Modiano Dora Bruder:

Dora Bruder Patrick Modiano, 2014-11-18 2014 Winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature Patrick Modiano opens Dora Bruder by telling how in 1988 he stumbled across an ad in the personal columns of the New Year's Eve 1941 edition of Paris Soir Placed by the parents of a 15 year old Jewish girl Dora Bruder who had run away from her Catholic boarding school the ad sets Modiano off on a quest to find out everything he can about Dora and why at the height of German reprisals she ran away on a bitterly cold day from the people hiding her He finds only one other official mention of her name on a list of Jews deported from Paris to Auschwitz in September 1942 With no knowledge of Dora Bruder aside from these two records Modiano continues to dig for fragments from Dora's past What little he discovers in official records and through remaining family members becomes a meditation on the immense losses of the period lost people lost stories and lost history Modiano delivers a moving account of the ten year investigation that took him back to the sights and sounds of Paris under the Nazi Occupation and the paranoia of the Pétain regime as he tries to find connections to Dora In his efforts to exhume her from the past Modiano realizes that he must come to terms with the specters of his own troubled adolescence The result a montage of creative and historical material is Modiano's personal rumination on loss both memoir and memorial Dora Bruder

Vichy's Afterlife Richard Joseph Golsan,2000-01-01 One of the distinctive features of the Vichy Syndrome the persistence of the memory of the Vichy regime in French political and cultural life is that it has been extremely difficult for an authoritative historical discourse to impose itself Why does Vichy and all that the name entails fascinate and even obsess the French inflecting not only discussions of the past but of the present as well In Vichy's Afterlife Richard J Golsan explores the complexities of some of the most provocative episodes of Vichy's curious persistence in France's national consciousness He argues that each of these episodes events and scandals constitutes a crossroads where history and counterhistory different or competing versions of the past encounter one another often with explosive and even destructive consequences

A Self-conscious Art Akane Kawakami,2000-01-01 A Self Conscious Art deals with the formal complexities of Modiano's work by reading against the grain of his self-professed ingenuousness A detailed examination of his narratives shows the deeply postmodern nature of his writing Parodying precursors such as Proust or the nouveau romanciers his narratives are built around a profound lack of faith in the ability of writing to retrieve the past through memory and this failure is acknowledged in the discreet playfulness that characterises his novels

Shadows in the City of Light Sara R. Horowitz,Amira Bojadzija-Dan,Julia Creet,2021-05-01 The essays in Shadows in the City of Light explore the significance of Paris in the writing of five influential French writers Sarah Kofman Patrick Modiano George Perec Henri Raczymow and Irene Nemirovsky whose novels and memoirs capture and probe the absences of deported Paris Jews These writers move their readers through wartime and postwar cityscapes of Paris walking them through streets and arrondissements where Jews once resided looking for traces of the disappeared The city functions as more than a backdrop or setting Its streets and buildings and monuments remind us of the exhilarating promise of the French Revolution and what it meant for Jews dreaming of equality But the dynamic space of Paris also reminds us of the Holocaust and its aftermath The shadowed paths traced by these writers raise complicated questions about ambivalence absence memory secularity and citizenship In their writing the urban landscape itself bears witness to the absent Jews and what happened to them For the writers treated in this volume neither their Frenchness nor their Jewishness is a fixed point Focusing on Paris's dual role as both a cultural hub and a powerful symbol of hope and conflict in Jewish memory the contributors address intersections and departures among these writers Their complexity of thought artistry and depth of vision shape a new understanding of the impact of the Holocaust on Jewish and French identity on literature and literary forms and on the development of Jewish secular culture in Western Europe

Patrimones George Kouvaros,2024-07-02 Is a patrimony something we inherit or something we create Does it mark the continuation of the past or its disappearance Combining elements of criticism cultural history and memoir Patrimones addresses the questions How do we take from and give back to those who came before How have their actions and choices left their mark on us The instigation for these questions is an awareness of precariousness people places and histories on the brink This is what gives George Kouvaros's essays their sense of occasion and responsibility to those who came before and those still to come The outcome is a form of writing that is deeply moving and alert to the tension between survival and transformation preservation and appropriation that defines the engagements with our forebears A Riffaterrean Reading of Patrick Modiano's La Place de L'étoile Charles O'Keefe,2005 Memory, Historic Injustice, and Responsibility W. James Booth,2019-11-05 What is it to do justice to the absent victims of past injustice given the distance that separates us from them Grounded in political theory and guided by the literature on historical justice W James Booth restores the dead to their central place at the heart of our understanding of why and how to deal with past injustice Testimonies and accounts from the race war in the United States the Holocaust post apartheid South Africa Argentina s Dirty War and the conflict in Northern Ireland help advance and defend Booth s claim that caring for the dead is a central part of addressing past injustice Memory Historic Injustice and Responsibility is an insightful and original book on the relationship of past and present in thinking about what it means to do justice A valuable addition to the currently available literature on historical justice the volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of political science philosophy history and law Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory Oana Panaïté,2022-06-15 Contemporary literature gathers in a commemorative site the remains of H history and its own story by erecting literary tombs Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory argues that current narratives of the aftermath enable writers to honour the past while casting off its burdensome legacy and to dismantle while reassembling affective political and aesthetic communities The genre is defined and discussed in relation to other literary forms such as trauma writing historical novels archival narratives biofiction or field literature Necrofiction fulfils in distinct ways the social and artistic function of an individual or collective act of remembrance of a lost family member or a historical figure At the same time it offers a creative space in which the authors can overcome the burden of literary tradition by incorporating existing models and devices into their own poetic art while as demonstrated by the works of five writers whose personal and artistic trajectories transcend political cultural and linguistic frontiers Linda L Patrick Modiano Assia Djebar Patrick Chamoiseau and Maylis de Kerangal By examining the ways in which fiction both reflects and resists what Achille Mbembe has defined as necropolitics Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory delves into the contentious yet intimate relationship between singular models of literary remembrance and the frameworks of hegemonic discourses
