The Newswriter's Handbook Meyer L. Stein, Susan Paterno, 1998 A guide for reporters in training showing how to recognize a story for what its worth gather the necessary information and tell it as it should be told The book offers advice on developing news judgement writing accurately and fairly organizing a story and handling ethics in journalism Near East: a Modern History M L Stein, Yale William, Susan F Paterno, 1989 Essentials Of Practical Journalism Vir Bala Aggarwal, 2006 MediaWriting W. Richard Whitaker, Ronald D. Smith, Janet E. Ramsey, 2013-03-01 MediaWriting is an introductory hands on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print broadcast and public relations MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting Complete with real world examples practical writing exercises and tips and information for entering into the profession MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists and public relations professionals Further updates and features include Increased attention to computer assisted reporting the preparation of online copy and social media applications Two new chapters on lead writing and new new media A separate chapter focused solely on ethics Explanatory how to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes Illustrative It Happened to Me vignettes from the authors professional experiences Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every chapter Suggested readings that highlight biographies books and websites that expand the scope and definition of professionalism In addition to new multimedia elements the fourth edition's companion website features enhanced resources for both students and instructors including chapter overviews writing tips a test bank sample critiques and a sample syllabus Journalism Julie A. Evans, 2012-01-15 In the Craft of Writing series aspiring writers will discover that like carpentry computer programming or calculus but often infinitely more fun writing is a craft that anyone can learn Talent helps but persistence and following some basic rules of the trade are crucial from fiction to journalism with playwriting screenwriting and poetry in between readers will learn about the history of the art form as well as getting practical tips on how to go about writing and selling their work Each book has a chapter full of exercises for the aspiring writer and all of the books in this series are written by professionals in the field Environment Reporters in the 21st Century JoAnn Myer Valenti, 2017-07-28 Environment Reporters in the 21st Century is the story of a relatively new journalistic beat environmental reporting This book explores the development of the environmental beat as a specialty during the last thirty years It also discusses broader trends within American journalism resulting from technological changes that challenge traditional mediums especially newspapers and magazines The book is divided into three parts The first reviews the literature and explains the methodology The second describes the results of the authors research The third provides in depth accounts of environment reporters at work A final chapter puts the research in historical perspective viewing it in terms of the economic decline of the newspaper business and of local television news Journalists mediate a constant struggle among thousands of environmental activists corporate public relations people government officials and scientists to shape environmental reporting This volume tells the story of environmental reporting imaginatively and innovatively Covering Your Campus Matt Nesvisky, 2008 Newsrooms and campus newsrooms are no exception are chaotic fast paced and lively That's why we love them But reporting news is an important business and everyone involved in that business needs some guidance and structure Covering Your Campus provides the advice rules guidelines and encouragement that every campus newspaper staff needs without talking down to students or telling them what to do The reporters and editors of campus newspapers aren't yet professional journalists but courts have determined that student journalists share the rights and responsibilities of professionals just as much as campus newspapers are genuine community publications Laying down the foundation for a healthy publication Covering Your Campus further helps guide students toward making their newspapers and websites even more indispensable to their campus community life Its aim which it shares with the student journalists it addresses is to make the news opinions and entertainment offered in student publications reliable and highly esteemed

The Hidden Debate Akil Kokayi Khalfani, 2005-10-28 The Hidden Debate is a fresh and cutting edge comparative analysis of the ongoing and highly charged social conflict over affirmative action in South Africa and the United States The debate over affirmative action has raged for over 30 years in the United States and since the early 1990s in South Africa with minimal agreement or resolution In part this discord remains because scholars journalists politicians and other social analysts have failed to properly specify and examine the problem Game On Susan F. Paterno, 2021-06-15 Director of the Chapman journalism program and mother of four recent college grads Susan F Paterno leads you through the admissions process to help you and your family make the best decision possible How is it possible that Harvard is more affordable for most American families than their local state university Or that up to half of eligible students receive no financial aid Or that public universities are rejecting homegrown middle and working class applicants and instead enrolling wealthy out of state students College admission has escalated into a high stakes game of emotional and financial survival How is the deck stacked against you And what can you do about it Susan F Paterno a veteran academic and journalist answers these questions and more in Game On Paterno helped her four very different kids navigate the application process to a wide range of colleges paying for their four year educations on a finite budget She incisively decodes the college admission industry the consultants the tutors the rankers the branding companies hawking advantage and arms you with the knowledge you need to make the system work for you You'll learn how to narrow your focus analyze who gets in and why and look for the right financial fit before considering anything else including geography reputation and especially ranking Among the tools and insights in Game On Why forty years of failed free market policies have led to skyrocketing tuition and historic levels of student debt

Why applying to college has become a bewildering maze and how to find your way to a successful result Why college costs are more terrifying than you think How to read beyond the rack rate to negotiate the best financial package with the least debt Why merit is a myth but merit aid is essential The difference between family debt and student debt and how to split it A playbook for the Hunger Games of higher education Game On explains the anxiety uncertainty and chaos in college admission explodes the myth of meritocracy exposes the academy's connection to America's widening gap between rich and poor and provides strategies to beat and reform a broken system Editing - Sub-editing, Radio, TV Programming Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-11-23 Techniques in content editing for print radio and TV with focus on precision and audience engagement

Javnost, 2005 Journalism Workbook Brendan Hennessy, F W Hodgson, 1995-05-04 Using practical assignments the authors take each area of journalism and demonstrate the world which awaits journalists in the early years of their careers Each of the assignments spins off a number of tasks which are presented to the reader in the form of briefings and can be used as a basis for further study Notes and references are provided with each of the tasks to guide the student and help them understand fully each area of practice There are also exercises on page planning and design Workshop projects and study programmes outline ways in which students and trainees in groups or singly can analyse newspaper content build up readership profiles and consider different methods of practice social and political attitudes to the media press regulations and press economics This book will also be an invaluable purchase for students using distance learning packs
