American Mining Congress, 2017-01-03 Excerpt from The Mining Congress Journal Vol 8 February 1922 There is however one bright spot in the monetary outlook Oi silver in that a mint is to be established at Shanghai which will have the effect of stabilizing Chinese money and should remove the variations which now exist in the many silver coins and tokens in circulation in China with this far reaching demonetization of silver and the apparently lessened demand for silver for coinage purposes the outlook for silver is most serious As the industrial demand for silver never will be so great as to be a decisive factor in its production the future prospect of the silver industry must depend upon creating an increased monetary demand The remonetization of subsidiary silver coinage being so remote a possibility it leaves but one alternative for increasing the monetary demand for the metal About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books
