The Relaxed Mind Dza Kilung Rinpoche, 2015-11-10 An esteemed modern Tibetan Buddhist teacher presents a system of meditation instructions designed for achieving relaxation in our stressful fast paced world In the late 1990s shortly after arriving in the United States it became clear to Dza Kilung Rinpoche that his Western students responded to traditional meditation instructions differently from his students back in Asia The Westerners didn't know how to relax and their pressured fast paced lifestyles carried over into meditation With this in mind Dza Kilung Rinpoche set out to create a meditation system that could break through the noise of Western life The Relaxed Mind contains instructions for the seven phase practice that he developed for students in the West It is adapted from traditional instructions to counteract the overwhelming distraction that is becoming a global culture these days not only in the West Beginners will find a wealth of useful easy to understand information while more experienced meditators may be surprised to find their practice deepening through letting go of tension

Sacred Rhetoric David M. Barbee, Brent C. Sleasman, 2024-03-06 There have always been historical and philosophical connections between the study of religion and rhetoric and yet the phrase sacred rhetoric is rarely found within scholarly conferences presentations and publications The editors of this collection intend to fill this void by presenting a collection of essays which define in the broadest terms possible sacred rhetoric as necessary discourse of on religion The contributors represent multiple perspectives and disparate academic fields such as philosophy biblical studies rhetoric and communication and each essay is united by a common concern for public discourse that examines the intersection between religion rhetoric culture and identity Collectively these essays dissect the manner in which religious actors or religious themes inform various layers of cultural discourse The goal is to foster discussion based upon a greater awareness of the issues at stake and contribute to ongoing discourse about identity and meaning
