undergraduate classes     Jewish Philosophy and the Crisis of Modernity Leo Strauss, 2012-02-01 This is the first book to bring together the major essays and lectures of Leo Strauss in the field of modern Jewish thought It contains some of his most famous published writings as well as significant writings which were previously unpublished Spanning almost 30 years of continuously deepening reflection the book presents the full range of Strauss's contributions as a modern Jewish thinker These essays and lectures also offer Strauss's mature considerations of some of the great figures in modern Jewish thought such as Baruch Spinoza Hermann Cohen Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber Theodor Herzl and Sigmund Freud They also encompass his incisive analyses and original explorations of modern Judaism which he viewed as caught in the grip of the theological political crisis from German Jewry anti-Semitism and the Holocaust to Zionism and the State of Israel from the question of assimilation to the meaning and value of Jewish history In addition Strauss's two sustained interpretations of the Hebrew Bible are also reprinted These essays and lectures cumulatively point toward the postcritical reconstruction of Judaism which Strauss envisioned suggesting it rebuild along Maimonidean lines Thus the book lends credence to the view that Strauss was able to uncover and probe the crisis at the heart of modern Jewish thought and history perhaps with greater profundity than any other contemporary Jewish thinker     A History of Modern Jewish Religious Philosophy Eliezer Schweid, 2022-11-07 The last generation of German Jewish philosophers brought the long tragic history of German Jewish creative thought to a close in a blaze of glory while transitioning to the new Jewish creative centers in Israel and America The best known Buber Rosenzweig Baeck Strauss Scholem and the less known Breuer Birnbaum Klatzkin Aviad Wolfsberg Guttmann are thoroughly explicated here with generous primary text citations appearing in English for the first time making this a rich sourcebook and reference for the thinkers presented     Encounters in Modern Jewish Thought Eva Jospe, 2013 The second of a three volume series this book contains Eva Jospe's Moses Mendelssohn Selections from His Writings together with an article dealing with Mendelssohn's enduring significance As Raphael Jospe observes in his introduction to the volume despite the welcome growth in recent years in the availability of English translations of Mendelssohn's works Eva Jospe's Selections including some of Mendelssohn's private letters remain valuable for their clarity for the logic of their organization and for the important insight they provide into Mendelssohn's personality and convictions Volume One of this series contains Eva Jospe's study of the Concept of Encounter in the Philosophy of Martin Buber and Volume Three her Reason and Hope Selections from the Jewish Writings of Hermann Cohen Together these volumes offer a multidimensional view of Jospe's work and thoughts     *Norbert M.
