nothing more than a self contradictory oxymoron especially among large international corporations In Business Ethics 3.0 Erhard Meyer Galow has taken a fresh approach that appeals to individual personal growth rather than the usual proffering of academic arguments that are not implementable in the real world of relentless Machiavellian competition Only through raising and improving individual awareness and responsibility can real long term change have a chance of developing at the 2018 Humanistic Management Book Awards Education during the Time of the Revolution in Egypt Nagwa Megahed, 2017-11-13 Since the 25th January 2011 revolution Egyptians experienced and engaged in a daily debate. Controversially some argued that the conflict and revolts in Egypt and the Arab region were neither coincidental nor the result of a domino effect of collective actions by oppressed people against autocratic regimes. Rather these revolts were the result of mobilization efforts made over decades by several activist groups as well as national and international non-governmental organizations. Contrary to this view others claim that despite the rapid economic growth of Egypt in the 2000s there was a wide gap in the distribution of wealth and economic return which left the majority of Egyptians suffering from poverty and high rate of unemployment especially among youth. Obviously while national and international economic and political dynamics dominated the daily debate education remains the forgotten arena amidst conflict. With the exacerbation of conflict between militant extremists and modern states in the region and most recently in many European countries it became more important than ever before to understand the dialectics of education in conflict in different local contexts starting in this book by the Egyptian context. The book focuses on education in Egypt during the time of the revolution as perceived by university students, youth activists, educational professionals, government officials and civil society organizations. Its chapters reveal the tension, contradiction and/or coherence among different players as related to their respective role in education for civic engagement, national identity, global citizenship, peace building, teacher professional development and women's and students empowerment. The book illustrates the dialectics of education in conflict by articulating diverse meanings and perspectives given by Egyptian stakeholders when describing their actions and realities during the time of the revolution and its aftermath.
