

The background of the book cover is a painting depicting a desolate, war-torn landscape. In the foreground, two soldiers in dark uniforms are running through a field of mud and debris. To their left, a large, dark, leafless tree stands prominently. In the background, a line of smoke rises from a distant point, and a body of water is visible under a cloudy sky. The overall color palette is muted, with browns, greys, and blues, emphasizing the somber and violent nature of the scene.

Modernism And The Aesthetics Of Violence:

Modernism and the Aesthetics of Violence Paul Sheehan, 2013-06-24 This book addresses the subject of violence as it features in celebrated modernist works from the early twentieth century. It traces the modernist fascination with violence back to the middle decades of the nineteenth century when certain writers in France and England sought to celebrate dissident sexualities and stylized criminality.

Modernism and the Aesthetics of Violence Paul Sheehan, 2013-06-24 The notion that violence can give rise to art and that art can serve as an agent of violence is a dominant feature of modernist literature. In this study, Paul Sheehan traces the modernist fascination with violence to the middle decades of the nineteenth century when certain French and English writers sought to celebrate dissident sexualities and stylized criminality. Sheehan presents a panoramic view of how the aesthetics of transgression gradually mutates into an infatuation with destruction and upheaval, identifying the First World War as the event through which the modernist aesthetic of violence crystallizes. By engaging with exemplary modernists such as Joyce, Conrad, Eliot, and Pound, as well as lesser-known writers including Gautier, Sacher-Masoch, Wyndham Lewis, and others, Sheehan shows how artworks so often associated with creative well-being and communicative self-expression can be reoriented toward violent and bellicose ends.

Violent Modernists Kai Evers, 2013-10-31 Modernity, modernism, and violence. Causing violence. Robert Musil's The Confusions of Young Törless and the path to an anti-reductionist theory of violence. War violence and the malleable self. Robert Musil's postwar critique of violence in The Man Without Qualities. Kafka's poetics of the knife on violence, truth, and ambivalence in In the Penal Colony. Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on Culture, Design and Social Development (CDSD 2022) Mohd Fauzi bin Sedon M. Dom, Peter Thomas Zabielskis, Xudong Liu, Xiao Liu, 2023-03-02 This is an open access book. Culture is the spiritual activity and product of human society relative to economy and politics. The traditional concept of human beings believes that culture is a social phenomenon, a product created by human beings for a long time, and at the same time a historical phenomenon which is the accumulation of human society and history. The technical, economical, and cultural nature of art design determines that only with high social and economic development can art and culture flourish. Art design is the product of the combination of art and technology. Art design is also a kind of productivity which promotes the development of social economy. As a driving factor for social and economic development, design art will also better serve the social economy with its own more perfect operating system. The 2nd International Conference on Culture, Design and Social Development (CDSD 2022) was held in Nanjing from December 2 to 4, 2022. The purpose of the conference is to provide an international platform for experts, scholars, engineers, and technicians and technical R & D personnel engaged in related fields such as culture design and social development to share scientific research results, broaden research ideas, collide with new ideas, and strengthen academic research and to explore the key challenges and research directions faced by the development of this field and promote the industrialization cooperation of academic achievements Experts scholars business people and other relevant personnel from universities and research institutions at home and abroad are cordially invited to attend and exchange

Feminist Aesthetics and the Politics of Modernism Ewa Płonowska Ziarek, 2012 Ewa Ziarek fully articulates a feminist aesthetics focusing on the struggle for freedom in women's literary and political modernism and the devastating impact of racist violence and sexism She examines the contradiction between women's transformative literary and political practices and the oppressive realities of racist violence and sexism and she situates these tensions within the entrenched opposition between revolt and melancholia in studies of modernity and within the friction between material injuries and experimental aesthetic forms Ziarek's political and aesthetic investigations concern the exclusion and destruction of women in politics and literary production and the transformation of this oppression into the inaugural possibilities of writing and action Her study is one of the first to combine an in-depth engagement with philosophical aesthetics especially the work of Theodor W Adorno with women's literary modernism particularly the writing of Virginia Woolf and Nella Larsen along with feminist theories on the politics of race and gender By bringing seemingly apolitical gender neutral debates about modernism's experimental forms together with an analysis of violence and destroyed materialities Ziarek challenges both the anti-aesthetic subordination of modern literature to its political uses and the appreciation of art's emancipatory potential at the expense of feminist and anti-racist political struggles

At the Violet Hour Sarah Cole, 2012-11-01 Literature has long sought to make sense of the destruction and aggression wrought by human civilization Yet no single literary movement was more powerfully shaped by violence than modernism As Sarah Cole shows modernism emerged as an imaginative response to the devastating events that defined the period including the chaos of anarchist bombings World War I the Irish uprising and the Spanish Civil War Combining historical detail with resourceful readings of fiction poetry journalism photographs and other cultural materials At the Violet Hour explores the strange intimacy between modernist aesthetics and violence in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The First World War and T S Eliot's The Waste Land demonstrate the new theoretical paradigm that Cole deploys throughout her study what she calls enchanted and disenchanted violence the polarizing perceptions of violent death as either the fuel for regeneration or the emblem of grotesque loss These concepts thread through the literary historical moments that form the core of her study beginning with anarchism and the advent of dynamite violence in late Victorian England As evinced in novels by Joseph Conrad Henry James and others anarchism fostered a vibrant modern consciousness of violence entrenched in sensationalism and melodrama A subsequent chapter offers four interpretive categories keening generative violence reprisal and allegory for reading violence in works by W B Yeats J M Synge Sean O Casey and others around the time of Ireland's Easter Rising The book concludes with a discussion of Virginia Woolf's oeuvre placing the author in two primary relations to the encroaching culture of violence deeply exploring and formalizing its registers and veering away from her peers to construct an original set of patterns to accommodate its visceral ubiquity in the years leading up to the Second World War A rich interdisciplinary study that incorporates perspectives from history anthropology the visual arts and literature At the Violet Hour provides a resonant framework for refiguring the relationship between aesthetics and violence that will extend far beyond the period traditionally associated with literary modernism

The Violence of Modernity Debarati Sanyal, 2020-03-03 The Violence of Modernity turns to Charles Baudelaire one of the most canonical figures of literary modernism in order to reclaim an aesthetic legacy for ethical inquiry and historical critique Works of modern literature are commonly theorized as symptomatic responses to the trauma of history In a climate that tends to privilege crisis over critique Debarati Sanyal argues that it is urgent to rethink literary experience in terms that recall its contestatory potential Examining Baudelaire's poems afresh she shifts the focus of critical attention toward an account of modernism as an active engagement with violence specifically the violence of history in nineteenth century France Sanyal analyzes a literary current that uses the traditional hallmarks of modernism irony intertextuality self reflexivity and formalism to challenge the historical violence of modernity Baudelaire and the committed ironists writing in his wake teach us how to read and resist the violence of history and thereby to challenge the melancholy tenor of our contemporary wound culture In a series of provocative readings Sanyal presents Baudelaire's poetry as an aesthetic form that contests historical violence through rhetorical strategies of complicity counterviolence and critique The book develops a new account of Baudelaire's significance as a modernist by dislodging him both from his traditional status as a practitioner of art for art's sake and from his more recent incarnation as the poet of trauma Following her extended analysis of Baudelaire's poetry Sanyal in later chapters considers a number of authors influenced by his strategies including Rachilde Virginie Despentes Albert Camus and Jean Paul Sartre to examine the relevance of their interventions for our current climate of trauma and terror The result is a study that underscores how Baudelaire's legacy continues to energize literary engagements with the violence of modernity

Modernism Ástráður Eysteinnsson, Vivian Liska, 2007 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity

Vistas of Modernity Rolando Vázquez, 2024-11-07 We are living in a time of polarization Cultural and educational institutions are confronted with the responsibility to provide tools and spaces for critical reflection for engagement and more fundamentally for meeting and recognizing each other in our differences In this decolonial essay Rolando Vázquez introduces his critique which offers an option for thinking and doing beyond the dominant paradigms It provides a critical analysis of modernity understood broadly as the western project of civilization while it seeks to overcome the dominion of western epistemology and aesthetics and their embedded eurocentrism and anthropocentrism Importantly for decolonial thought we are all located in relation to the colonial difference that structures our modern colonial order It is only from an awareness of our positioned realities that we can enter in relation with each other that we can listen to each other and learn each other Vistas of Modernity is a new title in a series of essays commissioned by the Mondriaan Fund concerning actual topics about visual arts and cultural heritage Rolando Vázquez is co organizer of the Decolonial Summer School in Middelburg He is associate professor of Sociology at University College Roosevelt of Utrecht University in The Netherlands

The Life and Death of Images Diarmuid Costello, Dominic Willson, 2008 The 1990s witnessed a return to aesthetics but one that stressed the independent claims of beauty in reaction to its perceived suppression by ethical and political imperatives Beauty however is just one aspect of the aesthetic In recent years increasing attention has been paid to the ways in which aesthetics and ethics are intertwined In The Life and Death of Images some of the world's leading cultural thinkers engage in dialogue with one another concerning this beta new gamma aesthetics In provocative and accessible fashion they demonstrate its relevance to a range of disciplines including analytic and continental philosophy art history theory and practice cultural history and visual culture rhetoric and comparative literature

Mourning Modernism Lecia Rosenthal, 2011 This book examines the writing of catastrophe mass death and collective loss in twentieth century literature and criticism With particular focus on texts by Woolf Benjamin and Sebald it engages the century's preoccupation with world ending a mixed rhetoric of totality and rupture finitude and survival the end and its posthumous remainders The spectacle of world ending proliferates as a form of desire an ambivalent compulsion to consume and outlive the end of all In conversation with discussions of the century's passion for the real the author reads the century's obsession with negative forms of ending and outcome Drawing connections between current interest in trauma and the sublime she reframes the terms of the modernist experiment and its aesthetics from the lens of a late sublime

A Singular Modernity Fredric Jameson, 2014-10-07 The concepts of modernity and modernism are amongst the most controversial and vigorously debated in contemporary philosophy and cultural theory In this intervention Fredric Jameson perhaps the most influential and persuasive theorist of postmodernity excavates and explores these notions in a fresh and illuminating manner The extraordinary revival of discussions of modernity as well as of new theories of artistic modernism demands attention in its own right It seems clear that the provisional disappearance of alternatives to capitalism plays its part in the universal attempt to revive modernity as a social ideal Yet the paradoxes of the concept illustrate its legitimate history and suggest some rules for avoiding its misuse as well In this major interpretation of the problematic Jameson concludes that both concepts are tainted but nonetheless yield clues as to the nature of the phenomena they purported to theorize His judicious and vigilant probing of both terms which can probably not be banished at this late date helps us clarify our present political and artistic situations

The Aesthetics of Japanese Fascism Alan Tansman, 2009-08-12 In this wide ranging study of Japanese cultural expression Alan Tansman reveals how a particular often seemingly innocent aesthetic sensibility present in novels essays popular songs film and political writings helped create an aesthetic of fascism in the years leading up to World War II Evoking beautiful moments of violence both real and imagined these works did not lead to fascism in any instrumental sense Yet Tansman suggests they expressed and inspired spiritual longings quenchable only through acts in the real world Tansman traces this lineage of aesthetic fascism from its beginnings in the 1920s through its flowering in the 1930s to its afterlife in postwar Japan

Man Into Woman Lili Elbe, 2020-02-20 In 1930 Danish artist Einar Wegener underwent a series of surgeries to live as Lili Ilse Elvenes more commonly known as Lili Elbe Her life story Fra Mand til Kvinde From Man to Woman published in Copenhagen in 1931 is the first popular full length auto biographical narrative of a subject who undergoes genital transformation surgery Genitalumwandlung In Man Into Woman A Comparative Scholarly Edition Pamela L Caughie and Sabine Meyer present the full text of the 1933 American edition of Elbe's work with comprehensive notes on textual and paratextual variants across the four published editions in three languages This edition also includes a substantial scholarly introduction which situates the historical and intellectual context of Elbe's work as well as new essays on the work by leading scholars in transgender studies and modernist literature and critical coverage of the 2015 biopic The Danish Girl This print edition has a digital companion the Lili Elbe Digital Archive www.lilielbe.org Launched on July 6 2019 to

Twilight Memories Andreas Huyssen, 2012-11-12 In this new collection of essays on memory and amnesia in the postmodern world cultural critic Andreas Huyssen considers how nationalism literature art politics and the media are obsessed with the past The great paradox of our fin de siècle culture is that novelty is even more associated with memory than with future expectation Drawing heavily on the dilemmas of contemporary Germany Huyssen's discussion of cultural memory illustrates the nature of contemporary nationalism the work of such artists and thinkers as Anselm Kiefer Alexander Kluge and Jean Baudrillard and many others The book includes illustrations from contemporary Germany

Historical Modernisms Jean-Michel Rabaté, Angeliki Spiropoulou, 2021-10-21 Examining the ways in which modernism is created within specific historical contexts as well as how it redefines the concept of history itself this book sheds new light on the historical mindedness of modernism and the artistic avant gardes Cutting across Anglophone and less explored European traditions and featuring work from a variety of eminent scholars it deals with issues as diverse as artistic medium modernist print culture autobiography as history writing avant garde experimentations and modernism's futurity Contributors examine both literary and artistic modernism combining theoretical overviews and archival research with case studies of Anglophone as well as European modernism which speak to the current historicizing trend in modernist and literary studies

Terrorism and Modern Literature Alex Houen, 2002-09-12 Is terrorism's violence essentially symbolic Does it impact on culture primarily through the media What kinds of performative effect do the various discourses surrounding terrorism have Such questions have not only become increasingly important in terrorism studies they have also been concerns for many literary writers This book is the first extensive study of modern literature's engagement with terrorism Ranging from the 1880s to the 1980s the terrorism examined is as diverse as the literary writings on it chapters include discussions of Joseph Conrad's novels on Anarchism and Russian Nihilism Wyndham Lewis's avant garde responses to Syndicalism and the militant Suffragettes Ezra Pound's poetic entanglement with Segregationist violence Walter Abish's fictions about West German urban guerrillas and Seamus Heaney's and Ciaran Carson's poems on the Troubles in Northern Ireland In each instance Alex Houen explores how the literary writer figures clashes or collusions between terrorist violence and discursive performativity What is revealed is that writing on terrorism has frequently involved refiguring the force of literature itself In terrorism studies the cultural impact of terrorism has often been accounted for with rigid structural theories of its discursive roots But what about the performative effects of violence on discourse Addressing the issue of this mutual contagion Terrorism and Modern Literature shows that the mediation and effects of terrorism have been historically variable Referring to a variety of sources in addition to the literature newspaper and journal articles legislation letters manifestos the book shows how terrorism and the literature on it have been embroiled in wider cultural fields The result is not just a timely intervention in debates about terrorism s performativity Drawing on literary critical theory and philosophy it is also a major contribution to debates about the historical and political dimensions of modernist and postmodernist literary practices

Marianne Moore and the Cultures of Modernity Victoria Bazin, 2016-05-06 Victoria Bazin examines the poetry of Marianne Moore as it is shaped by and responsive to the experience of being a modern woman of living in the aftermath of the First World War of being interpellated as a modern consumer and of writing in the age of mechanical reproduction She argues that Moore s textual collages and syllabic sculptures are based on the cultural clutter or debris of modernity on textual extracts and reproductions on the phantasmagoria of city life revealing something modernism worked hard to conceal its relation to modernity more specifically its relation to the new emerging and expanding mass consumer culture Drawing extensively on archival resources to trace Moore s influences and to describe her own distinctive modernist aesthetic this book argues that it was her feminist adaptation of pragmatism that shaped her poetic response to modernity Moore s use of the quoted fragment is conceptualised in relation not only to Walter Benjamin s philosophical history but also to William James s image of the world as a series of partial stories As such this account of Marianne Moore not only contributes to a greater understanding of the poet and her work but it also offers up a more politicized and historically nuanced understanding of poetic modernism between the wars one that retains a sense of the formal complexities of poetic language and the poet s own ethical imperatives whilst also recognising the material impact of modernity upon the modernist poem This book will appeal therefore not only to scholars already familiar with Moore s poetry but more widely to those interested in modernism and American culture between the wars

The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
