Modernist Alchemy Modernist Alchemy:

Modernist Alchemy Timothy Materer, 2018-09-05 Modernist Alchemy takes a close look at the work of twentieth century poets whose use of the occult constitutes a recovery of discarded beliefs and modes of thought Yeats and Plath try to dismiss conventional religion Hughes captures a sense of adventure H D seeks to liberate repressed concepts while Duncan and Merrill hunt for a lost understanding of sexual identity which will allow for androgyny and homosexuality The

Sacred Life of Modernist Literature Allan Kilner-Johnson, 2022-06-16 Probing the relationship between modernist literary experimentation and several key strands of occult practice which emerged in Europe from roughly 1894 to 1944 this book sets the work of leading modernist writers alongside lesser known female writers and writers in languages other than English to more fully portray the aesthetic and philosophical connections between modernism and the occult Although the early decades of the twentieth century the era of cocktails motorcars bobbed hair and war are often described as a period of newness and innovation many writers of the time found inspiration and visionary brilliance by turning to the mysterious occult past This book's principle intervention is to reimagine the contours and boundaries of literary modernism by welcoming into the conversation a number of significant female writers and writers in languages other than English who are often still relegated to the fringes of modernist studies Well remembered poets and novelists such as Ezra Pound W B Yeats and Aleister Crowley were tied to occult beliefs and this book sets these leading figures alongside less well remembered but equally splendid modernists including Paul Brunton Mary Butts Alexandra David Neel Florence Farr Dion Fortune Hermann Hesse and Rudolf Steiner From the little magazines where occultism and Fabianism were comfortable companions to consulting rooms of psychoanalysts where archetypes were revealed to be both mystical and mundane to the forbidden mountain trails that led to formidable spiritual teachers the conditions of modernism were invariably those conditions which inspired a return to the occult traditions that many thinkers believed had long evaporated Indeed in many ways these traditions were the making of the modern world By uncovering hidden hopes and anxieties that faced a newly modern Western Europe this book demonstrates how literary modernists understood occultism as a universal form of cultural expression which has inspired creative exuberance since the dawn of civilisation Jungian Metaphor in Modernist

Literature Roula-Maria Dib, 2020-02-19 Jungian Metaphor in Modernist Literature argues for the centrality of Carl Jung's theory of individuation and alchemy in modernist poetics Through analysis of the uses of a mythic method in modernist literary works the book develops a related alchemical model which serves to expand understanding of modernist uses of language The book is an innovative exploration of modernist literary creativity under a Jungian lens spanning both the literary and scholarly Jungian field The literary works of Hilda Doolittle James Joyce and W B Yeats are read in the light of Jung's central theme of an alchemical marriage with attempts at developing a related alchemical model a Jungian poetics which serves to expand a reader's understanding of modernist uses of language This provides a fresh new lens through which modernist literature is viewed and seeks to reevaluate the role of Jung in the humanities namely in the field of modernist literature an area from which Jung has long been shunned This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of literature modernism psychoanalysis gender studies Jungian psychology depth psychology literary theory and cultural studies Modernist Poetics of Ageing Jade Elizabeth French,2025-01-12 What happens when the modern woman ages Modernist Poetics of Ageing answers this question by being the first book length study of three late modernist women s writers Drawing on their place within wider modernist networks this monograph is primarily framed around work by Mina Loy H D and Djuna Barnes who are often thought of as the quintessentially youthful modern woman of the 1920s Taking a literary ageing studies and cultural criticism approach this monograph focuses on lived experience as well as thematic representations of ageing in their work to examine how each author grew older in the years 1940 1982 By surveying literary texts visual art photography life writing and archival material this book explores the intersection of old age as lived and as well as written to argue that modernist late writing embodies the realities of ageing and transforms them through avant garde aesthetics As an interdisciplinary study this work pairs ageing studies and modernist studies to innovatively consider experimental works written about and in later life The book suggests that a focus on older age complicates the very avant garde or modernist aesthetics that each author was interested in what happens when the scene of the new is populated by older people How does an embodied experience of illness inform an aesthetics of late style After fulfilling their role as the youthful modern woman of the 1920s how did each artist continue to create rich avant garde works that go well beyond the paradigms of late modernism Modernist Poetics of Ageing argues that the late lives of some of modernism s most prominent and networked women writers are overlooked despite being rich vital and contemporary in their continuing commitment to modernist experiment By reframing these older modernist women writers as engaged in continuing creative experiments Modernist Poetics of Ageing reveals that the new does not always have to be young

Modernist Patterns M. Roston,1999-12-07 In this stimulating study the author explores how Conrad T S Eliot Woolf Joyce Faulkner Hemingway Huxley and others responded to the immediate challenges of their time to the implications of Freudian psychology molecular theory relativist theory and the general weakening of religious faith Assuming that artists and writers in coping with those problems would develop techniques in many ways comparable even where there was no direct contact he positions Modernist literature within the context of contemporary painting architecture and sculpture thereby providing some fascinating insights into the nature of the literary works themselves

The Occult in Modernist Art, Literature, and Cinema Tessel M. Bauduin, Henrik Johnsson,2018-05-15 Many modernist and avant garde artists and authors were fascinated by the occult movements of their day This volume explores how Occultism came to shape modernist art literature and film Individual chapters examine the presence and role of Occultism in the work of such modernist luminaries as Rainer Maria Rilke August Strindberg W B Yeats Jos phin P ladan and the artist Jan van der Maer as well as in avant garde film post war Greek Surrealism and Scandinavian Retrogardism Combining the theoretical and methodological foundations of the field of Esotericism Studies with those of Literary Studies Art History and Cinema Studies this volume provides in depth and nuanced perspectives upon the relationship between Occultism and Modernism in the Western arts from the nineteenth century to the present day H.D. and Modernist Religious Imagination Elizabeth Anderson,2013-08-01 Exploring the intersection of religious sensibility and creativity in the poetry and prose of the American modernist writer H D this volume explores the nexus of the religious the visionary the creative and the material Drawing on original archival research and analyses of newly published and currently unpublished writings by H D Elizabeth Anderson shows how the poet's work is informed by a range of religious traditions from the complexities and contradictions of Moravian Christianity to a wide range of esoteric beliefs and practices H D and Modernist Religious Imagination brings H D's texts into dialogue with the French theorist Hélène Cixous whose attention to writing imagination and the sacred has been a neglected but rich critical and theological resource In analysing the connection both writers craft between the sacred the material and the creative this study makes a thoroughly original contribution to the emerging scholarly conversation on modernism and religion and the debate on the inter relation of the spiritual and the material within the interdisciplinary field of literature and religion

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modernist Archives Jamie Callison,Matthew Feldman,Anna Svendsen,Erik Tonning,2024-06-13 Providing a broad definitive account of how the archival turn in humanities scholarship has shaped modernist studies this book also functions as an ongoing practitioner's toolkit including useful bibliographical resources and a guide to avenues for future work Archival work in modernist studies has revolutionised the discipline in the past two decades fuelled by innovative and ambitious scholarly editing projects and a growing interest in fresh types of archival sources and evidence that can re contextualise modernist writing Several theoretical trends have prompted this development including the focus on compositional process within genetic manuscript studies the emphasis on book history little magazines and wider publishing contexts and the emphasis on new material evidence and global and non canonical authors and networks within the New Modernist Studies This book provides a guide to the variety of new archival research that will point to fresh avenues and connect the methodologies and resources being developed across modernist studies Offering a variety of single author case studies on recent archival developments and editing projects including Samuel Beckett Hart Crane H D James Joyce Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf it also offers a range of thematic essays that examine an array of underused sources as well as the challenges facing archival researchers of modernism Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett,2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine

The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 5, The Modern Physical and Mathematical Sciences David C. Lindberg, Mary Jo Nye, Roy Porter, Ronald L. Numbers, 2003 A new and comprehensive examination of the history of the modern physical and mathematical sciences Material Spirituality in Modernist Women's Writing Elizabeth Anderson, 2020-03-19 For Virginia Woolf H D Mary Butts and Gwendolyn Brooks things mobilise creativity traverse domestic public and rural spaces and stage the interaction between the sublime and the mundane Ordinary things are rendered extraordinary by their spiritual or emotional significance and yet their very ordinariness remains part of their value This book addresses the intersection of spirituality things and places both natural and built environments in the work of these four women modernists From the living pebbles in Mary Butts's memoir to the pencil sought in Woolf's urban pilgrimage in Street Haunting the Christmas decorations crafted by children in H D's autobiographical novel The Gift and Maud Martha's love of dandelions in Brooks's only novel things indicate spiritual concerns in these writers' work Elizabeth Anderson contributes to current debates around materiality vitalism and post secularism attending to both mainstream and heterodox spiritual expressions and connections between the two in modernism How we value our spaces and our world being one of the most pressing contemporary ethical and ecological concerns this volume contributes to the debate by arguing that a change in our attitude towards the environment will not come from a theory of renunciation but through attachment to and regard for material things

Alchemist of the Avant-Garde John F. Moffitt, 2012-02-01 Acknowledged as the Artist of the Century Marcel Duchamp 1887-1968 left a legacy that dominates the art world to this day Inventing the ironically d'gag attitude of ready-made art making Duchamp heralded the postmodern era and replaced Pablo Picasso as the role model for avant-garde artists John F. Moffitt challenges commonly accepted interpretations of Duchamp's art and persona by showing that his mature art after 1910 is largely drawn from the influence of the occult traditions Moffitt demonstrates that the key to understanding the cryptic meaning of Duchamp's diverse artworks and writings is alchemy the most pictorial of all the occult philosophies and sciences

The Geometry of Modernism Miranda B. Hickman,2005 Addressing both the literature and the visual arts of Anglo American modernism The Geometry of Modernism recovers a crucial development of modernism s early years that until now has received little sustained critical attention the distinctive idiom composed of geometric forms and metaphors generated within the early modernist movement of Vorticism formed in London in 1914 Focusing on the work of Wyndham Lewis leader of the Vorticist movement as well as Ezra Pound H D and William Butler Yeats Hickman examines the complex of motives out of which Lewis initially forged the geometric lexicon of Vorticism and then how Pound H D and Yeats later responded to it and the values that it encoded enlisting both the geometric vocabulary and its attendant assumptions and ideals in transmuted form in their later modernist work Placing the genesis and appropriation of the geometric idiom in historical context Hickman explores how despite its brevity as a movement Vorticism in fact exerted considerable impact on modernist work of the years between the wars in that its geometric idiom enabled modernist writers to articulate their responses to both personal and political crises of the 1930s and 1940s Informed by extensive archival research as well as treatment of several of the least known texts of the modernist milieu The Geometry of Modernism clarifies and enriches the legacy of this vital period
