Mission moves Malan Nel, 2021 This scholarly book is the final result of a team research project done by ten Practical Theologians from three denominations in the Reformed tradition in South Africa The authors posed the following research problem and question What would be the relationship if any between preaching and the liturgy of which it is a part and the development of missional congregations And secondly what kind of preaching and preacher would best serve even facilitate such a process of missional congregational development in preaching and worship Preaching Gospel Charles L. Campbell, Clayton J. Schmit, Mary Hinkle Shore, Jennifer Copeland, 2016-08-30 Teaching preaching like preaching itself is a noble endeavor After nearly four decades of teaching Richard Lischer has sent legions of preachers across the world to preach gospel This volume pays tribute to his faith filled life of preaching and teaching The contributors some of whom were taught by Lischer have received many laurels themselves so readers will find in these pages wisdom for preaching from many quarters Some authors include sermons with helpful commentary about the preaching exercise some offer essays to illuminate the task of sermon writing all acknowledge the influence of Richard Lischer on their preaching and teaching endeavors Preaching and the Mission of God David R. Fields, 2023-03-16 In an age divided and skeptical when the true Christian story is often unknown or deeply misunderstood how do we even begin to share the news of Jesus And how might preaching in a local church both equip God's people for their missional task and speak in a way that a weary world can hear and even rejoice in The answer begins with seeing the Bible as a document developed in a missionary context for a missionary purpose This book starts there It begins by examining the Bible as a document of mission that needs to be interpreted through a missional lens It then moves to offer a mission shaped vision for preaching and the needed tools for contextualizing the gospel in our post Christendom setting You'll find short accessible chapters with personal reflection questions as well as three group discussion sections ideal for either a classroom setting a preaching team in a local church or a preacher's guild Ascension Theology and Habakkuk Neal D. Presa, 2018-03-31 This book describes Reformed ecclesiology through the lived faith of the Filipino American Christian diaspora It proposes a contextual constructive ecclesiology by engaging with the Presbyterian Reformed theological tradition's understanding of the ascension of Jesus Christ with the Old Testament book of Habakkuk as a conversation partner Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World Sally A. Brown, 2020-04-07 What can preachers do to help congregants navigate everyday life with the courage imagination and savvy it takes to testify in action and word to God's mercy and justice Christianity's witness depends on credible Christian lives carried out in ordinary settings of everyday life Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World helps preachers design sermons that equip believers to act with improvisational creative courage in the ordinary settings of their Monday to Saturday lives How can we who preach inspire the ordinary prophets of our time those who in Christ's name will act in great or small ways as agents of redemptive interruption Sally A Brown with her extensive experience both in parish ministry and training others for ministry shares preaching strategies that equip these ordinary prophets to take daring action Brown begins by reconsidering the power and limits of the missional model of Christian witness and argues that Christian witness today must be adaptive and therefore imaginative and improvisational She then turns to the connection between the sermons our listeners hear on Sunday and their capacity to timely inventive action in everyday situations Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World will inspire both preachers and those who listen to them to move from sanctuary to street week after week eager to discern and participate in the ongoing redemptive work of God already under way amid the ordinary scenes and settings of their Monday to Saturday lives Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies, Volume 19, Number 1 Dave Johnson, 2017-09-13 THE JOURNAL SEEKS TO PROVIDE A FORUM To encourage serious theological thinking and articulation by Pentecostals Charismatics in Asia to promote interaction among Asian Pentecostals Charismatics and dialogue with other Christian traditions to stimulate creative contextualization of the Christian faith and to provide a means for Pentecostals Charismatics to share their theological reflections Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel Whole and Reconciled Al Tizon, 2018-10-16 The ministry of reconciliation is the new whole in holistic ministry It must be if the Christian mission is to remain relevant in our increasingly fractured world This book offers a fresh treatment of holistic ministry that takes the role of reconciliation seriously rethinking the meaning of the gospel the nature of the church and the practice of mission in light of globalization post Christendom and postcolonialism It also includes theological and practical resources for effectively engaging in evangelism compassion and justice and reconciliation ministries Includes a foreword by Ruth Padilla DeBorst and an

Reconciling Practice and Theology What does reconciliation have to do with the work of missions In today's conflict ridden world the concept of reconciliation has gained traction and Christian missions is being rethought The whole world cries out for holistic transformation with eternal value and God's people are called to be his ambassadors Ambassadors of Reconciliation lays the groundwork for exploring a new paradigm for missions Divided into three parts the book first establishes the theological foundations of reconciliation The second part then shows how theory and practice go hand in hand Finally the third part uses case studies to highlight the importance of understanding brokenness conflict and culture for effective ministry in reconciliation The contributors challenge readers to consider the church's role in God's mission and how every Christian can become an envoy of his restoration work They emphasize the spiritual dimension of reconciliation and offer practical guidance for effectively engaging in ministry Whether you are a missionary pastor or someone interested in promoting restoration in the world this book provides valuable insights and tools for your journey The Spiritual DNA of a Church on Mission Bob Burton, 2020-01-15 In Spiritual DNA of the Church On Mission author Bob Burton compares the missional foundation of the early church to human DNA Evangelical Pilgrims from the East Sunggu Yang, 2016-11-18 In this book Sunggu Yang proposes five socio ecclesial codes as unique faith fundamentals of Korean American Christianity Drawing from rigorous research and years of ecclesial experience Yang names the codes as follows the Wilderness Pilgrimage code the Diasporic Mission Code the Confucian Egalitarian code the Buddhist Shamanistic code and the Pentecostal Liberation code These five codes he asserts help Korean Americans sustain their lives culture faith and evangelical mission as aliens or pilgrims in the American wilderness Yang outlines how his five proposed codes serve as liberative and prophetic mechanisms of faith through which Korean Americans can contribute to racial harmony and cultural diversity in North America In this sense Korean American Christianity its theology and spirituality works not only on behalf of Korean Americans but also for the sake of all Americans Yang shows how the Korean American pulpit is the locus where these five codes appear most vividly The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson, 2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermon form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future

Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger Ronald J. Sider, 2015-07-28 In an age obsessed with wealth Christians seem to have forgotten that scripture encourages believers to give to the poor Why do 1.3 billion people live in abject poverty And what should Christians do about it Despite a dramatic reduction in world hunger 34,000 children still die daily of starvation and preventable disease and 1.3 billion people around the world remain in abject poverty Dr Ron Sider a professor of theology examines the issues of poverty and hunger in modern society While the Bible is full of instructions to care for the poor and warns against being seduced by riches it's been statistically proven that the richer countries become the less they give Finding that conservatives blame what they consider to be morally reprehensible individual choices and liberals blame what they believe to be constrictive social and economic policy Dr Sider finds himself agreeing with both sides First published in 1978 Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger has had an enormous impact on how believers and churches view questions of poverty and hunger Dr Sider's insights provide a compelling look at what it truly means to follow Christ This edition of Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger is Newly revised expanded and updated Listed as one of the 100 most influential books in religion in the 20th century A resource for Christians seeking to overcome poverty and change the economic structures of our world In this fresh look at an age old problem Dr Sider offers a detailed explanation of the causes of poverty and hunger as well as a comprehensive series of practical solutions for Christians who want to seriously pursue their faith and become better followers of Jesus Narrative, Calling, and Missional Identity in 1 Peter David Shaw, 2023-11-13 A story well told and subsequently imbibed by its recipients has the power to shape one's beliefs, identity and way of life. So what happens when a person or community is swept up in such a story? In this study, Shaw draws upon the dual methodologies of Narrative Transportation and Social Identity theories to consider how 1 Peter's use of Old Testament narratives and language serves to transport its recipients into an identity defined as elect sojourners. Amidst suffering, 1 Peter calls the Anatolian believers to a priestly ministry, blessing their antagonists as they await their eternal glory in Christ.

Pentecostal Preaching and Ministry in Multicultural and Post-Christian Canada Steven M. Studebaker, 2019-11-07 Over the past forty years, Canada has become an increasingly secular, multicultural and religiously plural society. Indeed, the church in Canada and Pentecostals in particular face a challenging context for responding to the call to bear witness to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost, however, we need the Holy Spirit to come upon us and liberate us from our post-Christian pessimism. We need the Holy Spirit to enable us to proclaim the gospel to the nations' people that are no longer at the ends of the earth but making their home in Canada. This book engages this new context and considers and proposes ways that Pentecostal Christians and churches can respond to the challenges of the increasingly post-Christian, multicultural, secular and religiously plural context of Canadian society.

Creating a Missional Culture JR Woodward, 2013-09-20 Missiologist and church planter JR Woodward offers a blueprint for the missional church: not small adjustments around the periphery of the infrastructure but a radical revisioning of how a church ought to look that entails changing how we think about leadership and what we expect out of discipleship.
