Modern Hatreds The Symbolic Politics Of Ethnic War

Kevin T. Leicht, J. Craig Jenkins

Modern Hatreds The Symbolic Politics Of Ethnic War:

Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman, 2001-05-31 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses Nationalist Passions Stuart J.

Kaufman, 2015-11-06 Nationalist and ethnic conflict can take many forms from genocidal violence and civil war to protest movements and peaceful squabbles in democracies Nationalist Passions poses a stark challenge to extreme rationalist understandings of political conflict Stuart J Kaufman elaborates a compelling theory of ethnic politics to explain why ethnic violence erupts in some contexts and how peace is maintained in others At the core of Kaufman s theory is an assertion that conflicts are initiated due to popular symbolic predispositions biases of all kinds and perceptions of threat Kaufman puts his theory to the test in a range of conflicts He examines some highly violent episodes among them the Muslim rebellion in the southern Philippines beginning in the 1970s the civil war in southern Sudan that began in the 1980s and the Rwanda genocide of 1994 Kaufman also analyzes other situations in which leaders attempted to tame the violence that nationalist passions can generate In India Mahatma Gandhi mobilized an overtly nonviolent movement but failed in his efforts to prevent the rise of Muslim Hindu communal violence In South Africa Nelson Mandela and F W de Klerk ended apartheid but not without terrible cost more than fifteen thousand people died while the negotiations were under way In Tanzania however Julius Nyerere led one of the few ethnically diverse countries in the world with almost no ethnic violence Nationalist Passions is essential reading for policymakers international aid workers and all others who seek to find the best possible outcomes for future internal and interstate clashes

Theories of Violent Conflict Jolle Demmers,2012-07-26 This textbook introduces students of violent conflict to a variety of prominent theoretical approaches and examines the ontological stances and epistemological traditions underlying these approaches Theories of Violent Conflict takes the centrality of the group as an actor in contemporary conflict as a point of departure leaving us with three main questions What makes a group Why and how does a group resort to violence Why and how do or don t they stop The book examines and compares the ways by which these questions are addressed from a number of perspectives constructivism social identity theory structuralism political economy human needs theory relative deprivation theory collective action theory and rational choice theory The final chapter aims to synthesise structure and agency based theories by proposing a critical discourse analysis of violent conflict This book will be essential reading for students of war and conflict studies peace studies conflict analysis and conflict resolution and ethnic conflict as well as security studies and IR in general

Neo-Ottomanism and the Politics of Emotions in Turkey Nagehan Tokdoğan,2024-06-17 This open access book explores the politics of emotions under the ruling Justice and Development Party in Turkey and the leadership of President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan It examines how emotional politics and particularly the use of a Neo Ottomanist narrative created a new national mood and contributed to the durability of Erdoğan's rule The author analyses the interactions between national narratives symbolic politics and emotions She argues that these interactions have formed the basis of Erdoğan's popular support for more than 20 years The book is a valuable resource for scholars of political science and sociology as well as policymakers interested in the rise of authoritarianism in Turkey

Your Country, Our War Katherine A. Brown,2019-02-01 Based on extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan and eight years of interviews this book reviews the dynamics between Afghan and U S journalists and the global diplomatic power of the American press within the context of the post 9 11 era

Introducing Comparative Politics Stephen Orvis,Carol Ann Drogus,2017-01-19 Organized thematically around important questions in comparative politics Introducing Comparative Politics Fourth Edition by Stephen Orvis and Carol Ann Drogus integrates a set of extended case studies of 11 core countries into the narrative Serving as touchstones the cases are set in chapters where they make the most sense topically not separated from theory or in a separate volume and vividly illustrate issues in cross national context The book s organization allows instructors flexibility and gives students a more accurate sense of comparative study In this edition a brand new chapter on Contentious Politics covers ethnic fragmentation social movements civil war revolutions and political violence New case studies on this topic include the Occupy and Tea Party movements in the US Zapatista rebellion in Mexico Boko Haram in Nigeria and and revolutions in China and Iran The chapter on States and Identity has been substantially revised to better introduce students to the concept of identity and how countries handle identity based demands Case studies include nationalism in Germany ethnicity in Nigeria religion in India race in the US gender in Iran and sexual orientation in Brazil Content on states and markets political economy globalization and development has all been consolidated into a new Part III of the book focusing in a sustained way on economic issues

Religion and Politics in South Asia Ali Riaz,2010-02-26

Religion and religio political forces have become potent influences in the domestic politics of many countries irrespective of geographical location stages of economic growth and systems of governance The growing importance of religion as a marker of identity and a tool of political mobilization is reshaping the political landscape in an unprecedented manner and South Asia which contains the world s largest populations of Muslims and Hindus with significant number of Buddhists is no exception to this fact This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the interaction of religion and politics in Afghanistan Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka Although the specific circumstances of each country are different in recent decades religion religio political parties and religious rhetoric have become dominant features of the political scenes in all six countries The contributors offer a thorough examination of these developments by presenting each country s political system and the socio economic environment within which the interactions are taking place The analysis of the various factors influencing the process of the interactions between religion and politics and their impact on the lives of the people of the region and global politics constitute the core of the chapters

Conflict Management and Resolution in South Sudan Nelson

Alusala,Emmaculate Asige Liaga,Martin Revai Rupiya,2023-08-08 This book analyses the main events and turning points in the building of pre and post independent South Sudan It covers the historical perspectives of the country its key political mediation and negotiation processes peace and security socio economic development and gender as well as conflict and reconstruction Many African states are products of compromised peace settlements and power sharing agreements following violent and protracted conflicts between colonial occupying powers armed groups and nation states This is the same route that Africa s youngest nation South Sudan traversed before attaining independence in July 2011 This edited volume is an innovative collection that serves as a complete reading on South Sudan from the pre independent to post independent realities of the political military and inter ethnic conflicts and the negotiations to resolve them It is a step by step account of the major events that mark the history as well as the contemporary occurrences in South Sudan The book offers guidance on how to sustainably end armed conflict in Africa by tackling four broad themes that include the historical analysis of the conflict political issues peace and security and gender justice and contemporary dynamics The book presents a gendered approach to arguments while also reflecting gender equity in terms of the book authorship Academics researchers and specialists in the field of conflict management and resolution as well as security studies will find this book useful

Indivisible Territory and the Politics of Legitimacy Stacie E. Goddard, 2010 This book challenges the conventional wisdom that territorial conflicts in Jerusalem and Northern Ireland were inevitable Stacie Goddard's research shows that it was radical political rhetoric and not ancient hatreds that rendered these territories indivisible preventing negotiation and compromise and leading to violence and war

States, Scarcity, and Civil Strife in the Developing World Colin H. Kahl, 2018-06-05 Over the past several decades civil and ethnic wars have undermined prospects for economic and political development destabilized entire regions of the globe and left millions dead States Scarcity and Civil Strife in the Developing World argues that demographic and environmental stress the interactions among rapid population growth environmental degradation inequality and emerging scarcities of vital natural resources represents one important source of turmoil in today's world Kahl contends that this type of stress places enormous strains on both societies and governments in poor countries increasing their vulnerability to armed conflict He identifies two pathways whereby this process unfolds state failure and state exploitation State failure conflicts occur when population growth environmental degradation and resource inequality weaken the capacity legitimacy and cohesion of governments thereby expanding the opportunities and incentives for rebellion and intergroup violence State exploitation conflicts in contrast occur when political leaders themselves capitalize on the opportunities arising from population pressures natural resource scarcities and related social grievances to instigate violence that serves their parochial interests Drawing on a wide array of social science theory this book argues that demographically and environmentally induced conflicts are most likely to occur in countries that are deeply split along ethnic religious regional or class lines and which have highly exclusive and discriminatory political systems The empirical portion of the book evaluates the theoretical argument through in depth case studies of civil strife in the Philippines Kenya and numerous other countries The book concludes with an analysis of the challenges demographic and environmental change will pose to international security in the decades ahead Extreme Politics Charles King,2010-01-14

In this wide ranging set of essays Charles King examines the conceptual intersection of nationalist ideology social violence and the political transformation of Europe and Eurasia over the last two decades Extreme Politics charts the end of Eastern Europe as a place and chronicles the ongoing revolution in the scholarly study of Russia the Balkans and the wider postcommunist world Memory Politics, Identity and Conflict Zheng Wang,2017-10-10 This book focuses on the methodology of research on historical memory and contributes to theoretical discussions concerning the use of historical memory as a variable to explain political action and social movement The chapters of the book conceptualize the relationship between historical memory and national identity formation perceptions and policy making The author particularly analyses how contested memory and the related social discourse can lead to nationalism and international conflict Based on theories and research from multiple fields of studies this book proposes a series of analytic frameworks for the purpose of conceptualizing the functions of historical memory These analytic frameworks can help categorize measure and subsequently demonstrate the effects of historical memory This book also discusses how to use public opinion polls textbooks important texts and documents monuments and memory sites for conducting research to examine the functions of historical memory

Regime Transition in Central Asia Dagikhudo Dagiev,2013-10-30 Presenting a study of regime transition political transformation and the challenges that faced the post Communist republics of Central Asia on independence this book focuses on the process of transition in Tajikistan and Uzbekistan and the obstacles that these newly independent states are facing in the post Communist period The book analyses how in the early stages of their independence the governments of Central Asia declared that they would build democratic states but that in practice they demonstrated that they are more inclined towards authoritarianism With the declaration of independence Tajikistan and Uzbekistan like many other former Soviet national republics were faced with the issues of nationalism ethnicity identity and territorial delimitation This book looks at how the discourse of patrimonial nationalism in post Communist Tajikistan and Uzbekistan has been the elites strategy to address all these issues to maintain the stateness of their respective countries to preserve the unity of their nation to fill the ideological void of post Communism to prevent the rise of Islam and to legitimize their authoritarian practice

Arguing against the claim that the Central Asian states have undergone divergent paths of transition the book discusses how they are in fact all authoritarian although exhibiting different degrees of authoritarianism This book provides a useful contribution to studies on Central Asian Politics and International Relations Handbook of War Studies III Manus I. Midlarsky, 2009-06-24 Handbook of War Studies III is a follow up to Handbook of War Studies I 1993 and II 2000 This new volume collects original work from leading international relations scholars on domestic strife ethnic conflict genocide and other timely topics Special attention is given to civil war which has become one of the dominant forms if not the dominant form of conflict in the world today Contributors Bruce Bueno de Mesquita New York University and Hoover Institution Stanford University Nils Petter Gleditsch International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO and Norwegian University of Science and Technology NTNU Trondheim Hvard Hegre University of Oslo and International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO Erin K Jenne Central European University Budapest Mark Irving Lichbach University of Maryland Roy Licklider Rutgers University New Brunswick T David Mason University of North Texas Rose McDermott Cornell University Stephen Saideman McGill University Hvard Strand International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO Monica Duffy Toft Harvard University Manus I Midlarsky is the Moses and Annuta Back Professor of International Peace and Conflict Resolution at Rutgers University New Brunswick He is the founding past president of the Conflict Processes Section of the American Political Science Association and a past vice president of the International Studies Association Sectarian Politics in the Persian Gulf Lawrence G. Potter, 2014 Sunni Shia relations in the GCC countries are analysed by the contributors in the wake of recent protests in Bahrain Saudi Arabia and elsewhere Handbook of Politics Kevin T. Leicht, J. Craig Jenkins, 2009-11-28 Political sociology is the interdisciplinary study of power and the intersection of personality society and politics The field also examines how the political process is affected by major social trends as well as exploring how social policies are altered by various social forces Political sociologists increasingly use a wide variety of relatively new quantitative and qualitative methodologies and incorporate theories and research from other social science cognate disciplines The contributors focus on the current controversies and disagreements surrounding the use of different methodologies for the study of politics and society and discussions of specific applications found in the widely scattered literature where substantive research in the field is published This approach will solidly place the handbook in a market niche that is not occupied by the current volumes while also covering many of the same theoretical and historical developments that the other volumes cover The purpose of this handbook is to summarize state of the art theory research and methods used in the study of politics and society This area of research encompasses a wide variety of perspectives and methods that span social science disciplines The handbook is designed to reflect that diversity in content method and focus In addition it will cover developments in the developed and underdeveloped worlds
