Gregory Wojtkowski, Jozse Zupancic, Duska Rosenberg, Wita Wojtkowski, Stanislaw Wrycza, John A.A. Sillince, 2012-12-06 This book is a result of the Tenth International Conference on Information Systems Development ISD2001 held at Royal Holloway University of London United Kingdom during September 5 7 2001 ISD 2001 carries on the fine tradition established by the first Polish Scandinavian Seminar on Current Trends in Information Systems Development Methodologies held in Gdansk Poland in 1988 Through the years this seminar evolved into an International Conference on Information Systems Development The Conference gives participants an opportunity to express ideas on the current state of the art in information systems development and to discuss and exchange views on new methods tools applications as well as theory In all 55 papers were presented at ISD2001 organised into twelve tracks covering the following themes Systems Analysis and Development Modelling Methodology Database Systems Collaborative Systems Theory Knowledge Management Project Management IS Education Management issues E Commerce and Technical Issues We would like to thank all the contributing authors for making this book possible and for their participation in ISD2001 We are grateful to our panel of paper reviewers for their help and support We would also like to express our sincere thanks to Ceri Bowyer and Steve Brown for their unfailing support with organising ISD2001 New Perspectives on Corporate Social Responsibility Linda O'Riordan, Piotr Zmuda, Stefan Heinemann, 2015-04-14 Providing a timely contribution to the ongoing questions surrounding topics which are by definition subject to varying stakeholder interpretations this book addresses the missing link between theoretical CSR concepts and everyday management practice It acts as a guide to awaken managers to the advantages of adopting a CSR mindset when developing sustainable business strategies The book consists of three parts 1 A theoretical realm which establishes the key concepts and rationale for the adoption of a sustainable CSR approach 2 A practical realm which addresses putting CSR and sustainability into business practice 3 An educational realm which proposes how to incorporate the concepts into teaching and training International Service Learning Robert G. Bringle, Julie A. Hatcher, Steven G. Jones, 2023-07-03 International Service Learning ISL borrows from the domains of service learning study abroad and international education to create a new pedagogy that adds new and unique value from this combination It is a high impact pedagogy with the potential to improve students academic attainment contribute to their personal growth and develop global civic outcomes The international service experience provides opportunities for additional learning goals activities and relationships that are not available in a domestic service learning course or in a traditional study abroad course The service experience develops reflection while shedding light on and providing an added dimension to the curricular component of the study abroad course The international education component further broadens students perspectives by providing opportunities to compare and contrast North American and international perspectives on course content This book focuses on conducting research on ISL which includes developing and evaluating hypotheses about ISL outcomes and measuring its impact on students faculty and communities The book argues that rigorous research is essential to improving the quality of ISL s implementation and delivery and providing the evidence that will lead to wider support and adoption by the academy funders and partners It is intended for both practitioners and scholars providing guidance and commentary on good practice The volume provides a pioneering analysis of and understanding of why and under what conditions ISL is an effective pedagogy Individual chapters discuss conceptual frameworks research design issues and measurement strategies related to student learning outcomes the importance of ISL course and program design the need for faculty development activities to familiarize faculty with the component pedagogical strategies the need for resources and collaboration across campus units to develop institutional capacity for ISL and the role that community constituencies should assume as co creators of the curriculum co educators in the delivery of the curriculum and co investigators in the evaluation of and study of ISL The contributors demonstrate sensitivity to ethical implications of ISL to issues of power and privilege to the integrity of partnerships to reflection reciprocity and community benefits New Perspectives in Service-Learning Marshall Welch, Shelley H. Billig, 2000-09-05 This installment in the book series Advances in Service Learning Research edited by Shelley H Billig and Marshall Welch focuses on New Perspectives in Service Learning Intercultural Horizons Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2013-10-28 This volume features a collection of papers from the first annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in May 2011 in Siena Italy The 2011 conference was entitled Best Practices in Intercultural Competence Development and featured speakers and participants from over 15 countries including leaders in the field such as Janet Bennett of the Intercultural Communication Institute Alvino Fantini of the School for International Training Andrew Furco of the University of Minnesota and Carol Ma of the Center for Service Learning at Lingnan University Hong Kong The authors of these papers provide perspectives on intercultural communication and related issues from viewpoints as varied as the traditional researcher the teacher in fields as diverse as second language acquisition music and the culinary arts and the administrator of a specific program or at the senior level of a college or university Together they form a representative sample of the themes discussed during the 2011 conference The editors consider this first meeting to be the dawn so to speak of Intercultural Horizons which aspires to become a respected venue for scholars and practitioners to exchange ideas techniques and pedagogies on intercultural communication in years to come Intercultural Horizons Volume II Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2014-07-08 This volume features a collection of papers from the second annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in October 2012 in New York City USA The 2012 conference was the second in what is becoming an annual series of meetings and the present volume therefore is a companion to one issued last year by Cambridge Scholars Publishing Intercultural Horizons Best Practices in Intercultural Competence Development 2012 The papers included in this volume reflect a diversity of approaches both to intercultural education in the North American setting and to its application in service learning and related contexts in diverse cultural settings in other nations Our authors provide faculty and student perspectives primarily from the level of postsecondary education but including a look as well at intercultural education at the primary level Many of the papers focus in one way or another on issues of curriculum teaching and learning in relation to developing intercultural competence in students in North American colleges and universities particularly though not exclusively through the use of service learning All of the papers touch in one way or another on another important development now affecting almost all institutions of higher education in North America and increasingly in other nations worldwide that of the university's engagement with the community During the past thirty years such engagement has moved from the periphery to the core of many North American colleges and universities Similar efforts are now emerging among many Asian universities and in Europe as well The paper in this volume on the Polisocial initiative at the Politecnico di Milano in Italy is a good example of how the theme of university community engagement is taking hold in a city and nation facing similar intercultural and economic challenges to those in North America and serves as a preview of themes the International Center for Intercultural Exchange hopes to explore in its future conferences www.ticfie.com

Transforming Entrepreneurship Education Jantje Halberstadt, Antonieta Alcorta de Bronstein, Jean Greyling, Shaun Bissett, 2022-12-14 This open access book provides selected teaching approaches supporting methods concrete examples of curricula as well as extracurricular teaching formats which are predominantly tailored to both African and German requirements These approaches were developed by the YEEES Training and Research Centers an international interdisciplinary network of university teachers and researchers from Germany and southern Africa and combine the fields of management entrepreneurship information and communication technologies ICT and sustainability The book shows how current scientific results can be integrated into teaching how students can contribute to research while learning and how research can contribute to the development and evaluation of new formats It is thus relevant for university teachers researchers students as well as practitioners who want to educate and act as future change agents Engaging Higher Education Marshall Welch, 2023-07-03 Co published with For directors of campus centers that have received the Carnegie Classification for Community Engagement this book offers research and models to further advance their work For directors starting out or preparing for application for the Carnegie Classification it provides guidance on setting up and structuring centers as well as practical insights into the process of application and the criteria they will need to meet Building on the findings of the research undertaken by the author and John Saltmarsh on the infrastructure of campus centers for engagement that have received the Carnegie Classification for Community this book responds to the expressed needs of the participating center directors for models and practices they could share and use with faculty and mid level and upper level administrators to more fully embed engagement into institutional culture and practice This book is organized around the purpose the why platforms the how and programs the what that drive and frame community engagement in higher education offering practitioners valuable information on trends of current practice based on Carnegie Classification criteria It will also serve the needs of graduate students aspiring to become the future professoriate as engaged scholars or considering preparation for new administrative positions being created at centers Exploring Cultural Dynamics and Tensions Within Service-Learning Trae Stewart, Nicole Webster, 2011-09-01 Service learning is an exciting pedagogy and field of study offering insight into how academic study and community engagement blend to create social change In its most traditional conceptualization servicelearning activities typically manifest within communities where outside individuals address a need Service learning is purported to have a transforming effect on individual student perspectives by providing students the opportunity to interact with people and enter into situations that allow students to test their predisposition towards others However the literature on the impact of service learning on participants acceptance of diversity and development of open mindedness reports mixed outcomes The purpose of this book is to explore cultural tensions and dynamics within the field of service learning It is not meant to be an exhaustive review of the interplay between culture and service learning but rather a starting point for an ongoing conversation about how this complex topic impacts the field In 18 chapters educators students and administrators investigate the cultural values of service learning itself and the tensions created when this is at odds with the values of others within K 12 and higher education in the United States and abroad Authors include community organization representatives researchers directors of offices of community engagement university administrators junior and senior faculty and former service learning undergraduate students Submissions reflect a range of genres including theoretical conceptual pieces position papers case studies and other traditional academic essays challenging how students and community members are affected by the cultural tensions within service learning engagement Young Citizens of the World Marilynne Boyle-Baise, Jack Zevin, 2013-12-04 Young Citizens of the World takes a clear stance Social studies is about citizenship education that is informed deliberative and activist citizenship not only as a noun something one studies but as a verb something one DOES Its holistic multicultural approach is based on this clear curricular and pedagogical purpose

Straightforward engaging and highly interactive the book encourages students and their teachers to become informed think it through and take action Each chapter is written as a civic engagement which is teacher ready for use in elementary classrooms A set of six teaching strategies that are constructive inquiry driven dramatic and deliberative bring the curricular framework to life through intensive integrated meaningful studies of special places important people and significant times Readers are invited to rehearse the projects in their social studies education courses and then to reinterpret them for their classrooms The projects are supported by important resources for teaching including supportive children s literature links to internet sites and visual sources and by a Companion Website that enhances and extends the text United States

Community Engagement Teaching Practices Management Association, Information Resources,2021-12-30 The need for more empathetic and community focused students must begin with educators as service learning has begun to grow in popularity throughout the years By implementing service and community aspects into the classroom at an early age educators have a greater chance of influencing students and creating a new generation of service minded individuals who care about their communities Teachers must have the necessary skills and current information available to them to provide students with quality service learning and community engagement curricula The Research Anthology on Service Learning and Community Engagement Teaching Practices provides a thorough investigation of the current trends best practices and challenges of teaching practices for service learning and community engagement Using innovative research it outlines the struggles frameworks and recommendations necessary for educators to engage students and provide them with a comprehensive education in service learning Covering topics such as lesson planning teacher education and cultural humility it is a crucial reference for educators administrators universities lesson planners researchers academicians and students

Service-learning Alan S. Waterman, 2014-03-18 Linking research and educational practice for the benefit of both is not a new idea If practice such as service learning is a bold departure from the status quo however research is not just beneficial it is critical If schools are to become laboratories of democracy and entrepreneurship and if students are to become engaged as partners in renewal of their communities a research case must be made for service learning Does learning take place Will other kinds of learning suffer What kinds of practice are most effective Clearly solid research is essential if this transforming way of teaching and learning is to be fully integrated into American schooling and youth development institutions The National Youth Leadership Council NYLC took a first step toward joining service learning practice with research in 1983 In 1991 NYLC created a center which initiated and encouraged program evaluation formative research that informs and improves practice and summative studies that measure results This volume grew out of a National Service Learning Conference an annual event convened by the NYLC A day long research seminar at the conference brought together researchers to discuss the latest developments among themselves and with practitioners Impressive in their range and rigor their papers offer documentation and analysis useful to an emerging research knowledge base It is a starting point for the evidence needed to firmly establish service learning for K 12 age people as a widely accepted way of teaching and learning

Intercultural Service Learning Petra Rauschert, Jacqueline Alexander, 2025-05-13 This book provides a much needed overview of the theory and practice of intercultural service learning ISL an approach that combines curricular learning intercultural encounters and community service It includes a model that outlines the essential components of this pedagogy and which is intended to serve as a foundation for practitioners developing their projects Practical examples offer templates and inspiration while the scholarly examination of the projects demonstrates the approach s potential The book concludes with considerations on how to assess intercultural and democratic competences in ISL projects and practical implementation guidelines Suitable for both in service foreign language educators at all levels and for use in teacher training the book provides a practical guide to a holistic pedagogy that is increasingly being used by educators keen to engage their students in an ever more interconnected world

Service-Learning Paradigms Kenneth Colburn, Jr., Rona Newmark, 2007-07 The papers in this volume have been selected primarily from the presentations at the International Symposium on Service Learning cosponsored by Stellenbosch University in South Africa and the University of Indianapolis in the United States It aims to explore service learning paradigms for the 21st century New Paradigms for Theory Research and Curriculum Development New Paradigms for Teaching and Learning and Paradigms for Intercommunity and Interdisciplinary Collaboration This volume provides clear evidence that the paradigm of service learning has gone global and international Service learning has become the new coin of the academic and civic realm for issues of connecting teaching scholarship and community services
