Parting Ways New Rituals And Celebrations Of Lifes Passing:

Parting Ways Denise Carson, 2011-04-10 Parting Ways explores the emergence of new end of life rituals in America that celebrate the dying and reinvent the roles of family and community at the deathbed Denise Carson contrasts her father's passing in the 1980s governed by the structures of institutionalized death with her mother's death some two decades later Carson's moving account of her mother's dying at home vividly portrays a ceremonial farewell known as a living wake showing how it closed the gap between social and biological death while opening the door for family and friends to reminisce with her mother Carson also investigates a variety of solutions living funerals oral ethical wills and home funerals that revise the impending death scenario Integrating the profoundly personal with the objectively historical Parting Ways calls for an end of life revolution to change the way of death in America

Parting Ways Denise Carson, 2011-04-10 Carson explores in captivating detail the new alternatives to traditional institutionalized dying mourning and memorialization She deftly paints a vivid portrait of her own experiences and successfully ties in conceptual research on newer death rituals This book is truly unique and timely Tony Bell Professor Emeritus at California State University Fullerton Department of Sociology Parting Ways provides a fresh and contemporary perspective on American death rituals Carson expertly weaves her personal narrative around existing research and in the process she delivers an important analysis on ritual and death that is poignant and widely accessible Justin Holcomb Reformed Theological Seminary

Piikuni William Big Bull, 2018-09-26 I wish to pay homage to our people who have suffered through hardship and strife in a land of plenty I have fortunately been exposed to our history and recent historic events that need to be put down on paper or they will be lost I will qualify this statement by writing this book as a first hand observer and participant as a niitsitapiikowan The many hours of quality time spent in the natural environment and travelling down the roads with our senior experts of niitsitapyapii the Real ways has given me a rare privilege to be schooled and ultimately corrected on thinking I believed I knew something about Through our relatives history has tied us to significant events that have shaped our present political and social way of life as a people I come from a unique history and background in an era of time that experienced the most significant changes in the America s by sitting down and capturing my thoughts it will lead the reader into a connection with my ancestors and help to explain how events and circumstances have changed our way of life as a people

Sacred Plant Initiations Carole Guyett, 2015-03-16 A practical guide to connecting with plants through ceremony Explains how to commune with plants and their spirits through the traditional shamanic method of plant dieting to receive their teachings and guidance Details 8 ceremonial plant initiations centered on common easily recognized plants and trees such as primrose dandelion oak and dog rose Provides instructions to develop your own sacred plant initiations and make ceremonial plant elixirs Includes four audio journeys to facilitate plant initiations In this guide to sacred plant initiations medical herbalist and shamanic practitioner Carole Guyett explains how to commune with plants and their spirits through the traditional shamanic method of plant dieting A plant diet involves ingesting a particular plant over a period of time so you regularly receive the plant s vibratory energy as well as its medicinal actions Adding a ceremonial element to plant dieting offers a sacred initiation by the plant world allowing you to connect deeply with all aspects of a plant receive its sacred teachings and forge a relationship for guidance and healing benefitting both yourself and others Each of the eight ceremonial plant initiations detailed in the book was personally developed by the author through extensive work with her ceremonial groups. They each center on an easily recognized plant or tree such as primrose, dandelion, oak, and dog rose. These common plants have powerful teachings and healing guidance to share with those who communicate with and honor them. The initiations for both individuals and groups work with the Wheel of the Year, honoring each plant's sacred timing and connecting with one of the eight Celtic and Pre-Celtic Fire Festivals, the solstices, equinoxes, and the holy days of Beltane, Lughnasadh, Samhain, and Imbolc. Offering practical instructions so you can develop your own sacred plant initiations, the author also includes access to 4 audio journeys to facilitate the initiations in the book. She also explains how to make plant elixirs for use in plant diets and for healing. She shows how connecting with plants allows us to deepen our relationship with Nature, access higher levels of consciousness and spiritual realms, and facilitate the full flowering of human potential.

The Circle of Life James David Audlin, 2012-02-22 THE CIRCLE OF LIFE presents traditional oral Native American sacred teachings from the Iroquois, Lakota, and other traditions. The author has been receiving these teachings from elders since his youth. The wisdom embraces cosmology, ethics, epistemology, metaphysics, sociology, psychology, healing, dream interpretation, and more. Audlin calls himself neither a spiritual teacher nor an authority but a conduit through which these oral traditions can be presented meaningfully to people in a modern world. He outlines universal principles common to many traditional peoples worldwide. The Red Road is available to all regardless of religion or ethnicity willing to follow its paths. These paths, however, are often not easy and require deep personal and spiritual commitment. Audlin says in his introduction: "If this book serves any purpose, let it be to help us bring the Sacred Hoop of All the Nations back together again so we and all that lives may stand as one in silent awe before that Great Mystery."

Identity and Ritual in a Japanese Diving Village D. P. Martinez, 2004-04-30 Through her detailed description of a particular place, Kuzaki-cho, at a particular moment in time, the 1980s, D. P. Martinez addresses a variety of issues currently at the fore in the anthropology of Japan: the construction of identity both for a place and its people; the importance of ritual in a country that describes itself as nonreligious; and the relationship between men and women in a society where gender divisions are still very much in place. Kuzaki is, for the anthropologist, both a microcosm of modernity and an attempt to bring the past into the present. But it must also be understood as a place all of its own. In the 1980s, it was one of the few villages where female divers, ama, still collected abalone and other shellfish, and where some of its inhabitants continued to make a living as fishermen. Kuzaki was also a kambe, or sacred guild, of Ise Shrine, the most important Shinto shrine in modern Japan, home to Amaterasu, the sun goddess. Kuzaki's rituals affirmed a national identity in an era when attitudes to modernity and Japaneseness were being challenged by globalization. Martinez enhances her fascinating ethnographic description of a single diving village with a critique of the way in which the anthropology of Japan has developed. The result is a sophisticated investigation by a senior scholar of Japanese studies that, while firmly grounded in empirical data, calls on anthropological theory to construct another means of understanding Japan, both as a society in which the collective is important and as a place where individual ambitions and desires can be expressed Bihar B.ed Combined Entrance Test CET 2022 Arihant Experts,2021-11-26

Care, Loss and the End of Life, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 This inter and multi disciplinary volume examines various experiences of loss whether we encounter it in the form of lost loved ones lost relationships lost opportunities or the loss of capabilities as we age Loss is something we can experience personally as part of a family and as part of a community whose collective experiences of loss occasions more public displays of commemoration We are constantly challenged to find ways of coping and surviving in the face of different types of loss Due in part to the complexities of the concept itself and the resistance many individuals feel toward discussing painful subjects it is often difficult to engage in the sort of robust inter disciplinary dialogue that is needed to explore fully the links between living suffering dying and surviving loss Thus this volume is profoundly interdisciplinary as it explores how loss can be expressed through cognitive affective somatic behavioral interpersonal and spiritual grief responses
