Modern Architecture: A Very Short Introduction Adam Sharr, 2018-11-15 Somewhere between 1910 and 1970 architecture changed Now that modern architecture has become familiar sometimes celebrated sometimes vilified it s hard to imagine how novel it once seemed Expensive buildings were transformed from ornamental fancies which referred to the classical and medieval pasts into strikingly plain reflections of novel materials functions and technologies Modern architecture promised the transformation of cities from overcrowded conurbations characterised by packed slums and dirty industries to spacious realms of generous housing and clean mechanised production set in parkland At certain times and in certain cultures it stood for the liberation of the future from the past This Very Short Introduction explores the technical innovations that opened up the cultural and intellectual opportunities for modern architecture to happen Adam Sharr shows how the invention of steel and reinforced concrete radically altered possibilities for shaping buildings transforming what architects were able to imagine as did new systems for air conditioning and lighting While architects weren t responsible for these innovations they were among the first to appreciate how they could make the world look and feel different in connection with imagery from other spheres like modern art and industrial design Focusing on a selection of modern buildings that also symbolize bigger cultural ideas Sharr discusses what modern architecture was like why it was like that and how it was imagined Considering the work of some of the historians and critics who helped to shape modern architecture he demonstrates how the field owes as much to its storytellers as to its buildings

Hans Scharoun and China Liyang Ding, 2024-11-15 This book presents the first systematic overview and analysis of the deep connection between Scharoun and China offering insights into East West cultural exchange and enriching existing understandings of modernism The German architect Hans Scharoun has typically been pigeonholed as a leading figure in expressionist architecture As this book shows however this understanding oversimplifies the multifaceted nature of Scharoun's career and overlooks his central role within the tradition of Neues Bauen The book begins with Scharoun's early interactions with East Asian architects in the 1930s his active involvement in the Chinese Werkbund 1941-42 and his extensive research on Chinese architecture and urban culture in the mid 1940s and 1950s The book then examines Scharoun's postwar architectural designs and urban planning projects most notably the Kollektivplan the Volksschule Darmstadt and the Berliner Philharmonie which incorporated original spatial and urbanistic concepts such as Stadtlandschaft Raum der Mitte and aperspectival space inspired to varying degrees by Chinese architectural and urban planning traditions The book will appeal to scholars and students of modern architecture urban planning and architectural theory especially those interested in modernism and East West cultural exchange compelling questions of architecture's relationship to photography the evolving legacy of Mies van der Rohe the notion of an architectural unconscious and the provocative concepts of the unbuilt and the unbuildable Through a rigorous investigation of these issues Contemporary Art About Architecture calls attention to the fact that art is now a vital form of architectural discourse Indeed this phenomenon is both pervasive and in its individual incarnations compelling a reason to think again about the entangled histories of architecture and art

Meaning in Architecture, now Carlo Deregibus,Aurosa Alison,2024-10-15 The connection between form and meaning has been so intrinsic and obvious that it has been implicit for centuries Then around fifty years ago the issue of meaning suddenly burst into the architectural world with many scholars and practitioners bustling to introduce semiology and semiotics into design Now after the globalisation and the atomisation of thoughts of the last decades those debates could seem pretty meaningless the form being mainly an aesthetic feature or a counterfeit fetish for everchanging feeble poetics Yet we continue to design produce and critique architecture attributing meanings intentions and hopes to its forms Once more we will explore and discuss the elusive yet unavoidable connection between meaning and architecture four thematic sections to understand the place and dimension of meaning in of from to after or maybe even for Architecture Arquitectura moderna: Una breve introducción Adam Sharr, 2020-09-17 Rasgo distintivo estético y estructural de las ciudades del siglo XX cuyo perfil ha transformado la arquitectura moderna nace y se desarrolla en buena parte del globo entre 1910 y 1970 Su concepción trajo aparejada una promesa de transformación por su aparente capacidad para transformar ciudades sucias y abarrotadas en espacios amplios de viviendas generosas ubicados en paisajes modelados En esta breve introducción Adam Sharr expone el desarrollo de esta arquitectura que ha creado poderosas imágenes culturales apoyándose en las innovaciones de las técnicas de construcción como de los materiales que la identifican como son el acero el cristal y el hormigón y teniendo en cuenta de forma insoslayable la incorporación de instalaciones como las correspondientes a la luz eléctrica y el aire acondicionado para acabar planteándose si la arquitectura contemporánea sigue siendo fundamentalmente moderna

Rebuilding Babel Mark Crinson, 2017-06-30 Much of modernist architecture was inspired by the emergence of internationalism the ethics and politics of world peace justice and unity through global collaboration Mark Crinson here shows how the ideals represented by the Tower of Babel built so the story goes by people united by one language were effectively adapted by internationalist architecture its styles and practices in the modern period Focusing particularly on the points of convergence between modernist and internationalist trends in the 1920s and again in the immediate post war years he underlines how such architecture utilised the themes of a cooperative community of builders and a common language of forms The International Style was one manifestation of this new way of thinking but Crinson shows how the aims of modernist architecture frequently engaged with the substance of an internationalist mindset in addition to sharing surface similarities Bringing together the visionaries of internationalist projects including Le Corbusier Bruno Taut Berthold Lubetkin Walter Gropius and Mies van der Rohe Crinson interweaves ideas of evolution ecology utopia regionalism socialism free trade and anti colonialism to reveal the possibilities heralded by modernist architecture Furthermore he re connects pivotal figures in architecture with a cast of polymath internationalists such as Patrick Geddes Lewis Mumford Julian Huxley Rabindranath Tagore and H G Wells to provide a richly detailed socio cultural framework This is a book crafted for students and scholars of architecture and art theory as well as for those interested in the history of twentieth century optimism about the world and its architecture

The Housing Question Edward Murphy, Najib B. Hourani, 2016-03-09 In the wake of the Great Recession housing and its financing suddenly re emerged as questions of significant public concern Yet both public and academic debates about housing have remained constricted tending not to explore how the evolution of housing simultaneously entails basic forms of socio spatial reproduction and underlying tensions in the political order Drawing on cutting edge perspectives from urban studies this book grants renewed interdisciplinary energy to the housing question It explores how housing raises a series of vexing issues surrounding rights identity and justice in the modern city Through finely detailed studies that illuminate national and regional particularities ranging from analyses of urban planning in the Soviet Union the post Katrina reconstruction of New Orleans to squatting in contemporary Lima the volume underscores how housing questions matter in a wide range of contexts It draws attention to ruptures and continuities between high modernist and neoliberal forms of urbanism demonstrating how housing and the dilemmas surrounding it are central to governance and the production of space in a rapidly urbanizing world Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility Naina Gupta,2025-05-30 Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility A Curious Cross Atlantic Constellation presents an alternative history of internationalism and modernism with a focus on the role of architecture and spatial practices Beginning at the tail end of the peace movements the turn of the twentieth century and ending with the Nuremberg trials the book highlights the part played by individual agency social reform and architecture in moulding a working everyday definition of what it meant to be international during this time By viewing internationalism through the lens of the individual and the body both as initiator and subject it is repositioned as an integral part of everyday life rather than simply understood to be concerned with geopolitical relations between nations and their institutions The book furthers a research methodology that is multidisciplinary and transnational It will therefore be of interest to researchers and students of architecture and international history "Iron, Ornament and Architecture in Victorian Britain " Paul Dobraszczyk,2017-07-05 Vilified by leading architectural modernists and Victorian critics alike mass produced architectural ornament in iron has received little sustained study since the 1960s yet it proliferated in Britain in the half century after the building of the Crystal Palace in 1851 a time when some architects engineers manufacturers and theorists believed that the fusion of iron and ornament would reconcile art and technology and create a new modern architectural language Comprehensively illustrated and richly researched Iron Ornament and Architecture in Victorian Britain presents the most sustained study to date of the development of mechanised architectural ornament in iron in nineteenth century architecture its reception and theorisation by architects critics and engineers and the contexts in which it flourished including industrial buildings retail and seaside architecture railway stations buildings for export and exhibition and street furniture Appealing to architects conservationists historians and students of nineteenth century visual culture and the built environment this book offers new ways of understanding the notion of modernity in Victorian architecture by questioning and re evaluating both Victorian and modernist understandings of the ideological split between historicism and functionalism and ornament and structure A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad,David Rifkind,2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism Hong Kal,2011-05-12 Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism chooses expositions museums and the urban built environment at particular moments in both colonial and postcolonial eras and analyses their discursive relations in the construction of Korean nationalism By linking concepts of visual spectacle space and governmentality this book explores how visual spectacles and spaces made the nation imaginable to the public in both the past and the present how they represented a new modality of seeing for the state and contributed to the shaping of collective identities in colonial and postcolonial Korea and how their different modes were associated with the change in governmentality in Korea In addressing these questions the book interprets the politics behind the culture of displays and shows both the continuity and the transformation of spectacles as a governing technology in twentieth century Korea Piranesi and the Modern Age Victor Plahte Tschudi,2022-11-01 The complex appropriation of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture The etchings of the Italian printmaker architect and antiquarian Giovanni Battista Piranesi 1720 78 have long mesmerized viewers But as Victor Plahte Tschudi shows artists and writers of the modern era found in these works Piranesi s visions of contradictory space endless vistas and self perpetuating architecture a formulation of the modern In Piranesi and the Modern Age Tschudi explores the complex appropriation and continual rediscoveries of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture Tracing the ways that the modern age constructed itself and its origin through Piranesi across genres he shows for example how Piranesi s work formulates the ideas of contrast in photography abstraction in painting and montage in cinema Piranesi s modern day comeback Tschudi argues relied on new dimensions found within his work that inspired attempts to inscribe within them a world that was very modern For more than a century these interpretations have helped legitimize new forms theories technologies and movements Tschudi examines among other things how Piranesi s disturbing prison interiors the Carceri became modern metaphors for the mind how Alfred H Barr and the Museum of Modern Art made the case for Piranesi s alleged abstraction in the 1930s and how Sergei Eisenstein reinvented Piranesi as a progenitor of his own innovative filmmaking techniques Tschudi s exploration of Piranesi s influence on modern architectural discourse includes interviews with such distinguished architects as Peter Eisenman Bernard Tschumi Steven Holl and Rem Koolhaas Generously illustrated Piranesi and the Modern Age offers an entirely new reading of Piranesi s work Montage and the Metropolis Martino Stierli,2018-01-01 Montage has been hailed as one of the key structural principles of modernity yet its importance to the history of modern thought about cities and their architecture has never been adequately explored In this groundbreaking new work Martino Stierli charts the history of montage in late 19th century urban and architectural contexts its application by the early 20th century avant gardes and its eventual appropriation in the postmodern period With chapters focusing on photomontage the film theories of Sergei Eisenstein Mies van der Rohe's spatial experiments and Rem Koolhaas's use of literary montage in his seminal manifesto Delirious New York 1978 Stierli demonstrates the centrality of montage in modern explorations of space and in conceiving and representing the contemporary city Beautifully illustrated this interdisciplinary book looks at architecture photography film literature and visual culture featuring works by artists and architects including Mies Koolhaas Paul Citroen George Grosz Hannah Hoch El Lissitzky and Le Corbusier Hut Pavilion Shrine: Architectural Archetypes in Mid-Century Modernism Miles David Samson, 2016-03-09 The phase of American architectural history we call mid century modernism 1940 1980 saw the spread of Modern Movement tenets of functionalism social service and anonymity into mainstream practice It also saw the spread of their seeming opposites Temples arcades domes and other traditional types occur in both modernist and traditionalist forms from the 1950s to the 1970s Hut Pavilion Shrine examines this crossroads of modernism and the archetypal and critiques its buildings and theory The book centers on one particularly important and omnipresent type the pavilion a type which was the basis of major work by Louis I Kahn Paul Rudolph Philip Johnson Minoru Yamasaki and other eminent architects While focusing primarily on the architecture culture of the United States it also includes the work of British European Team X and Scandinavian designers and writers Making connections between formal analysis historical context and theory the book continues lines of inquiry which have been pursued by Neil Levine and Anthony Vidler on representation and by Sarah Goldhagen and Alice Friedman on modernism's forbidden elements of the honorific and the visually pleasurable It highlights the significance of pavilionizing mid century designers such as Victor Lundy John Johansen Eero Saarinen and Edward Durrell Stone and shows how frequently essentialist and traditionalist types appeared in the roadside vernacular of drive in restaurants gas stations furniture and car showrooms branch banks and motels The book ties together the threads in mid century architectural theory that addressed aspects of type essential structure and primal humanistic aspects of environment making and discusses how these concerns outlived the mid century moment and in the designs and writings of Aldo Rossi and others they paved the way for Post Modernism
