Modernity, Medicine and Health Paul Higgs, Graham Scambler, 2005-08-19 This book establishes the voice of medical sociology in key debates in the social sciences Concerning modernity postmodernity structuralism and poststructuralism issues covered include disease and medicine in postmodern times gender health and the feminist debate on the postmodern ageing the lifecourse and the sociology of health and ageing medicine and complementary medicine death in postmodernity

Plural Medicine, Tradition and Modernity, 1800-2000 Waltraud Ernst, 2002-11 This book brings together current critical research into medical pluralism during the last two centuries It includes a rich selection of historical anthropological and sociological case studies

Beyond The Risk Society: Critical Reflections On Risk And Human Security Mythen, Gabe, Walklate, Sandra, 2006-08-01 Bringing together cutting edge academics and researchers Beyond the Risk Society provides an understanding of the relevance and impact of the concept of risk in various subject areas Contributions by domain experts critically evaluate the way in which theoretical risk perspectives have influenced their fields of interest offering the opportunity to reflect upon the problems and possibilities for future work on risk

Making Public Services Management Critical Graeme Currie, Jackie Ford, Nancy Harding, Mark Learmonth, 2010-02-02 This book brings together public services policy and public services management in a new way challenging many old ideas in this field and presenting the debate of what critical constitutes when applied to public services policy and management

Sociologies of Disability and Illness Carol Thomas, 2017-09-16 This book critically compares conflicting perspectives and overlapping themes within the study of disability and illness across recent decades With fresh interpretation of traditional theory in medical sociology and informed commentary on theoretical debates in disability studies it is provocative reading for students and scholars in this field

Pain Elaine Denny, 2017-12-08 Pain in one form or another is probably the most common symptom presented to medical and healthcare professionals Long a subject of biomedical interest more recent biopsychosocial theories have extended the study of pain as a concept which is highly individual in the way it is experienced Today s landscape offers a broad array of approaches to understanding pain and crucially to alleviating its impact This concise and accessible volume aims to make sense of what is at first sight an eclectic mix of theoretical and practical work on pain from a distinctly sociological perspective While there has been much quantitative medical research on pain in exploring sociology s important contributions to this field Elaine Denny offers insight into the world of those living with pain and the meaning it has in their lives She provides readers with a range of explanations of pain and various influences on the experience of pain critically analysing competing schools of thought and embedding this work in the everyday practice of providing care The result is an illuminating volume for students of health and medical professions studying pain the body and the sociology of health and illness

Living in Dangerous Times David Denney, 2009-06-22 Through a series of essays by leading social public policy experts Living in Dangerous Times analyzes the impact of fear on the development of social policy in the UK in the post 9 11 and 7 11 world Incorporates an approach that pushes back traditional views of what the study of social policy should be about Features essays by leading scholars that combine original theories with empirical data Analyzes the complexities of policy development and governance in a world suffused with fear and uncertainty Addresses critical contemporary questions for policy makers and policy analysts      Contagion Alison Bashford,Claire Hooker,2002-11 Contagion explores cultural responses of infectious diseases and their biomedical management over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It also investigates the use of contagion as a concept in postmodern research      Modernist Transitions Subhadeep Ray,Goutam Karmakar,2023-12-30 This volume is a critical reader focusing on the continuities and discontinuities confirmations and confrontations crossovers and collisions appropriations adaptations and assimilations in the cultural transitions between British and Bangla vernacular modernist fiction within the context of the imperial modernity of the first half of the 20th century The volume consisting of critical essays aspires to illuminate from multiple but intersecting perspectives those thematic and structural areas where these two kinds of literary modernism each aesthetically diverse historically segmented by onslaughts of wars and other outbreaks of suffering and violence and ideologically convoluted but conditioned in many ways by common socio historical catastrophes and promises interact with each other to constitute an aesthetics of motion and dissonance Essays cut across literary criticism to employ interdisciplinary approaches as they blur the boundaries between histories biographies and fictional narratives between individual ethics in and outside the fictional world between imagined and living communities between real and generic politics between the home and the world and between the corporeal and the cultural These essays interrogate the mastery in literary techniques narrative motives and dualities major and minor genres de formations of canons in respect of the worldliness formed by the textual incorporation of the intricate imperial relationships between the United Kingdom and Bangla      Using Theory to Explore Health, Medicine and Society Kennedy, Peter,Kennedy, Carole,2010-06-16 This student friendly textbook uses theoretical perspectives to bring to life social theories relating to health and illness including binge drinking obesity the prominence of therapy and the search for happiness      Developments in Sociology Robert Burgess,Anne Murcott,2014-06-11 Appropriate as a supplemental text to courses in Sociology Providing an overview grounded in research Developments in Sociology focuses on the major areas of theoretical methodological and substantive developments in sociology Each author takes a field of study in which they are an acknowledged expert and highlights the way in which the subject has developed over the last fifty years      Sleep and Society Simon J. Williams,2013-04-03 First sociological examination of sleep Author is a key figure internationally in medical sociology      Palliative Care Nursing Sheila Payne,2008-08-01 It has been a true pleasure to have had the opportunity to peruse the second edition of Palliative Care Nursing This book authored predominately by UK based experts succeeds in presenting sophisticated thoughts in readily accessible language Each chapter begins with a summary of key points with both classic and new relevant literature well integrated into the text I have also been particularly impressed with the editors final

chapter in which they synthesize a number of crucial issues for the future development of palliative care this second edition makes a significant contribution to both the palliative care literature as well as to nursing literature Carol Tishelman Karolinska Institutet Stockholm Sweden I find Palliative Care Nursing a very attractive book for nurses but also for other disciplines to learn about nursing and to learn about palliative care The book is voluminous informative and educationally well constructed Frameworks and models in this book will give nurses the opportunity to make up their own process to offer support and be a carer for the incurably ill person and his/her family as a skilled companion This book gives the possibility for nurses to spread one clear voice about palliative care nursing Congratulations to all the authors Martine De Vlieger Palliatieve Hulpverlening Antwerpen v z w University of Antwerp Belgium This book should be compulsory reading for nurses and other health care workers who are involved in the care of people in the final stages of life It provides a comprehensive account of the major issues clinical professional sociological and political that confront contemporary palliative care while also offering strategies to move forward The real world of palliative care is described and critiqued and the rhetoric is dispensed with This book is a vital resource for nursing practice learning and teaching Associate Professor Peter Hudson RN PhD Director of the Centre for Palliative Care Research and Education St Vincent's Hospital and The University of Melbourne Australia This is an excellent book for anyone completing either an academic qualification or who wants to understand the who what and where of palliative care both in the UK and abroad Its detail is balanced with case studies and practical illustrations that bring the academic nature of its writing to life For reference purposes for anyone completing academic work it has to be an absolute must Nursing Times The second edition of this innovative textbook has been extensively revised and updated to reflect new global developments in palliative care This textbook reviews current research and examines the evidence base for palliative care policy and practice Over a third of the chapters are newly commissioned from leading international contributors Building on the widely acclaimed original edition the textbook focuses on palliative care for adults in a variety of care environments The first three sections use a novel framework the trajectory of life limiting illness to cover key issues including What happens to people as they become ill How individuals cope as they near death and are dying How families and friends deal with bereavement and loss The final section addresses contemporary issues in nursing and inter professional working The book is written with helpful overviews and in an informative and reader friendly style There are numerous examples of clinical situations and research studies which are examined in depth to illustrate debates in palliative care The textbook spans the range of end of life contexts which are of relevance to practitioners educationalists and researchers Palliative Care Nursing is essential reading for post qualification nursing students and all nurses and health and social care professionals who provide care to people with advanced illness and those who are near the end of life This broad ranging critical text will be invaluable to students and practitioners working with people and their families near the end of life

Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia Srilata Ravi,Mario Rutten,Beng-Lan Goh,2004-06-30 The book presents a unique combination of the study of contemporary and historical practices between Asia and Europe and brings forth some of the latest thinking on the subject Recent debates have centered primarily on contemporary aspects of the Europe Asia partnership in terms of international relations and economic linkages The present volume complements this political and economic interest in Europe Asia relationship by focusing on the academic social and cultural connections between the two regions The contributions in this volume have a contemporary focus but contextualize the themes within a historical perspective They deal with academic discourses on the region on modernity and entrepreneurship they discuss the long term exchange of knowledge in specific scientific fields and they focus on the cultural interconnections in the area of film literature and migration The originality of this book lies in its interdisciplinary approach to the question of Asia Europe and in its emphasis on the multifaceted complexity of the relationship between these two regions It brings together the diversity of local histories ideas and agencies in both Europe and Asia into a universal project of knowledge formation in order to reveal their contribution to the making of the world we are in

Risk, Social Policy And Welfare Kemshall, Hazel, 2001-12-01 By drawing on current social policy developments and case examples from health the personal social services and mental health this book examines how risk is replacing need as the key principle of welfare organization and state provision of services It explores the growing role of risk based allocation and rationing systems in a climate of welfare retrenchment and the implications for users and providers of welfare

Plague and Empire in the Early Modern Mediterranean World Nükhet Varlik, 2015-07-22 This is the first systematic scholarly study of the Ottoman experience of plague during the Black Death pandemic and the centuries that followed Using a wealth of archival and narrative sources including medical treatises hagiographies and travellers accounts as well as recent scientific research N khet Varlik demonstrates how plague interacted with the environmental social and political structures of the Ottoman Empire from the late medieval through the early modern era The book argues that the empire s growth transformed the epidemiological patterns of plague by bringing diverse ecological zones into interaction and by intensifying the mobilities of exchange among both human and non human agents Varlik maintains that persistent plagues elicited new forms of cultural imagination and expression as well as a new body of knowledge about the disease In turn this new consciousness sharpened the Ottoman administrative response to the plague while contributing to the makings of an early modern state
