Women's Dual Identities Petra Bueskens, 2018-05-31 Why do women in contemporary western societies experience contradiction between their autonomous and maternal selves What are the origins of this contradiction and the associated double shift that result in widespread calls to either lean in or opt out How are some mothers subverting these contradictions and finding meaningful ways of reconciling their autonomous and maternal selves In Modern Motherhood and Women s Dual Identities Petra Bueskens argues that western modernisation consigned women to the home and released them from it in historically unprecedented yet interconnected ways Her ground breaking formulation is that western women are free as individuals and constrained as mothers with the twist that it is the former that produces the latter Bueskens theoretical contribution consists of the identification and analysis of modern women s duality drawing on political philosophy feminist theory and sociology tracking the changing nature of discourses of women freedom and motherhood across three centuries While the current literature points to the pervasiveness of contradiction and double shifts for mothers very little attention has been paid to how some women are subverting contradiction and rewriting the sexual contract Bridging this gap Bueskens interviews ten revolving mothers to reveal how periodic absence exceeding the standard work day disrupts the default position assigned to mothers in the home and in turn disrupts the gendered dynamics of household work A provocative and original work Modern Motherhood and Women s Dual Identities will appeal to graduate students and researchers interested in fields such as Women and Gender Studies Sociology of Motherhood and Social and Political Theory Modern Print Activism in the United States Rachel Schreiber, 2016-04-15 The explosion of print culture that occurred in the United States at the turn of the twentieth century activated the widespread use of print media to promote social and political activism Exploring this phenomenon the essays in Modern Print Activism in the United States focus on specific groups individuals and causes that relied on print as a vehicle for activism They also take up the variety of print forms in which calls for activism have appeared including fiction editorials letters to the editor graphic satire and non periodical media such as pamphlets and calendars As the contributors show activists have used print media in a range of ways not only in expected applications such as calls for boycotts and protests but also for less expected aims such as the creation of networks among readers and to the legitimization of their causes At a time when the golden age of print appears to be ending Modern Print Activism in the United States argues that print activism should be studied as a specifically modernist phenomenon and poses questions related to the efficacy of print as a vehicle for social and political change

Mothering, God, and the Mothering God V. Jean Thomas, 2025-09-05 Mothers today face unprecedented pressure as contemporary American society feeds into the culture of intensive mothering leading many to be consumed by their role as mothers Many grapple with additional expectations stemming from the teachings of today's evangelical church Rather than serving as a countercultural influence encouraging women to cultivate their primary identity in Christ women often receive the message that to be a good Christian they need to make mothering their top priority The effects of this ideology impact not only women who are mothers but also the church and society at large How does Scripture inform this conversation including both biblical mothers and references to God as Mother Which biblical and historical mothers have been celebrated why and how do they stack up with today's expectations How can mothers today simultaneously follow God and faithfully fulfill their roles as mothers and how can the church support this endeavor This book seeks to reset mothering expectations for the church today by examining examples and expectations of mothers as depicted by Scripture and church history namely the expectation to locate primary identity in Christ
