Libya. A love lived, a life betrayed Susan M. Sandover,2016-10-24 Reader I married him a Libyan career diplomat For over three decades we lived in Libya and his various postings world wide Libya A love lived a life betrayed follows the trajectory of Susan M Sandover who was lucky enough to have chosen an enlightened forward thinking Libyan career diplomat Bashir to spend her life with They supported each other through the traumas difficulties and frankly terrifying experiences associated with the Gaddafi regime of US and NATO bombings coups a revolution and a blasphemy case but also enjoyed years of good times together The resulting stories are partially his partially hers and partially theirs Sadly before he found the time or a safe place to write down his experiences in the Libyan diplomatic corps and to denounce the Gaddafi regime Bashir died In spite of his family s efforts to destroy their relationship and appropriate his land during his illness he made sure Susan had a safe place to live It was only when Susan was alone that she experienced the full force of Sharia inheritance law and its tenets as applied to widows she was entitled to one quarter of his property the balance going to his siblings hence the subtitle of the book 9 36 Susan s life was never dull with Bashir at times spine chilling but always filled with love and happiness Through all of these stories and many more Susan displays her vast insider knowledge on Libya s political social and cultural history together with details on the final year of the Gaddafi regime The remaining chapters comment on post revolutionary Libya and the missed opportunities for reconciliation

Maritime Exploration in the Age of Discovery, 1415-1800 Ronald S. Love,2006-09-30 Despite earlier naval expeditions undertaken for reasons of diplomacy or trade it wasn t until the early 1400s that European maritime explorers established sea routes through most of the globe's inhabited regions uniting a divided earth into a single system of navigation. From the early Portuguese and Spanish quests for gold and glory to later scientific explorations of land and culture, this new understanding of the world's geography created global trade, built empires, defined taste and alliances of power, and began the journey toward the cultural, political, and economic globalization in which we live today. Ronald Love's engaging narrative chapters guide the reader from Marco Polo's exploration of the Mongol empire to Ferdinand Magellan's circumnavigation of the globe, the search for a Northern Passage, Henry Hudson's voyage to Greenland, the discovery of Tahiti, the perils of scurvy, mutiny, and warring empires, and the eventual extension of Western influence into almost every corner of the globe. Biographies and primary documents round out the work.
